lection in Baptist History which is housed in the Z. Smith Reynolds Library. John R. Woodard, director of the Baptist Collection, writes that "We are still dedicated to collecting, preserving, and making available to the Baptists of our state, and other qualified researchers, the most complete and comprehensive collection of source materials on North Carolina Baptists that can be assembled."

The college scholarship committee made 1,413 awards to undergraduates during the 1974-75 school year for a total of $1,012,781. Through the financial aid office, many other students received financial assistance from outside agencies.

The university community was saddened by the deaths of Egbert Lawrence Davis of Winston-Salem, a former university trustee and one of the Baptist leaders who founded Baptist Hospital, and Elton C. Cocke, professor emeritus of biology, who was a faculty member for 33 years and a former department chairman.

Following is an analysis of the university's outstanding loans as of June 30, 1975.

7. WINGATE COLLEGE

W. T. HARRIS, president, Board of Trustees

THOMAS E. CORTS, president

The motto of Wingate College, "Knowledge, Wisdom, Service," was faithfully advanced during 1974-75. The College enrolled 1,298 students in the fall semester and graduated 382 students. It has been a significant year of transition and change.

Enjoying a debt-free campus, Wingate has continued the renewal and upgrading of college facilities. Almost all dormitories are carpeted, air-conditioned, and built on the suite-plan for maximum privacy and the encouragement of interpersonal relationships. The campus covers more than 300 acres.

Academically, 1974-75 was an exciting year. Students were given an opportunity to participate in a short "Experiential Term." During a period of two weeks, a student could be placed in an office or industrial concern coordinate with his/her vocational goal. Thus a law student worked in a law office, medical personnel in medical offices, etc. The opportunity was helpful to a number of students who felt they needed assistance in developing vocational goals.

Planning was begun on the new Medical Assistant Program which enrolled its first students in 1975-76. Medical Assistants aid the physician with clerical, administrative and clinical chores to make more efficient use of the physician's time.

The textile management program of the College was enhanced with the donation of a new double-knitting machine valued at $35,000. The machine was a gift of the Singer Company, and adds a new dimension of "hands-on" experience in double-knit fabrics.

Night school and special short course offerings were expanded. The college also opened its classes on a no-tuition basis to senior citizens, so long as space is available. Citizens of the area are welcome to use the excellent collection of the Ethel K. Smith Library.

Alumni of Wingate College worked hard to promote a special weekend reunion during the summer of 1975. More than 300 persons came from several states to share reminiscences and fellowship. Featured were those classes prominent during the years of the late C. C. Burris, ninth president of Wingate College. Also honored was Carolyn Caldwell Gaddy who retired at the close of the 1974-75 academic year after 43 years of service. Mrs. Gaddy had served as Dean of Women, Academic Dean, chairman of the Department of Social Science, and more recently as instructor of history and government. Friends have begun the Carolyn Caldwell Gaddy Fund in her honor.

Another significant event was formation of the Faculty-Administration Assembly. A new form of participatory government, the Assembly is aimed at promoting faculty-staff input, and enhancing the sense of community at the College.

Cooperative Program funds of the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina totaled $253,496.78 during 1974-75. With an annual operating budget of $3 million, this represents significant assistance. The college is grateful for this support, as well as for the prayers and interests of Baptist people. This direct assistance, and the loyalty of our constituency through individual gifts, bequests, etc., enables the college to guarantee that no student will be denied the privilege of attending Wingate College, solely because of finances. While Wingate has modest charges of under $2,000 per year (room, board and tuition), the college continues to make available large sums for student financial assistance. As it has for 22 consecutive years, Wingate College operated during 1974-75 on a balanced budget.

Wingate is pleased to host the Convention's annual Vacation Bible School Clinic. A number of other denominational groups have used college facilities, as well as churches and associations.

Students continue to be involved in Christian service. On 28 occasions, Wingate students visited local churches to assist with youth revivals and special emphases. In January, students raised more than $1,500 for the Convention's special World Relief Offering.

Wingate College is seeking to serve the young people of the denomination and the region, in quest of the excellence that is required of those who follow our Lord.

H. DIVISION OF CHRISTIAN SOCIAL SERVICES

1. Baptist Children's Homes of North Carolina Inc.

CARROLL C. WALL, JR., chairman, Board of Trustees

W. R. WAGONER, president

Christian child care provided by the Baptist Children's Homes of North Carolina is a cooperative mission. It was through the life, teaching and ministry of Christ and under the leadership of the Holy Spirit that North Carolina Baptists launched their child care ministry 90 years ago. Today it is recognized as one of the outstanding ministries of its kind in the nation.

Without the cooperative support of our Baptist people, along with many other friends, the Homes could not have come into being. These relationships are vital to the future of the Homes and all who are served through them. The investments which we have made in the lives of hundreds of children are today paying rich dividends. These are some of our finest citizens for whom you provided a Christian home and way of life.

New and innovative developments are in progress throughout the State. Emergency Shelters in Burlington, Charlotte, and Forest City are serving many children who need immediate assistance. Both Broyhill Home and Mills Home have a cottage for children under construction and will be completed during 1976. Progress is being made in the public funds campaign in nine Southeastern counties to upgrade and expand facilities and services through Odum Home, Pembroke.

Increasingly the Children's Homes is giving attention to the child with exceptional needs. It has been recognized for several years that life circumstances have created some degree of emotional disturbance for many of the children who have to be separated from their families. We are seeing now that there are children with other kinds of exceptional needs who can be absorbed into our programs for a period of time and enabled to function sufficiently to be returned to their families and communities.

"The Mountain Within," a 30 minute sound, documentary color film depicting life at the Children's Homes has been well received. Television stations in North Carolina are showing it for the second time. It has received five national awards for its excellence. The film is available to our churches through the State Convention's Department of Communication in Raleigh and through the Homes.

Thousands of people make possible the ministry of the Children's Homes through their interest, prayers and financial support. It is against the back drop of this devotion that the Homes continue to grow in influence and outreach of ministry. It is the dedicated purpose of the agency to keep faith with those who express confidence and trust in the way of life being provided for neglected, dependent, and homeless children.

2. North Carolina Baptist Homes, Inc.

WILLIAM POOLE, executive-director

There has never been a year in the history of your Baptist Homes when more people have sought the services of the Homes. This has been true particularly of the aging sick. Almost daily calls come from older persons, and their families, inquiring about admission to one of your five resident Homes and the Skilled Nursing Care Facility of the Homes.

Today there are some 21,000,000 Americans age 65 and above, and this number, it is anticipated, will grow by over 300,000 a year in the years ahead. The needs of aging people are overwhelming, and we must strive diligently to meet those needs.

Although we can minister in our North Carolina Baptist Homes to only 230 persons at any given time, we have served hundreds of aging people through the twenty-four years that we have been on the scene at Resthaven, the Hayes Home, and the Nursing Care Unit, in Winston-Salem, and in our Homes at Albemarle, Hamilton, and Yanceyville. As God continues to bless us and lead us, we will make every effort to expand our ministry and to reach out and help as many older persons as possible in the years ahead. We can do this only by the grace of the Lord and by the increased concern and giving of our Baptist people.

Gifts for 1974-75 from our Baptist Churches, through the Co-operative Program and through the 3rd Sunday of February Offering for the Homes, reflect a very encouraging increase. This is great, and we are grateful especially since four out of every five persons who live in our Homes depend upon these love gifts for their care! Your love gift is a life-line to these deserving older persons, and they could not be cared for in the majority of cases, if it were not for you.

Signs on the horizon indicate that we will need greater financial support for our Homes for the Aging from our Baptist people than ever before.

The most exciting development in the family of your Baptist Homes for the past year has been the experience of obtaining one of the most beautiful locations in the Blue Ridge Mountains of North Carolina for the proposed Western North Carolina Baptist Home. This site is a twenty-one acre tract of land overlooking the city of Asheville, better known as the Pearson Estate, on Richmond Hill, in Northwest Asheville. God Himself, we feel, has guided us in discovering this beautiful site.

Plans are in the making now to raise $1,000,000 for the construction of this new proposed Western North Carolina Baptist Home. These plans initially will include 50 rooms for residents, with living room, dining room, library, chapel and activities room, and other necessary rooms. With the completion of this Home, North Carolina Baptists will be enlarging their base of ministry to almost 300 persons, and older people from Western North Carolina will have a facility to serve the hundreds in their area who will need the service of this lovely facility now and in the years to come.

Pray for the ministry of your Baptist Homes for the Aging. Give as liberally as possible that the overwhelming needs of older people in our midst might be met more adequately. Visit the Homes and see first-hand the personal joy that your gifts bring. Know that your ministry to even one of these dear older people is a ministry as unto Christ Himself.

3. North Carolina Baptist Hospital

JOHN E. LYNCH, director

GROVER R. HOWELL, Chairman, Board of Trustees

There have been many significant developments, in several different areas, at your Baptist Hospital during the past year.

By the time this report is read the new ambulatory care unit will be open, making possible enlarged and improved services for the Emergency Room, Out-patient Clinics, Physical Therapy and other departments. Renovation of the West Wing will be complete and renovation on the South Wing will begin in early August. The third floor of the Progressive Care Unit has been remodeled to provide 26 beds, therapy room and other improved facilities for Psychiatric services.

The long-awaited EMI-scanner is now in use and is already proving beneficial in detecting blood clots, tumors, strokes and other abnormalities of the brain.

A Family Practice Center opened July 1, 1975 to offer more primary medical care for patients and also to provide specialized training for physicians who choose to enter Family Practice.

During the year the hospital had its biennial review by the Joint Commission on Hospital Accreditation. All areas of operation received an excellent report, but physician service, nursing service and administration all received especially high commendation.

Despite the continued rise in costs for services and materials the hospital has been able to operate in the black. The administration and department heads confer frequently and make diligent effort to see that the hospital operates as efficiently and economically as possible.

Gifts from the Baptist churches have been very gratifying. During the calendar year of 1974 the hospital received $258,898 through the Cooperative Program and $392,000 through the Mother's Day Offering. Hospital staff members have participated in Cooperative Program promotion in cooperation with the State Convention Division of Stewardship and Cooperative Program Promotion.

The Department of Pastoral Care has opened a counseling center in Raleigh, its second satellite center. Plans are developing for a third satellite in the western part of the state. The Department has established a scholarship fund as a memorial to Dr. Richard K. Young, the department's first director, who died December 31. Full re-accreditation was given the School of Pastoral Care in December by the Association of Clinical Pastoral Education.

During the past year Mr. Reid T. Holmes retired as President of the hospital, after serving in the hospital administration for 29 years.

HIGHLIGHTS OF THE YEAR

In the past year, the Recorder has been privileged to report, in full, the Baptist story—in North Carolina and elsewhere. It is still a thrilling story to tell and the Recorder has tried to be a faithful steward of its responsibility. Among the major stories has been the work of the Search Committee to find a successor to Dr. W. Perry Crouch. The Recorder also gave comprehensive coverage to the Baptist World Congress in Stockholm. These are just two of the many newsworthy events which the Recorder was privileged to cover.

Financially speaking, it was a reasonably good year in that the Recorder managed to stay in the black for the second straight year, with net income of $2,433.52. This was not an easy achievement as this was a year which saw inflation continue, especially in printing costs, paper and postage. In order to meet anticipated increases in these and others areas in the coming year, the directors approved a 25 cents increase in the Church Budget Plan, beginning Jan. 1, 1976. This is only one-half cent a week per family and should not strain the more than 1,000 churches sending the paper to resident families. This was the first increase in more than three years and being so modest, it is hoped that churches will take it in stride. Circulation is 112,495, an increase of 1,484 over last year.

The most economical and most convenient plan continues to be the Church Budget Plan which in 1976 will still cost only 5½ cents a week for each family. A local church cannot make a better investment. The Recorder directors and staff strongly urge every church not having the Recorder in the budget to put it in as soon as possible.

Ray K. Hodge, pastor of First Baptist Church in Kinston, sums it up well when he says: "One of the easiest tasks I have had as a pastor is to lead churches to include and keep the denominational paper in the church budget. It is such a bargain that trying to save a few dollars (by not subscribing to it for our families) is too costly. It would be like saving the expense of regular visits to the dentist, only to pay more in various ways later."

His advice is well taken.

V. THE NORTH CAROLINA BAPTIST FOUNDATION, INC.

ROY M. PURSER, SR., Chairman, Board of Directors

EDWIN S. COATES, Executive Secretary

This agency, having had its beginning with the appointment of a Foundation Committee by Dr. B. W. Spilman, President of the Baptist State Convention in 1919, and having been organized in the Biblical Recorder offices in December of that year, has reached a notable milestone during the year, ending June 30, 1975. It has attained its present status due to the dedication of many persons who have sacrificed much time and energy to disseminate information about its purpose to support financially our Baptist institutions, agencies, and mission causes and by their efforts to promote the stewardship of estates as a continuing and living testimony to a faith in a living Lord. It has attained this milestone, too, because many persons have responded to the call to give of their material possessions to establish permanent trusts that have and will support the ministry for Christ around the world long after the life has ended for the donor.

The first gift received by The N. C. Baptist Foundation during that first year was a $1,000 Liberty Bond, given with the request from the donor that it be used towards the establishment of a Baptist Hospital in North Carolina. During the many years until C. Gordon Maddrey was elected as its first full-time Executive Secretary in 1962, the work of promoting the stewardship of estates through wills was carried on by lay persons and interested pastors who had an interest in seeing that the Baptist institutions, agencies, and mission causes of the denomination were supported by gifts on a permanent basis, or by endowment.

During the past year, new gifts were received by the Foundation in the amount of $635,079.57, which boosted the total assets being held by the Foundation for the many denominational causes to $2,331,559.67 (market value). Income and principal designated for payment to the beneficiaries of trusts held by the Foundation was $76,257.82 for the 1974-75 fiscal year, bringing the total of payments to the denominational beneficiaries to over $1 million dollars since the beginning of the agency. The exact amount paid out reached $1,018,414.76 when the annual payments were made at the close of the year.

The first beneficiary to ever receive any income payment from the Foundation was the Aged Ministers' Retirement Fund in 1923 when a check was issued for $2,156.02 from a total endowment listed as $36,826.22 for that year.

Additions to the Trust Funds held by the N. C. Baptist Foundation, Inc., for the past year were:

(1) Elizabeth Ann Harris Estate, Knightdale.....	$209,821.42
(2) Director of Missions Conference
a. Joe Pittman Fund (Coop. Program).....	25.00
b. Bill Ross Fund (Coop. Program).....	25.00
c. Mareta H. Moore Fund (Campbell College)....	300.00

(15) Anonymous gift for a special Ministers'
Retirement Fund	181,000.00
(16) Annuity Trusts (new & additions).....	222,037.16

Additions to Existing Trust Funds were:

(17) Kelly Memorial Fund (Home & Foreign Missions)
by Paul Kelly Family, Raleigh.....	150.00
(18) Newland Baptist Church.....	50.00
(19) R. C. & Sallie Eggers Fund (Coop. Program)

(20) Mt. Hermon Baptist Church, Durham
(Cemetery Fund)	224.00
(21) Marvin R. Ingram Scholarship Fund by Reavis
Memorial Baptist Ch., High Point.....	474.19

As one very dedicated, retired pastor stated during the past year, "The Baptist Foundation is the one place that I can place a gift and know that I will have a part in all of the Lord's work, carried on by Baptists around the world from this day on."

His statement, of course, referred to naming the Cooperative Program as the beneficiary of income from his trust to be established by a statement in his will.

Individual assistance is provided Baptists throughout the state in the establishment of trusts that not only benefit the donor but also support the Christian ministries of our denomination in a lasting, perpetual way.

During the past two years, $330,070.41 has been given to The N. C. Baptist Foundation, Inc., in the way of annuity trusts. In this type trust, the donors reserve the right to the income from the investments for their lifetime and then the income will be paid to the Baptist cause specified in the original trust agreement. The laws of our land provide to the donor certain tax advantages for the gift portion of these transactions. A variety of trusts are provided to meet the specific needs of the donor. Included are the Charitable Remainder Annuity Trust, Charitable Remainder Unitrust, and the Gift Annuity.

Wills still account for a major portion of the funds held in trust by the Foundation. One such gift to benefit mission work from this year forward, came in the form of a farm and other assets given by the deceased. It was determined by the tax records found in this estate, that this person will give annually three times as much for missions through the income from this trust fund, as she was ever able to earn in total wages during any year of her lifetime. So what she could not do for our Lord's work here on earth in her lifetime, she does after her life here has ended.

Through The N. C. Baptist Foundation, opportunity is provided for your Christian witness to be a tangible, working witness that is unending.

VI. REPORT OF CONVENTION COMMITTEES

1. HISTORICAL COMMITTEE

No year should stir North Carolina Baptists to review their past as prologue to a promising and meaningful future better than this year. We stand on the threshold of our nation's bicentennial observance. Baptists have contributed decisively to our country's heritage and we trust will mean much to our hopes for its future. The Baptist Historical Committee joins with the conventions special Bicentennial Committee in encouraging our Baptist people to share fully in the rich possibilities of historical reflection the year ahead can make possible. This committee in conjunction with the Baptist Historical Collection, the principle activity under its supervision, offers recommendations at the conclusion of this report which we believe will assist our churches in using the national observance to ask the vital questions of our history as "A People of God" who must "know whose they are to know who they are."

The words of John Woodard, director of our Baptist Historical Collection will state the objective of this effort: "The treasures which have been collected—the recorded and indelible memory of the past—will increase, not lessen, in value as time goes on. We continue to look toward the future and will be utilizing new tools such as computers and oral history techniques to collect and preserve in every form information which is needed and which would otherwise be lost. Our goal is that the story of North Carolina Baptists—their many accomplishments and their sometimes failures—will be available to future generations. We are the memory of the church and the institution in which we are located. Our function is to serve the churches, the denominational officials, and the individual Baptists of our state, and to answer any reasonable question about who we are and how we got to be this way. Our resources are available to everyone who will come and partake of the rich historical treasures in the Collection.

“We’ve a story to tell to the nations” as a line from a familiar hymn expresses it and what better time to tell the Baptist story than during the bicentennial era of our nation.”

A brief review of some steps which hold great promise in realizing our goals of remembered history are included. The accessioning of two hundred and sixty one printed items includes three items on five reels of micro-film by the Collection. Depth studies done by Campbell College students under the direction of Perry Langston added a wealth of historical and statistical information on 44 North Carolina Baptist churches. The minutes of our various associations are one of the most important sources we have for the writing of our church and association history. One hundred and forty-three association minutes, including some from Primitive and Negro Baptist Associations, and thirteen other minutes were processed.

A biographical file is a valuable resource for reference purposes and to provide church historians with information regarding their former pastors. Complete biographical workups have been done on approximately 332 new individuals. All our pastors should make this information available to the Collection on the redesigned biographical form. Even where this has not been done the staff has compiled everything available in the collection on an individual for whom information is requested. The Director is also considering a special project to compile information on our eighteenth century Baptist ministers for the bicentennial.

Each church should be aware of the Collection’s cooperative efforts with the Local Records Unit of the North Carolina Division of Archives and History, Raleigh, N. C., as they cover the state county-by-county with their microfilming teams. Each church is invited to have their church records micro-filmed at no cost. Our Collection also continues to microfilm church records within the Collection. For instance two files of Charity and Children were combined and microfilmed this year resulting in seventeen reels from 1887-1974.

The personal papers of our denominational leaders and individuals connected with Wake Forest University contain the much needed information for a vast amount of our Baptist history which cannot be located in the official proceedings or in the printed minutes. Letters, diaries, correspondence, and subject files should be preserved and made available to future generations of Baptists. It is very difficult to convince an individual that his personal reminiscences and memorabilia will have significance after he has gone and in many cases before this if he or she has been involved in any current event of importance. Fourteen new collections were established. Significant additions were made to the established Charles Bennett Dean and Sophie Lanneau collection. The committee wishes to avoid the tragedy of the loss of papers of denominational leaders such as our late general secretary, M. A. Huggins, by setting up a procedure for the regular transfer of papers from the various departments of the convention.

Numerous researchers continue to make use of the Collection. As always we encourage individual and church history committees to visit the search room in person.

The Historical Committee wishes to recognize a historical work related to North Carolina Baptists. Bynum Shaw's book, Divided We Stand: The Baptists in American Life—A History, was published in 1974. The author expresses appreciation in his forward for the facilities and resources of the Collection. We wish to note a mini-semester special course on Wake Forest College History taught by J. Edwin Hendricks drew heavily on the Collection's staff and resources.

A special appropriation made possible participation in the Baptist Information Retrieval System (BIRS) in cooperation with nine Southern Baptist Convention Agencies and one other State Baptist Historical Society. We are the largest contributor (10,225 entries into the data base) to this important project and the Committee hopes the trial period extended to the end of 1975 will become permanent. A key feature is the supplying of data on key punch cards from the Biblical Recorder Index.

Our Baptist people continue to be informed as to the work of our Collection by means of our Tar Heel Baptist Footprints. A quarterly now in its fourth volume, it is sent to over 350 individuals and institutions.

Your Baptist Historical Committee wishes to offer the following recommendations which we believe will further this important area of our work:

1. We recommend that two plaques be awarded, one for the best history book and one for the best pamphlet written prior to the 1976 Convention meeting with the awards being presented at that time.

2. We recommend that the Department of Communications produce a slide or filmstrip/cassette presentation on our North Carolina Baptist heritage for use in our churches and associations.

3. We recommend that a grant be sought to compile data on our 18th century Baptist churches and ministers with the idea of publishing this information at a future date.

4. We recommend that all official convention papers be preserved by the establishment of an Archives with regular transfers of papers from the various departments of the convention.

5. We recommend that the Director of the Baptist Historical Collection be an ex-officio member of this committee and any other special committee appointed by the convention relating to historical endeavors.

6. We recommend that funds be made available for carpeting for the Baptist Collection Search Room.

2. COMMITTEE ON TRUSTEE ORIENTATION

The Committee on Trustee Orientation planned and conducted a two-day program on January 17-18, 1975, at the Sir Walter Hotel in Raleigh. Trustees of all institutions and agencies of the Baptist State Convention were invited to attend. L. H. Hollingsworth, Chairman of the Committee, presided.

Program personalities and subjects were as follows:

William C. Strickland, Dean, College of Arts and Sciences, Appalachian State University, spoke on the subject, "Institutional Mission and Ministry—A Theology."

W. Perry Crouch, general secretary-treasurer, Baptist State Convention of North Carolina, addressed the group concerning the importance of mutual support and understanding between institutions and the Convention.

W. Randall Lolley, president, Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary, spoke on the subject, "Institutional Mission and Ministry—A Strategy."

The conference was well attended. It is generally recognized that the annual Trustee Orientation conference contributes creatively to the spirit of understanding and cooperation among trustees and administrators of the North Carolina Baptist institutions and agencies.

VII. REPORT OF TRUSTEES OF CONVENTION

Trustees of the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina, Incorporated, is the Convention's corporation and body corporate, and it is the holder of title to, and conduct of, the Convention's real property. The corporation's sole purpose is to serve the Convention, and it acts only under and pursuant to instructions from the Convention, its General Board or its Executive Committee, or by authority granted in the Constitution of the Convention.

The present trustees were elected at the 1972 meeting of the Convention and were reelected in 1973 and 1974; they are: David M. Britt, Claude F. Gaddy and W. Gale Parker, all of Raleigh. At the initial meeting of the trustees on 20 November 1972, David M. Britt was selected to serve as president and W. Gale Parker was selected to serve as secretary.

Functions of the corporation include the execution of deeds of conveyance, deeds of trust, contracts and other instruments. Actions of the trustees since 24 September 1974 (date of last report to the Convention) include the following:

(1) On 22 November 1974 the president of the trustees executed a change order for C. L. Price and Company regarding construction of the addition to the Baptist Building. The change amounted to a reduction in cost of $1,120.

(2) On 6 February 1975 the president and secretary of the trustees executed an agreement in favor of a Savings and Loan Association with respect to 2.30 acres of land in Davie County belonging to Community Baptist Mission, on which property the Convention holds a deed of trust. The purpose of the agreement was to subordinate the deed of trust held by the Convention to a deed of trust securing a loan of $5,000 to be used by the Mission in making improvements to its property.

(3) On 27 March 1975 the president and secretary of the trustees executed a right-of-way agreement with the State Board of Transportation. The purpose of the agreement is to make possible the elimination of a curve in the highway running through the Caraway property.

All actions taken by the trustees, or any of its officers, were specifically authorized by the General Board or its Executive Committee.

The Constitution of the Convention imposes on the trustees certain responsibilities regarding the fidelity bond of the treasurer of the Convention. The chairman of the trustees thoroughly reviewed the bond now covering the treasurer and other Convention employees and it appears to be in the amount established by the General Board or Executive Committee and further appears to be in proper order.

Respectfully submitted,

DAVID M. BRITT

President, Trustees of the Baptist

AUDITOR'S REPORT

Auditor's Certificate

Board of the Baptist State
Convention of North Carolina
Raleigh, North Carolina

We have examined the balance sheet of the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina as of December 31, 1975 and the related statements of income and expenses and distributions and changes in fund balances for the year then ended. Our examination was made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, and accordingly included such tests of the accounting records and such other auditing procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances.

The funds shown as sent direct on the statement of income and its disposition to funds were taken from reports received by the Convention and were not otherwise verified by us. The scope of our examination as detailed by Note 3 was, in some instances, limited to recorded receipts. Additions to fixed assets are recorded at cost. Dispositions of fixed assets (Notes 1 and 2) are deleted from fixed asset accounts to the extent known. No provision has been made for depreciation (Note 2).

In our opinion, subject to the effects of the matters referred to in the preceding paragraph, the accompanying balance sheet and statements of income and expenses and distributions and changes in fund balances present fairly the financial position of the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina at December 31, 1975, and the results of its operations and the changes in fund balances for the year then ended, in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles applicable to such organizations applied on a basis consistent with that of the preceding year.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

1) SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES:

The accounting policies of the Convention conform to generally accepted accounting principles, applicable to related non-profit organizations. The Convention records its receipts and disbursements on the cash basis and adheres to fund accounting. Other policies are described below:

ACCOUNTS, NOTES AND OTHER RECEIVABLES—As the Convention is on the cash basis, no income is accrued; However, receivables not involving income accruals are recorded.

PREPAID ITEMS AND INVENTORIES—Inventories and prepaid expenses are recorded at cost and are charged to the following accounting period. Amounts in this category are normally small and are usually recorded to conform to budget procedures.

FIXED ASSETS—Purchases of fixed assets and improvements are charged to operating expense as they are paid for. The assets are also recorded at cost in the fixed asset accounts of the general fund and credited to the fund balance. No consideration is given to depreciation. Leasehold costs are amortized over the life of the leaseholds or extension thereof. Real estate disposed of is deleted from the fixed asset accounts at the time of disposition. Personal property is also deleted from the fixed asset accounts when disposed of, if complete information is available. Information on all disposals is not always known. Detailed subsidiary ledgers are not maintained.

DEBT AND LIABILITIES—As the Convention is on the cash basis, current unpaid expenses are not accrued and do not involve an accounts payable account. As a practical matter, at the end of the year, most all creditors are paid right up-to-date. Long-term notes and other liabilities not previously referred to in this paragraph are recorded on the Convention books and appear on the balance sheet.

RETIREMENT PLANS—The Convention contributes to retirement plans for its own employees and shares in the cost of plans of employees of participating Baptist churches in North Carolina. All such costs are charged to operations in the year paid.

RESTRICTED RESERVE FUNDS—The Convention routinely receives contributions designated for specific uses. From time to time, the Convention or General Board designates certain funds for special purposes. All designations are recorded in restricted fund accounts so that charges to the accounts can be restricted to the designated purposes.

INCOME TAXES—The Convention is a tax-exempt organization and does not, therefore, have to account for income taxes.

(2) DEPRECIATION:

Fixed assets are valued at accumulated costs for prior years, plus costs of additions for the current year, reduced by dispositions when ascertainable, and with no consideration given to depreciation. As a result, the values do not reflect depreciated costs or net costs where complete information on dispositions has not been known.

(3) FUNDS SENT DIRECT AND RECORDED RECEIPTS LIMITATIONS:

The funds shown as sent direct on the statement of income and its distribution to funds were taken from reports received by the Convention and were not otherwise verified by us. As a routine procedure, funds are received by the Convention business office from various departments within the Convention covering registration fees, miscellaneous sales, expense reimbursements and other such items. The scope of our examination of these items was limited to receipts as recorded in the business office receipt books. The scope of our examination of receipts for the North Carolina Baptist Assembly, the Fruitland Baptist Bible Institute and Camp Caraway was limited to amounts recorded in pre-numbered receipt books and did not include reconciliations to separate records of registrations, enrollments and attendance.

Recommendations of the Memorial Committee

The Memorial Committee recommends and I move that it be done, That the 1976 Annual of the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina be Dedicated to:

1. Dr. Budd E. Smith for 21 years the distinguished president of Wingate College. He was a scientist, a teacher, an administrator of remarkable ability and dedication. Above all else he was a Christian leader.

2. David B. Roberts for years Associational Missionary of the French Broad Association. He was one of our greatest demonstrations of the overcoming grace of God. He was born so severely handicapped that there was doubt that he would survive, yet there was also born in him such an unconquerable spirit that he became a most effective servant of our Lord.

3. Reid Holmes, for 29 years the administrator of the Baptist Hospital. Under that administration it became one of the great medical centers in Southeastern America. He introduced new concepts and was able to enlist many people to realizing these dreams. In the Recorder he is referred to as both resourceful and compassionate.

4. That we designate the Chapel in the Baptist Building at Raleigh as the "M.A. Huggins Chapel" as a tribute to Dr. M.A. Huggins who provided dynamic and gracious leadership as the General Secretary of our Convention for twenty-seven years. That we ask our present General Secretary, Dr. Ray, to have an appropriate plaque placed at the entrance of the Chapel.

Budd Elmon Smith

Budd E. Smith, scientist, educator, college president, Baptist layman, devoted his life to the work he considered the highest of human enterprises -- Christian higher education. Thoroughly equipped in his academic discipline with B.A., M.A. and Ph.D. degrees in botany from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, he taught for many years at Wake Forest University. Following a term as superintendent of Oxford, North Carolina schools, he became president of Wingate College where he devoted his energy, his wisdom and his life for twenty-one years.

In his role as botanist, he took tender, young plants and nourished them to mature strength; so he took Wingate College, a young, struggling junior college and with the support of North Carolina Baptists, trustees, faculty, administrators, and his wife, Ethel, made it one of the finest, most respected junior colleges in the country. In tribute to Dr. Smith, the Wingate College Board of Trustees made this declaration: ...“from birth Dr. Budd Elmon Smith was destined to be the worker of the miracle which was and is Wingate College. It does not appear that any other man of his time and generation could have accomplished what he did with what he had to begin with at Wingate College.”

Dr. Smith believed that the characteristics of the God who acts in nature should be transmitted to young people. He expected, demanded, that instructors at Wingate give relevance to the Christian dimension of their subject and to assist students in moral and spiritual development. He demonstrated in his attitudes, in his interaction with students, and in the stewardship of college resources the Christian calling which he accepted for Wingate College.

Dr. Smith was born in Benson, North Carolina in 1910 and spent his life in this state, though the sphere of his influence reached throughout the state, region and nation. He gave leadership to many educational organizations such as the North Carolina Association of Independent Colleges and Universities, which he helped to organize, the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools, and the Southern Association of Junior Colleges. Until his death, he was an active member of the Education Commission of the Southern Baptist Convention. For many years he was a leader on the Union County Industrial Development Commission.

The viewpoint of distinguished contemporary professors, teachers, presidents, and other executives and leaders in the realm of higher education is aptly stated by one of them:

"In my judgment, Bud was a dedicated and outstanding educational leader equalled by few and excelled by none. He took a floundering, mediocre junior college and developed it into the largest and one of the best private junior colleges east of the Mississippi. Under his direction, Wingate grew not only in numbers of students but, more importantly, in quality of instruction. He inspired the confidence of men and women of wealth and thus secured the funds to expand and improve the facilities of the college. Under his direction, the campus beautification efforts were accelerated. he knew and loved beautiful plants and knew how to make them grow."

Dr. Smith's untiring determination and personal faith insured the future of Wingate College. He shaped the lives of many young people by believing in the vast potential of young minds and investing himself to provide quality education to build morally, intellectually and spiritually mature men and women.

The Lord is gracious to His people in raising up "the right man for the right time." North Carolina Baptists can be grateful to have enjoyed the life and work of Dr. Budd Elmon Smith.

Thomas Corts

David Benjamin Roberts

Rev. David B. Roberts is an inspiring example of one who by the power of mind and spirit, with dedication and perseverance, overcame physical handicaps and disadvantages to become an inspiration to thousands and was able to work a transformation in an entire association.

He was born in 1904 near Lenoir, N.C., in Caldwell County, the youngest of six children, four girls and two boys. At birth he suffered injuries which resulted in permanent curvature of the spine and defective vision. After the death of his mother his father married again, and the children were forced to leave home. The oldest sister, age thirteen, supported the younger children by working in a cotton mill. David later worked in a mill for ten cents a day. At the age of four he learned to walk and at the age of seven entered public school. He later attended high school at Boiling Springs (now Gardner-Webb College). After graduation he attended Wake Forest College and continued his education at the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary.

At the age of thirteen he responded to what he felt to be a call to the ministry. While at Boiling Springs he began to assist in revivals and later to serve as interim pastor of nearby churches. After graduation from college and the seminary he taught in public high schools and served local churches as interim pastor, and later became the pastor of Tuckasegee Baptist Church at Mount Holly.

He married Miss Wilford Alexander of Stoney Point in 1940, who became his fellow worker, chauffeur, and support until his death in 1976. They have one son, C. Benjamin Roberts, who teaches and coaches at A.C. Reynolds High School in Buncombe County.

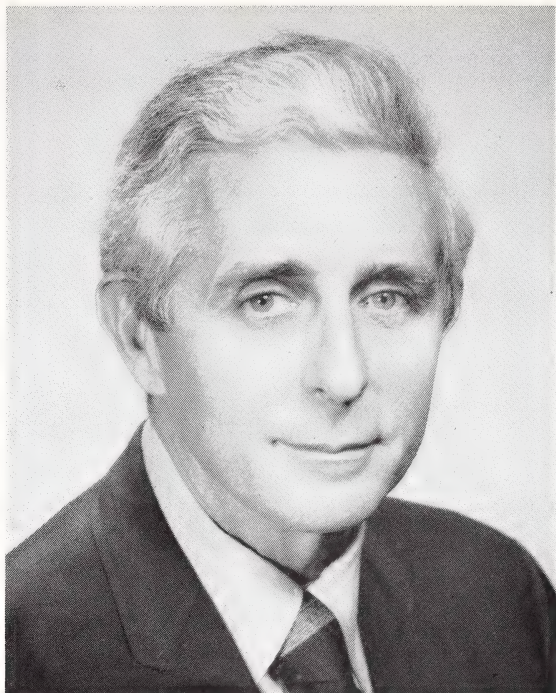

Mr. Roberts came to the French Broad Association in 1946 as associational field worker and was later appointed associational missionary, serving until his retirement in 1970. He began his work by visiting the churches and preaching in most of them. Gradually he won his way into the hearts of the people. He found a gulf between the more progressive churches, which cooperated in the programs of the convention, and those which did not and were even in opposition to most of the programs. Many of the churches were largely independent with local pastors who resented intrusions from outsiders. By visiting in the communities and speaking in the churches he worked his way into the hearts of people and won their confidence.

He and Mrs. Roberts began holding Vacation Bible Schools until the churches could conduct their own schools and until one hundred percent of the churches proudly announced that they were holding schools annually. He encouraged many of the churches to contribute to causes supported by the convention through the Cooperative Program, even in small amounts, until one hundred percent of the churches were participating.

An example of the appreciation and esteem in which Mr. Roberts was held was the united effort to build him a permanent home in the association. He was living in the parsonage of the Bull Creek Baptist Church when Mr. Cory Wallin gave an acre-lot on which to build the home. The churches donated materials, and individuals contributed their labor and skills to the project. Mrs. Roberts now lives in the home and works as a florist in Mars Hill since the death of Mr. Roberts in 1976.

Churches of the French Broad Association, as well as many individuals, will never be the same since Rev. and Mrs. David Roberts gave their services so fully to them.

Reid T. Holmes

“Resourceful” and “compassionate”. Someone at the North Carolina Baptist Hospital-Bowman Gray School of Medicine Center wrote that those two words were the ones most frequently used by colleagues and friends to describe Reid Holmes. This is an excellent appraisal of the man, to which his achievements bear abundant testimony.

Half of Holmes’ life of 58 years was spent as Administrator and President of Baptist Hospital. He was a native of Wildwood, New Jersey, but worked his way through college at Duke University and there did his graduate work and received his Certificate in Hospital Administration in 1940, as an outstanding graduate in this field. He was invited to remain at Duke, and worked in the administration for five years.

In 1945 he was called to serve as Administrator and Chief Executive Officer of Baptist Hospital. The Bowman Gray School of Medicine of Wake Forest University had become affiliated with the hospital in 1941, and the Medical Center was now in its infancy. His experience at the Duke Medical Center and his competence in this field enabled him to play a vital role in the development of the Center in Winston-Salem.

Holmes' vision, foresight and wisdom were manifest throughout his administration. The hospital owned one small city block, part of which had been deeded to the Medical School. He envisioned the future needs, and step by step, property was added in all four directions. In his early days Richard K. Young came and Mr. Holmes recognized the importance of pastoral care and fostered the development of the department and the School of Pastoral Care for the training of ministers. This was one of the first such schools in the south and has been one of the leaders in the field.

He brought to Baptist Hospital the first cobalt therapy machine for the treatment of cancer in the state. He was one of the first to see the need for less expensive hospitalization for patients who did not need constant nursing and bed care, and developed the minimal care unit. This received national and international recognition and became something of a model in the field.

His leadership and abilities were recognized in the community. He served as a Director of Wachovia Bank and Trust Co., Piedmont Federal Savings and Loan Association, the Chamber of Commerce, and on many other boards and committees in the fields of health care and business. This respect and confidence were reflected in the generous financial support the business community has provided for the development of the Medical Center.

In his chosen field of hospital and health care he has a brilliant record. He served in highly responsible positions of leadership in local, state and national bodies, such as hospital associations, American College of Hospital Administrators, National League of Nursing, and others too numerous to list.

All of this attests to the competence and spirit of the man who gave himself so completely and played such a vital role in the development of an outstanding center for medical care, teaching and research.

He was a valued member of First Baptist Church, Winston-Salem, where he served as a deacon, trustee, and in other places of responsibility.

Reid Holmes was married to Betty Pollard of Durham, and they have two children. The daughter and her family live in Asheville, and the son and his family live in Winston-Salem, where he is in business.

Here was one of those superior persons, whose compassion shone in all his relationships. The hospital employee in the most lowly job knew that in the mind of his employer he was a person. People in health care, Baptists of North Carolina, the citizens of this state and beyond, and the Kingdom of God can be grateful that he lived and loved and gave.

Katherine Elizabeth Morris Huggins

Mrs. Katherine Elizabeth Morris Huggins (Katiebet) was born in Franklin County, North Carolina, on January 27, 1890, the daughter of Sarah Ann Winston Williams and Edward W. Morris. She was educated in the public schools of Franklinton and Durham, and also received private tutoring in Durham. She attended the Baptist Academy (now Meredith College) in 1907 as a special student in music, and taught in the public school system in Clayton, North Carolina, from 1910 to 1917. During this time she met and became engaged to M.A. Huggins, Superintendent of Schools in Clayton. Because of her mother's illness, Katiebet returned to Franklinton, and her fiance went to Durham to teach Latin in the Durham High School. He was called into service in World War I and was stationed at Camp Sevier in Greenville, South Carolina. While he was there Katiebet's mother died, and M.A. wrote to her asking if she would be "foolish enough to come to Greenville so that we may be married and have a few days together before I go across". In her own words, "I was just that foolish", and they were married in Greenville, South Carolina, on July 13, 1918. After the war and a period of study at the Sorbonne, Mr. Huggins returned to the States, and he and Katiebet went to Scotland Neck where he served as Superintendent of Schools until 1924.

In 1924, Katiebet and Mr. Huggins moved to Raleigh where he accepted the position of Secretary of Christian Education. Katiebet became a faculty wife when her husband served as Professor of Education at Meredith College from 1929 to 1932, and during the 1930's, she taught piano lessons in her home. During the years Mr. Huggins served as Secretary-Treasurer of the North Carolina Baptist Convention, Katiebet was quite active in Convention work, and held various positions of leadership in NCWMU and in the WMS of the First Church in Raleigh. She also taught foreign students English in her home and their home for some two years - a project of the WMA at the First Church in Raleigh. Her home was always open to visiting ministers, Convention staff members, and other friends. She was the first President of the Chatter Club, a group of pastors' wives and wives of Convention staff members, and thoroughly enjoyed the meetings of this group. When Mr. Huggins retired in 1959, Katiebet was presented with a bouquet of 27 red roses, one for each year of his service to the Convention. After her husband's death in 1971, Katiebet refused to "vegetate", but continued active until a few weeks before her final illness, enjoying her friends, her family, her church, cultural events and politics, and particularly her daughters and her "precious" grandchildren.

In her roles as music teacher, superintendent's wife, faculty wife, Convention Secretary's wife, church worker, mother and grandmother, Katiebet enjoyed her busy life to the fullest. Her pastor, Dr. John Lewis, aptly described her as "a good helpmate of another servant of God laboring together sacrificially for so many years."

Clyde Houston Tucker

Facing the reality of a terminal illness, Clyde Tucker was asked by a medical student, "Are you bitter?" and added "surely you have asked, 'Why me?'" His answer was "Why not me?" This answer-question epitomizes the humility and strength of this dedicated Baptist pastor and denominational leader.

At the time of his death in May, 1975, he was working on a book to convey his reactions in the face of death. His book was never completed but his wife, Melda, compiled and had printed the parts he had completed: the preface and conclusion and outline of the bulk of the book. In these portions, he made clear his Christian convictions had been strengthened rather than weakened during his thirteen months of illness.

Clyde Houston Tucker was born September 7, 1919, in Cabarrus County, N.C. His parents were Burton and Beulah Raymer Tucker. He was a graduate of Hartsell High School, Concord; Wingate Junior College; Catawba College; and the New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary, where he received the Master of Theology degree. He was a veteran of World War II.

Over a twenty-four year period of ministry, Clyde Tucker served as pastor of three churches. These churches are: Commonwealth Baptist Church, Charlotte, from 1949-1953; Spring Hill Baptist Church, Poplarville, Mississippi, from 1954-1956; and Reavis Memorial Baptist Church, High Point, from August 1, 1956-August 18, 1974.

Charles W. Stafford, president of the High Point Baptist Pastor's Conference wrote in tribute: "Brother Tucker was the first moderator of the Central Baptist Association, organized in November, 1959. His dedicated leadership helped to get the Association off to a good start." Clyde Tucker was also active in the High Point Ministers' Alliance, the Ministerial Board of Associates for Gardner-Webb College and he was president of the High Point Citizens for Christian Action, (the local chapter of the Christian Action League). Woodrow Hill, writing in the Biblical Recorder says, "It was largely through his (Tucker's) influence that three referendums related to liquor in High Point were defeated."

North Carolina Baptists recognized his leadership capabilities by placing him on numerous committees. He also served as Second Vice President of the North Carolina Baptist State Convention and was a member of the General Board and the Executive Committee.

On December 15, 1951, he was married to the former Melda Brown of Fort Mill, S.C., who survives him. Also surviving are four daughters: Brenda, Peggy, Sherri and Terri.

Perhaps the most significant tribute to Clyde Tucker came from the members of the church where he was pastor for eighteen years. Reavis Memorial Church led the way, with the help of friends across the state, in building the Tucker family a comfortable house. Three weeks before his death, Clyde saw his family settled in their own home.

I.V. Couch, Brushy Mountain Associational Superintendent of Missions, said at his funeral, "Clyde was the best Christian man I've ever met." Marse Grant writing in the Recorder declared that "this is not an overstatement." In his personal tribute to Clyde Tucker, Editor Grant said, "with his death I lost one of the most understanding friends I ever had."

In his last sermon, Clyde Tucker said, "I believe that it is incumbent upon each of us to tell the story of Jesus, but beyond that to live the gospel life." He understood the truth in one of his favorite poems by Edgar Guest:

I'd rather see a sermon than hear one any day,
I'd rather one should walk with me than merely show the way.

The eye's a better pupil and more willing than the ear;
Fine counsel is confusing, but example's always clear;
And the best of all the preachers are the men who live their creed. . . .

Constitution

PREAMBLE

For the declaration of its fundamental purposes and the permanent guidance and control of its activities, the body does adopt the following as its Constitution, to wit:

Article I. Name

The name of this body is the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina.

Article II. Purposes

The object of this Convention shall be to promote missions, evangelism, education, social services, the distribution of the Bible and sound religious literature, and to co-operate with the work of the Southern Baptist Convention.

Article III. Authority

While independent and sovereign in its own sphere, the Convention does not claim and will never attempt to exercise any authority over any other Baptist body, whether church, auxiliary organization, association, or Convention.

Article IV. Composition

The Convention shall be composed of

(1) Two messengers from each co-operating church, and one additional messenger from each church for every hundred members or major fraction thereof, beyond the first one hundred members; provided, that no church shall be entitled to more than ten messengers. No one shall be a messenger who is not a member of a church co-operating with the Convention, and messengers must be duly elected by their churches; a co-operating church shall be one that supports any object of the Convention and which is in friendly cooperation with this Convention and sympathetic with its purpose and work; and (2) The officers of the Convention, the members of the General Board, the editor of the Biblical Recorder, and the President of the Woman's Missionary Union.

Article V. Meetings

The Convention shall convene annually on Monday after the second Sunday in November at 7:00 p.m. In case of emergency or unusual circumstances the General Board is empowered to change the time or place of meeting, cancel the sessions of the Convention, or call a special meeting by a vote of two-thirds of the members present when the vote is taken.

Article VI. Officers

The officers of the Convention shall be a President, a First Vice-President, a Second Vice-President, a Recording Secretary, an Assistant Recording Secretary, a General Secretary-Treasurer, three Trustees, and a Parliamentarian. The terms of the President, the Vice-Presidents, Recording Secretary, Assistant Recording Secretary, Trustees and the Parliamentarian shall commence at the conclusion of the annual session at which they are elected and continue until the close of the next annual session of the Convention. The President and Vice-Presidents may not be elected for more than two consecutive terms. The election of all officers subject to annual election shall be on the afternoon of the first full day of the annual Convention, but the elections may be completed, if necessary, on the morning of the second full day. A vacancy in any of the above-mentioned offices, except that of President, occurring between sessions of the Convention may be filled by the General Board; such vacancies in the presidency shall be filled by the Vice-Presidents succeeding to the office in order of their rank.

a. In case of a vacancy in the office of General Secretary-Treasurer, the General Board shall nominate a man to the Convention to fill this office.

b. Opportunity shall be given to receive additional nominations from the floor of the Convention.

c. The man receiving the majority of votes cast shall be declared elected.

Upon election, the General Secretary-Treasurer shall hold office for an indefinite period, with retirement at age 65, retirement to take effect upon December 31 of the year in which he retires.

d. In case the position of General Secretary-Treasurer becomes vacant between sessions of the Convention, the General Board, upon the recommendation of its Executive Committee, shall name an acting General Secretary-Treasurer to serve until the next regular session of the Convention.

The General Secretary-Treasurer is the chief executive officer of the General Board, the chief administrative and program officer of the General Board staff, the chief budget officer of the General Board staff, the chief professional adviser of the General Board and its committees, the secretary and treasurer of the General Board and the Convention, and one of the denomination's spiritual leaders, providing statewide guidance and inspiration.

The General Secretary-Treasurer and the President of the Convention shall serve ex-officio without voting on all committees and aid by furnishing information, printed materials and needed guidance for the work of the committees.

Article VII. Trustees of the Convention

The General Board shall nominate three Trustees to be elected by the Convention in annual session. These trustees may succeed themselves, if nominated and elected, and will continue in office until their successors have been elected. The trustees shall hold title to the property of the Convention and convey and use the same as directed by the Convention, its General Board or Executive Committee. They shall execute obligations only in behalf of and as ordered by the Convention. They shall have the powers granted to trustees of religious societies by the laws of the State of North Carolina, but subject always to the limitations imposed by this Constitution and by action of the Convention, its General Board or Executive Committee. They shall require the Treasurer of the Convention to give suitable bond, with corporate security and in adequate amount as determined by the General Board, and they shall cause such bonds to be safely kept. Failure on the part of the Treasurer to maintain such a bond in force for as long a period as ten days shall authorize the Trustees to remove him from office. The Trustees shall make full, detailed reports to the annual session of the Convention and at other times if requested by the General Board. They shall safely keep the seal of the Convention and affix it only as authorized by the Convention, its General Board or Executive Committee. The seal shall be circular in form and shall bear the words:

Students from Campbell College, under the direction of Dan Linney and David Reynolds, presented a tableau vivant depicting the story of the Baptist struggle for religious liberty.

18. Paul M. Yoder, Buies Creek, discussed the development of Christian music through the centuries. Interspersed in the presentation were musical selections representative of the different types of music being discussed, sung by the Campbell College Choir.

19. President Coy C. Privette, Kannapolis, presented his "President's Address." He traced the pattern which has characterized so many religious groups which began as vigorous sects, then proceeded to the institutional church stage, then to the denominational stage, and then to the stage of senility and death. The deterioration occurs when the churches are seen as serving the denomination instead of the opposite. After being in 65 different churches in North Carolina during the past year, he is convinced that new joy and new optimism are apparent among our people. He paid tribute to the openness of Cecil A. Ray as exemplified especially in the distribution of the detailed program and budget of the Convention to all the churches for the first time. He spoke concerning the work of the Annuity Board, the Homes for Aging, and the Biblical Recorder. He challenged the Convention to new dimensions of commitment in the coming year of Bold Mission Thrust.

23. Theodore F. Adams, Wake Forest, led the Convention in the second of a series of devotional services under the general theme "Unalienable Rights," with the second message entitled "Life." When Thomas Jefferson placed life at the top of his list of unalienable rights, he was reflecting the truth expressed by Jesus. Jesus adds a new dimension to life; in fact, he said, "I am the way, the truth, and the life." This life is not just physical existence; it is the kind of life one has when he has been born anew, born of the Spirit. It is the kind of life which shall never end. It is eternal and abundant.

24. President Privette expressed appreciation to Jim Cashwell, Lumberton, and Wesley Foy, Charlotte, who are serving as pages for the Convention.

30. Claud O'Shields, Wilmington, offered the following resolution and moved its adoption, which, after being seconded, was referred to the Committee on Resolutions:

Whereas, North Carolina Baptists have been alert across the years to minister to people in all realms of society; and

Whereas, bold missions is our watchword to speak to the worth of every creature; and

Whereas, these ministries have given attention to the deaf, the migrant, the youth, the migrant, and other recognized groups; and

Whereas, these ministries have not been specifically cognizant of the 15,000 totally blind and another approximately 45,000 partially blind in this State, such as we have been aware of and ministered to the 10,000 deaf people in North Carolina; and

Whereas, potential for winning these souls is before us; and

Whereas, talents are going untouched for God's kingdom;

BE IT RESOLVED that this Convention express awareness and spiritual concern for our unsighted brothers,

And that the General Board be asked to give careful study to this need and give recommendation for a ministry to the blind as a part of the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina.

31. Clay Warf, Durham, offered the following resolution and moved its adoption, which, after being seconded, was referred to the Committee on Resolutions:

Whereas, millions of people continue to be malnourished and suffer from starvation as a result of the worst drought and famine the world has ever known; and

Whereas, an estimated ten thousand people die from starvation or related diseases each day, and natural catastrophes such as earthquakes, floods, and storms continue to leave thousands homeless and helpless; and

Whereas, Baptists have always had a great concern for both the physical and spiritual well-being of people the world over and have always held dear the belief that every person is of infinite worth as a creation of God; and

Whereas, Baptists have the best ability to respond to both the physical and spiritual needs of starving and disaster-stricken people throughout the world because of the bounty of our lives and because of the best structure of relief assistance possible through the Foreign Mission Board where every penny given for relief goes for that purpose and

Whereas, Baptists of North Carolina have already indicated their desire to minister to the starving and disaster-stricken by receiving a special offering for world relief in the early months of 1975; and

Whereas, our Foreign Mission Board has indicated that the offering given in 1975 has already been completely used for relief efforts;

BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED that the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina, meeting in annual session November 15-17, 1976, instruct our General Secretary-Treasurer, Dr. Cecil A. Ray, to designate a specific Sunday or a specified period of time when Baptist churches throughout the state will take a special offering to be sent to the State Convention office and then channeled to the Foreign Mission Board designated for world relief;

Be it further resolved that this special offering be duly promoted in the Biblical Recorder and in other ways designated by our Convention personnel and that every church in our Convention be urged to participate.

The committee has decided to request the Convention for an extension of time which will allow this matter to be cleared up. He then made the following motion: that the Committee of Nine be authorized to continue its study for another year and bring its report to the 147th Annual Session of the North Carolina Baptist State Convention. The motion was seconded.

Jesus spoke directly to this yearning when he said "He that hath seen me hath seen the Father," and this becomes a reality to us today through the presence and work of the Holy Spirit. We, as Christian workers, carrying the heavy load of responsibility of ministry, need to pray the prayer of Paul in Philippians 3:10, "...that I may know him, and the power of his resurrection." This will not really happen, however, until, as Jesus said, "the grain of wheat fall into the ground and die." When we die to self, we can experience the power of his resurrection. Then people can begin to see Jesus through our lives, our churches, our colleges, our assemblies, and every other facet of our life and work. We ought even to conduct the business of our Convention in such a way that the news will go out to the world around us that we have seen Jesus and we're helping others to see him too.

The North Carolina Baptist State Convention, in session in Fayetteville on November 15-17, sends warm Christian greetings to the officers and messengers of your Convention.

We are grateful for the doctrinal and missionary ties that bind us together as Southern Baptists and we will be praying for you as your convention conducts important business during your annual session.

We look forward to the continuing challenge of Bold Missions as we, together with you, seek to bring to a needy world the redeeming message of the gospel in Christ.

65. Albert McClellan, Nashville, Associate Executive Secretary and Director of Program Planning of the Executive Committee of the Southern Baptist Convention, presented a report of the work of the Executive Committee of the Southern Baptist Convention and challenged us to greater victories for our Lord. Our resources are vast, our activities are greatly proliferated, and now it is time for a new dimension of Christian service. Now is the time for us to be faithful in our stewardship. Now is the time for us to serve the Lord with all our might.

73. With President Coy C. Privette presiding, Cecil A. Ray, Raleigh, General Secretary-Treasurer of the Baptist State Convention, expressed his gratitude for the warm reception he has received and the fine cooperation he has been given in his first year in his present place of leadership. He expressed special gratitude to the Convention staff. He spoke of the new ventures which have been faced in the Program and Budget Proposals and in the initial stages of the work of the two major commissions which will report to the Convention next year. These expressions of gratitude, however, bring us now to the crucial consideration: "Good Is Not Enough." The question is not whether we will do good or bad but rather (in the words of Susan Ray, published in The Baptist Program) "Shall we attempt the ultimate goal?" Baptists are facing the question as to whether we will really accept a Bold Missions task. He presented an extended analogy involving our nation's successful program of putting men on the moon, involving initial commitment, co-operative venture, multiple launchings, and careful mid-course directional adjustments. Could we by 1980 be ready to achieve a $24,000,000 budget? "Good Is Not Enough."

74. The time for Miscellaneous Business having arrived, Bill Wallace, Rocky Mount, offered the following resolution and moved its adoption, which, after being seconded, was referred to the Committee on Resolutions:

Whereas, the quality and strength of any society can be measured somewhat by the standards that exist in literature and entertainment; and

Whereas, by lowering our standards, we raise questions about the society we live in, its future and the well-being of our young people; and

Whereas, a worthy goal is to aspire for the highest standards of tone, mode, style, and quality of life for our nation; and

Whereas, the Supreme Court of the United States has ruled that the determination of obscenity is to be made by applying local standards and the Court stated in its landmark obscenity ruling handed down on June 21, 1973: "This much has been categorically settled by the Court, that obscene material is unprotected by the First Amendment"; and

Whereas, obscenity and pornography is a national problem and a national disgrace which is getting worse annually;

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that this Convention will strive to create an awareness of the serious nature and quality of newstand, mailorder, motion picture and television obscenity and its corrupting influence on our society and help to establish laws to oppose illegal massage parlors, "X" rated movies, adult book stores, and violence and obscenity on television; and

Be it further resolved that a committee will be appointed to work with the Christian Life and Public Affairs Division of the Baptist State Convention and the Christian Action League of North Carolina, Inc. to introduce and seek passage of strong anti-obscenity legislation in the 1977 General Assembly of North Carolina. This committee would begin working now to introduce its proposed legislation in January 1977.

75. Bill Wallace, Rocky Mount, offered the following resolution and moved its adoption, which, after being seconded, was referred to the Committee on Resolutions:

Whereas, the use of alcohol has become an ever increasing problem among many persons of all ages in our society, and

Whereas, highway safety authorities state that at least fifty percent of all highway fatalities are due to drinking, and driving, and

Whereas, there is valid evidence linking drinking of alcoholic beverages to a large percentage of major crimes committed in our state and nation, and

Whereas, a substantial number of problems encountered by our courts, social service agencies, and law enforcement officials is directly related to the use of alcohol as a beverage, and

Whereas, breweries and liquor distilleries brazenly and fraudulently use television and radio to portray that the use of alcohol as a beverage is the way to a happier and more productive life, and

Whereas, during the last several legislative sessions, the General Assembly of North Carolina has spent almost innumerable hours discussing the liquor laws of this state, and

BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED:

1. That we, the messengers of the 146th session of the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina, reaffirm our historic position as opposing any use of alcohol as a beverage.
2. That we urge the 1977 state General Assembly to oppose any further liberalization of liquor laws.
3. That we also urge the United States Congress to pass laws prohibiting the advertising of any kind of alcoholic beverage on television or radio.
4. That we request our Recording Secretary to send copies of this resolution to members of the North Carolina General Assembly and the members of the Congress of the United States.

76. Juana Jean Horstman, Durham, offered the following resolution and moved its adoption, which, after being seconded, was referred to the Committee on Resolutions:

Whereas, migrant workers occupy the lowest economic and social strata in our society;

Whereas, migrants constitute no political constituency for which politicians must take representative responsibility;

Whereas, migrants are people continually subject to exploitation, social and racial prejudice, and discrimination by officials in government agencies;

Whereas, the needs of migrants are generally ignored by government agencies who, because of strong local conflicts of interest, refuse to enforce laws concerning minimum housing, health, and wage standards that are already included in the federal statutes;

Whereas, migrants attempt to work for their living but, because of the nature of their job, must tolerate grossly inadequate health and housing conditions;

Whereas, migrants are caught in a vicious cycle of debt and poverty that perpetuates despair, while remaining a group upon whom the agricultural sector of North Carolina economics is dependent;

Whereas, migrant workers harvest so much of the food we enjoy, yet are a forgotten people in our society; and

Whereas, migrant laborers are truly the least of these our brothers and sisters;

BE IT RESOLVED that we, in Christ-like concern for our fellow human beings, will attempt to live the lesson conveyed to us by Christ in this passage, "Lord, when did we see thee hungry and feed thee, or thirsty and give thee drink? And when did we see thee a stranger and welcome thee, or naked and clothe thee? And when did we see thee sick or in prison and visit thee?; And the King will answer them, 'Truly, I say to you, as you did it to one of the least of these my brethren, you did it to me.' (Matthew 25:37-40) In so doing, we strongly urge that the North Carolina State Baptist Convention recognize the physical, spiritual, and mental needs of migrant workers as a major ministerial concern.

Be it further resolved that any ministry undertaken remember with utmost concern and compassion the God-given dignity of these people and both their rights and feelings as fellow human beings.

Be it further resolved that the North Carolina Baptist State Convention, through such agencies as the Council on Christian Life and Public Affairs, utilize the political resources at its disposal to safeguard the political, constitutional, and innate rights already guaranteed to migrant laborers.

In addition, we wish to commend the current ministry being extended to migrants in North Carolina through the Baptist State Convention.

We respectfully request that copies of this resolution be sent to the General Board of the North Carolina Baptist State Convention, the Executive Secretary of the North Carolina Baptist Convention, the Council on Christian Life and Public Affairs, and the Biblical Recorder.

77. C. Eugene Booker, Robbins, made a motion as follows:

Recognizing the growing population of elderly persons and their needs for Christian ministry, and that there are many of our agencies, institutions, and local churches currently ministering to the aged in many, and at times, uncoordinated ways, I make a motion that a committee of eleven (11), excluding any current committees, be appointed by the president and vice-presidents of the Convention to:

1. Study the needs of the aged.
2. Study and identify the current provisions for those needs by the convention and local churches.
3. Report to the Convention in 1977 at the annual meeting with proposals for:
 - a. Methods and means for coordinating and improving ministries to the aged.
 - b. Methods and means for expanding the ministries to new areas.

The motion was seconded and carried.

Petty, Executive Secretary of the Council on Christian Life and Public Affairs, presented the report of the Council as found on pages 157-161 of this Annual. 88. Woodrow Robbins, High Point, nominated Lamar J. Brooks. There being no further nominations, the Convention proceeded to vote with the result that he was elected.

89. President Privette stated that the floor was opened for nominations for the office of Assistant Recording Secretary.

90. An unidentified messenger nominated Ted. W. Williams. There being no further nominations, the Convention proceeded to vote with the result that he was elected.

91. W.W. Finlator, Raleigh, made a motion that David Britt, Claude Gaddy, and Gale Parker be elected for another term as trustees of the Convention. There being no other nominations, the motion was seconded and carried.

92. President Privette announced that no nominee for First Vice-President has received a majority, so a second vote is needed between Ray Benfield and Mrs. A. Leroy Parker. The vote was taken by standing with the result that Ray Benfield was elected.

93. President Privette stated that the floor was opened for nominations for the office of Second Vice-President.

94. Woodrow W. Robbins, High Point nominated Mrs. A. Leroy Parker.

95. An unidentified messenger made a motion that nominations cease and that she be elected by acclamation. The motion was seconded and carried.

96. Thomas Q. Whitmire, Fayetteville, pronounced the benediction for the Tuesday afternoon meeting.

Tuesday Evening

97. Second Vice-President Sara Parker called the Convention to order.

98. Charles S. Gatwood, Cary, introduced Mrs. James Hyde, Fayetteville, who is serving as Pianist for this evening session. He then led the Convention in singing "America, the Beautiful."

99. Theodore F. Adams, Wake Forest, led the Convention in the third of a series of devotional services under the general theme "Unalienable Rights," with the third message entitled "Liberty." Freedom is costly to win, costly to keep and even more costly to lose. Galations 5:1 tells us that all true liberty must be liberty which is expressed under the law of God. The kite, straining to escape the restraints of the string so it can be free, will quickly crash to earth if that string snaps. He told of experiences in 1975 in Soviet Union and East Germany, and the great joy of rediscovering the meaning of freedom upon leaving the Iron Curtain countries.

100. James O. Hagwood, Robersonville, Chairman of the Committee on Place and Preacher, made a motion that the preacher of the annual sermon in 1977 be John I Durham, Wake Forest, with Dale Steele, Burlington as alternate, and that the 1978 sessions be held in Raleigh and the 1979 sessions in Winston-Salem. The motion was seconded and carried. Other members of the Committee on Place and Preacher are: Douglas Aldrich, Gastonia; Larry Elliot, Wake Forest; Melvin Hall, Wilmington; Mrs. Ethel Smith, Benson; Grady L. Love, Lexington; W.T. Adams, Yadkinville; James Coats, Mount Olive; and Charles E. Steves, Raleigh.

101. Roy J. Smith, Raleigh, Director of the Department of Town and Country Missions/Seminary Extension of the Baptist State Convention, presented the report of his department as found on pages 144-145 of this Annual.

102. Oren Bradley, Mt. Airy, spoke concerning the work of the Seminary Extension Department, specifically in the Surry Association.

103. Upon the invitation of Roy Smith, eleven of the recent recipients of Seminary Extension diplomas came to the platform to identify themselves and tell about their places of work.

104. Corbin Cooper, Raleigh, Director of the Department of Cooperative Ministries with General Baptists, presented the report of the Committee on Cooperation with General Baptists as found on pages 148-149 of this Annual. He introduced four persons who work with our Convention and with the General Baptist Convention under the auspices of the Department of Cooperative Ministries.

105. Miss Priscilla Brodie, Franklinton, who teaches at Shaw University, spoke of her work in training students for field ministries.

106. James Alexander, Raleigh, Dean of the Divinity School of Shaw University, spoke of his work in preparing students for Christian ministries.

107. Calvin Columbus Craig, Raleigh, spoke of his present work as assistant to Dr. O.L. Sherrill, Executive Secretary of the General Baptist State Convention.

108. Leo Williams, Jr., Raleigh, spoke of his work as Director of the Department of Christian Religious Education of the General Baptist State Convention.

109. O.L. Sherrill, Raleigh, Executive Secretary of the General Baptist State Convention, brought greetings from our sister Convention and expressed gratitude for our warm spirit of co-operation.

110. Wallace E. Parham, Raleigh, Chairman of the Bicentennial Committee, expressed gratitude to John M. Lewis and to Dan Linney and David Reynolds of Campbell College for their splendid work in the four dramatic presentations which have been a significant part of this Annual Session. He then called to the platform the representatives of 26 churches and one Association which have been in continuous existence for 200 years or more. These churches (and their associations) are as follows: Bear Marsh Church (Eastern); Cartledge Creek Church (Pee Dee); Cashie Church (West Chowan); Eatons Church (South Yadkin); Forks of Little River Church (Montgomery); Grassy Creek Church (Flat River); Jersey Church (Liberty); Long Creek Memorial Church (Gaston); Meherrin Church (West Chowan); Mill Creek Church (Brunswick); New Light Church (Raleigh); Philadelphia Church (Union); Reedy Creek Church (Cullom); Rock Spring Church (Sandy Creek); Rocky River Church (Anson); Rocky River Church (Sandy Creek); Rowan Church (Eastern); Sandy Creek Church (Tar River); Sandy Creek Church (Randolph); Sandy Run Church (Sandy Run); Sandy Run Church (West Chowan); Shady Grove Church (Randolph); Shiloh Church (Chowan); Wells Chapel Church (Eastern); White Marsh Church (Columbus); and Yeopin Church (Chowan). General Secretary-Treasurer Cecil A. Ray presented a bronze plaque to each church and to the Sandy Creek Baptist Association, founded in 1758.

111. Duke K. McCall, Louisville, Kentucky, President of Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, addressed the Convention on the subject of "Seminary Expansion." He rejoiced that all six seminaries share equally in support of the Seminary Extension Department. He stressed the fact that there are 970 students now enrolled in our six seminaries in certificate or diploma courses. We also see today a great expansion of seminary faculties, including full-time faculty, and a host of pastors church staff members, and denominational leaders who now teach part-time. Student enrollment is up today to a phenomenal degree. We now have 8035 full-time students. The three largest accredited seminaries in the world are all ours: Southern Southwestern, and Southeastern.

112. Charles S. Gatwood, Cary, led the Convention in singing "I Love to Tell the Story."

113. President Coy C. Privette presided and recognized Miss Mary Chapman, Sanford, our oldest registered messenger, age 92.

114. L. Jimmy Morriss, Raleigh, Director of the Department of Communications of the Baptist State Convention, presented the report of this department as found on pages 152-153 of this Annual. He then addressed the Convention on the subject of "North Carolina and Southern Baptist Work through Radio and Television."

115. Claud O'Shields, Wilmington, Regional Director of the Radio and Television Commission, paid tribute to Jimmy Morriss for his many years of leadership in this field. He then presented a plaque to Bill Belche, the Eastern Director of the North Carolina Broadcasters Association and president and general manager of WIDU radio, in behalf of the Baptist State Convention and the Radio and Television Commission of the Southern Baptist Convention.

116. Bill Belche, Fayetteville, expressed his gratitude in behalf of the North Carolina Broadcasters Association.

117. Mr. and Mrs. Morton Cain, Fayetteville, accompanied by Mrs. Joy Coggsweil, Fayetteville, sang "Jesus, Be the Lord of All," by Lanny and Marietta Wolfe.

118. Kenneth L. Chafin, Houston, Texas, read Numbers 13: 30-33 and addressed the Convention on the subject "Don't Underestimate Yourself." We must be careful not to underestimate the gospel which has been entrusted to us. Those who are angry and depressed because they think we must meet twentieth century problems with a nineteenth century gospel have made this mistake. The gospel is gloriously adequate for today's needs. We must be careful not to underestimate our people. They are our greatest untapped reservoir of spiritual power, and we will discover this when enough pastors are willing to trust them to take the initiative for God's glory. We must not underestimate our own gifts for they have come from God himself, and when they are genuinely surrendered to him, glorious results begin to come.

119. Wayne W. Poplin, Charlotte, pronounced the benediction for the Tuesday evening meeting.

Wednesday Morning

120. With President Privette presiding, Charles S. Gatwood, Cary, led the Convention in singing "America, the Beautiful."

121. Theodore F. Adams, Wake Forest, led the Convention in the fourth of a series of devotional services under the general theme "Unalienable Rights," with the fourth message entitled "The Pursuit of Happiness." This pursuit is engaged in by almost everyone, but multitudes pursue happiness in foolish and futile ways. Jesus said it comes through taking up one's cross and following him. Dr. Adams concluded his series of messages by reading the two concluding paragraphs of Frank S. Mead's book, The Baptists, published by Broadman Press in 1934: "They insist upon freedom; utter, absolute freedom. They get it by appealing to the masses instead of the classes, to those who need it most and who will fight hardest to get it. They have never longed for the toga of the state; they have grown up in log cabins and small-town jails. They have a long and honorable record of ministry to the sick, of succor to the lowly. No wonder they have twenty million members around the world. We may as well command the sun to stand still as to command a church like that to stop growing.

The world has done its best to stop them. We can trace their history more readily in the bloody footprints of their martyrs than in the ink of their historians. We have tried to shame them by whipping posts, and they have made us ashamed of our whipping posts. We chained them in jail and discovered that the other end of the chain was fast around our own necks. We let their blood in Boston and the South, only to find the fairest American flowers we know growing from that very soil. Addlepated world! You tried to stamp them out, and all you got for it was to have them leave their stamp on you!"

122. President Coy C. Privette introduced to the Convention the two pages who have served us so well in these sessions: Jim Cashwell, Lumberton, and Wesley Foy, Charlotte.

123. The time having come for action on the Report of the General Board, Bob D. Shepherd, Sanford, President of the General Board, introduced the report and pointed out that a number of the recommendations of the General Board have already been adopted in the Tuesday morning meeting.

124. Jack Noffsinger, Winston-Salem, a member of the Executive Committee of the General Board, made a motion that Recommendation Number 1, which is the proposed 1977 budget of the Convention and Recommendation Number 5, authorizing the Convention to provide a fleet of cars for use by the Convention staff according to certain guidelines, be adopted. (See pages 104-105 of this Annual for the full statement of budget percentages and amounts and for details of the Car Fleet Plan.)

125. Robert Tenery, Morganton, reported on the early phases of the work of the Commission on Church Growth. He spoke of certain factors which appear to be present in those churches which have experienced constant numerical growth over a span of ten years or more.

126. Troy Hamrick, Winston-Salem, continued the report of the Commission Church Growth.

127. Alton McEachern, Greensboro, reported on the early phases of the work of the Commission on Mission Support.

128. Henry Crouch, Charlotte, a member of the Executive Committee made a motion that the program of the 1977 Annual Session be built around the reports of these two commissions.

129. Henry B. Stokes, Buies Creek, a member of the Executive Committee of the General Board spoke of the retirement of Nathan C. Brooks, Jr., Quentin Perreault, Jack Clark, and Joe Watterson.

130. General Secretary-Treasurer Cecil A. Ray spoke concerning the health problems of Quentin Perreault and Jack Clark. He then presented bronze plaques to Nathan C. Brooks, Jr., and Joe Watterson.

131. First Vice-President Charles B. Deane presided, and Sam H. O'Neal, Raleigh, Director of the Insurance and Annuity Department of the Baptist State Convention, presented the report of this department as found on pages 150-151 of this Annual.

132. E.J. Chenault, Dallas, Texas, Vice President and Treasurer of the Annuity Board of the Southern Baptist Convention, spoke concerning the work of this board, and of the new Plan A.

133. Nane Starnes, Asheville, Chairman of the Committee on Memorials, presented the report of the committee, which included the following recommendations: that the 1976 Annual be dedicated to Budd E. Smith, David B. Roberts, and Reid Holmes, and that the chapel in the Baptist Building in Raleigh be dedicated to former General Secretary-Treasurer M.A. Huggins. He made a motion that these recommendations be adopted. This was recorded and carried. Other members of the Committee on Memorials are: H. Fletcher Lambert, Reidsville; Mrs. Earl Rogers, Wrightsville Beach; Young Allen, Lumberton; and Warren Mallard, Charlotte.

134. Forrest C. Feezor, Black Mountain led the Convention in a prayer of thanksgiving for the lives of our fellow laborers who have died during the past year, and a prayer of intercession for their loved ones.

135. First Vice-President Charles B. Deane announced that as of 9:45 a.m. there were 2,873 registered messengers and 450 visitors, for a total of 3,323.

136. The Bicentennial Committee, under the general chairmanship of Wallace E. Parham, Raleigh, gave the fourth of a series of dramatic presentations under the general theme "Crossroads of Baptist History," the fourth dealing with "Churches on the Frontier and Evangelism." The script was prepared and presented by John M. Lewis, Raleigh. Students from

Campbell College, under the direction of Dan Linney and David Reynolds, presented a tableau vivant depicting the story of "Churches on the Frontier and Evangelism."

137. Charles S. Gatwood, Cary, led the Convention in singing "How Great Thou Art."

138. Second Vice-President Sara Parker presided and introduced Billy Graham.

139. Billy Graham, Montreat, read Genesis 18:14 "Is anything too hard for the Lord?" He traced the story in which this question appeared. It is not by human wisdom that we know God, but by faith. (1) No problem is too hard for God. In frequent conversations with world leaders I see many problems. Jimmy Carter is now beginning to take the measure of the problems of the presidency. In the world of the churches we see the gathering clouds of a new "battle for the Bible"--a battle on which we cannot afford to waste our resources. When God puts his love in your heart, you will believe and preach the truth that matters and the technicalities of the "battle for the Bible" won't matter. There is also an unnecessary battle over the charismatic movement, because God gives every true believer some spiritual gifts and if each of us will get busy using those gifts we won't have to settle the "battle of the charismatic movement." There is an ever-increasing wave of immorality in our world, coupled with a passionate interest in the demonic world. There is no problem anywhere in our world today that is too hard for God. (2) There is no place too hard for God to work. He can work even on the Damascus road, or the prison in Rome. He can work in a city like Seattle where only 5% of the people belong to a church; he can work in your town; for "where sin abounds, grace does much more abound." (3) There is no prayer too hard for God to answer. The most successful evangelistic crusades are those which have been truly saturated with prayer. All the great spiritual advances of Christian history have come in response to earnest prayer. There is a dearth of prayer today and we need to rediscover the secret of prayer as revealed in the life of Jesus. (4) No promise is too hard for God to fulfill. Someone has counted over 3000 promises in the Bible, and I believe every one of them has already been fulfilled, or will be. The ultimate victory of Christ is assured, and this is our hope. (5) No person is too sinful for God to save. Augustine was a profligate of the worst sort; John Newton was the captain of a slave vessel; Jim Voss was the worst man in Los Angeles; Chuck Colson was the vilest of the Watergate crowd; Eldridge Cleaver was the most radical of our recently radical generation; and all of them have been saved by Jesus Christ. Is anything too hard for God? No!

140. The time for Miscellaneous Business having arrived, Recording Secretary Lamar J. Brooks read the following recommendation sent by J. Marse Grant: I recommend that we send the following message to President-elect Jimmy Carter in Plains, Georgia: Messengers to the 146th annual session of the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina assure you of their prayers as you undertake the awesome responsibilities of the highest office in our land. May God bless you and your family as you become our President in January.

Recording Secretary Lamar J. Brooks made a motion that this message be sent. The motion was seconded and carried.

141. Ray K. Hodge, Kinston, made a motion to change Article V of the Constitution as indicated in Item 29 above. The motion was seconded and carried.

142. Ray K. Hodge, Kinston, made a motion to change Article VI of the Constitution as indicated in Item 29 above. The motion was seconded.

143. Clarence Morris, Cramerton, spoke in opposition to the motion. The vote was taken by standing. While the tellers were meeting to tally up the votes counted, the Convention proceeded with other business.

144. First Vice-President Charles B. Deane, Jr., made a motion that the full text of the four historical scripts presented by John M. Lewis as a part of the Bicentennial emphasis be printed in the 1977 Annual. The motion was seconded and carried.

145. John T. Bunn, Sylva, acting chairman of the Committee on Resolutions, expressed appreciation to the members of this committee, and to others who have assisted them in their work. Those elected last year include: Donald G. Myers, Wake Forest; C. Ronald Cumbie, Durham; J. Colin Harris, Wake Forest; Frieda Sasser, Goldsboro; Jimmy Love, Sanford; John E. Weems, Raleigh; Jerry Wallace, Buies Creek; and John Pittman, Rockingham.

146. Richard Eskew, Yadkinville, in behalf of the Committee on Resolutions, presented and moved the adoption of the following as a substitute for the resolution on a World Relief Offering originally submitted by Clay Warf. (See Item 31 above):

Whereas, millions of people continue to be malnourished and suffer from starvation as a result of the worst drought and famine the world has ever known; and

Whereas, an estimated ten thousand people die from starvation or related diseases each day, and natural catastrophes such as earthquakes, floods, and storms continue to leave thousands homeless and helpless; and

Whereas, Baptists have always had a great concern for both the physical and spiritual well-being of people the world over and have always held dear the belief that every person is of infinite worth as a creation of God; and

Whereas, Baptists have the best ability to respond to both the physical and spiritual needs of starving and disaster-stricken people throughout the world because of the bounty of our lives, and

Whereas, Baptists of North Carolina have already indicated their desire to minister to the starving and disaster stricken by receiving a special offering for world relief in the early months of 1975; and

Whereas, our Foreign Mission Board has indicated that the offering given in 1975 has already been completed used for relief efforts;

BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED THAT the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina, meeting in annual session November 15-17, 1976, declare its continuing support on behalf of world relief needs.

Be it further resolved that we, as a state convention, as local churches, and as individual Christians seek to remain aware, sensitive, and responsive to the needs of world relief.

The motion was seconded and carried.

147. Donald G. Myers, Wake Forest, in behalf of the Committee on Resolutions, presented and moved the adoption of the following as a substitute for the resolution on pornography originally submitted by Bill Wallace (See Item 74 above):

Recognizing that God is the Creator and Giver of all good gifts, and that we have a stewardship as to how these gifts are to be used, and mindful of the past influence of modern mass media for good and evil; and

Whereas, the frightful slippage of standards in many areas of literature and entertainment forces us to raise serious questions about the direction of our society; and

Whereas, our Christian goal is to aspire to the highest standards of tone, mode, style and quality of life for our state and nation; and

Whereas, the Supreme Court of the United States has ruled that the determination of obscenity is to be made by applying local standards and the Court stated in its landmark obscenity ruling handed down on June 21, 1973: "This much has been categorically settled by the Court, that obscene material is unprotected by the First Amendment;" and

Whereas, obscenity and pornography is a national problem and a national disgrace which is getting worse annually;

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that this Convention will strive to create an awareness of the serious nature and quality of newstand, mail order, motion picture and television obscenity and its corrupting influence on our society and help to establish laws to oppose massage parlors, "X" rated movies, adult book stores, and unnecessary violence and obscenity on television; and

Be it Further Resolved that every support be given the work of the Christian Life and Public Affairs Division of the Baptist State Convention and the Christian Action League of North Carolina, Inc. to introduce and seek passage of strong anti-obscenity legislation in the 1977 General Assembly of North Carolina.

The motion was seconded and carried.

148. Mrs. Henry B. Stokes, Buies Creek, in behalf of the Committee on Resolutions, made a motion that resolution on our Baptist colleges, submitted directly to the Committee on Resolutions by Allen Laymon, be adopted. The resolution is as follows:

Whereas, The Baptist State Convention of North Carolina has supported the cause of Christian Higher Education for 142 of its 146-year history; and

Whereas, the seven North Carolina Baptist colleges represent the cumulative investment of labor, prayer and financial support beyond this generation's ability to comprehend; and

Whereas, the majority of North Carolina Baptist pastors and church staff receive their training in a North Carolina Baptist college; and

Whereas, much of the lay leadership, both church and civic, is prepared for service in a North Carolina Baptist college; and

Whereas, the spiritual climate, academic excellence and financial health of these institutions are of paramount interest to North Carolina Baptists;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina, meeting in Fayetteville, November 15-17, 1976:

- (1) Commend the colleges for their serious commitment to a meaningful partnership with Baptists in the Christian mission;
- (2) Urge the colleges to pursue their distinctive educational mission with emphasis upon accreditation standards, wise fiscal management and quality programs of education; and
- (3) Request the colleges to strengthen their emphasis upon the training of ministerial and lay leadership for the fostering of the beneficial relationships which exist between the colleges and the churches.

The motion was seconded and carried.

149. C.R. Pierce, Jr., Asheville, in behalf of the Committee on Resolutions, made a motion that the resolution on ministry to the blind, submitted by Claud O'Shields (See Item 30 above), be adopted. The motion was seconded and carried.

150. John T. Bunn, Sylva, in behalf of the Committee on Resolutions, presented and moved the adoption of the following as a substitute for the resolution on migrants originally submitted by Juane Jean Horstman (See Item 76 above):

Whereas, migrant workers occupy one of the lowest economic and social strata in our society; and

Whereas, migrants constitute no political constituency for which politicians must take representative responsibility; and

Whereas, migrants are people continually subject to exploitation, social and racial prejudice, and discrimination; and

Whereas, the needs of migrants can easily be ignored by government agencies and local churches, because of strong local conflicts of interest, and in instances ignore laws concerning minimum housing, health, and wage standards that are already included in the federal statutes; and

Whereas, migrants are caught in a vicious cycle of debt and poverty that perpetuates despair while remaining a group upon whom the agricultural sector of North Carolina economics is dependent; and

Whereas, migrant workers harvest so much of the food we enjoy yet are a forgotten people in our society; and

Whereas, migrant laborers are truly our brothers and sisters;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that we, in Christ-like concern for our fellow human beings, will attempt to live the lesson conveyed to us by Christ in this passage, "'Lord, when did we see thee hungry and feed thee, or thirsty and give thee drink? And when did we see thee a stranger and welcome thee, or naked and clothe thee? And when did we see thee sick or in prison and visit thee?' And the King will answer them, 'Truly, I say to you, as you did it to one of the least of these my brethren, you did it to me.'" (Matthew 25:37-40) In so doing, we strongly urge that the North Carolina State Baptist Convention recognize the physical, spiritual, and mental needs of migrant workers as a major ministerial concern.

Be it further resolved that any ministry undertaken remember with utmost concern and compassion the God-given dignity of these people and both their rights and feelings as fellow human beings.

Be it further resolved that the North Carolina Baptist State Convention, through such agencies as the Council on Christian Life and Public Affairs, utilize the political resources at its disposal to safeguard the political, constitutional, and innate rights already guaranteed to migrant laborers.

In addition, we wish to commend the current ministry being extended to migrants in North Carolina through the Baptist State Convention.

The motion was seconded and carried.

151. C. Ronald Cumbie, Durham, in behalf of the Committee on Resolutions, presented and moved the adoption of the following as a substitute for the resolution on alcohol originally submitted by Bill Wallace (See Item 75 above):

Whereas, the use of alcohol has become an ever-increasing problem among many persons of all ages in our society, and

Whereas, alcoholism is the nation's fourth-ranked health problem (exceeded only by cancer, heart disease, and stroke), and

Whereas, highway safety authorities state that at least fifty percent of all highway fatalities are due to drinking and driving, and

Whereas, there is valid evidence linking drinking of alcoholic beverages to a large percentage of major crimes committed in our state and nation, and

Whereas, a substantial number of problems encountered by our courts, social service agencies, and law enforcement officials is directly related to the use of alcohol as a beverage, and

Whereas, breweries and liquor distilleries are regularly using television and radio to portray the use of alcohol as a beverage which leads to a happier and more productive life, and

Whereas, during the last several legislative sessions, the General Assembly of North Carolina has spent innumerable hours discussing the liquor laws of this state, and

BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED

1. That we, the messengers of the 146th session of the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina, reaffirm our historic position as opposing any use of alcohol as a beverage.

2. That we urge the 1977 State General Assembly to oppose any further liberalization of liquor laws.

3. That we also urge the United States Congress to pass laws prohibiting the advertising of any kind of alcoholic beverage on television or radio.

4. That we request our Recording Secretary to send copies of this resolution to members of the North Carolina General Assembly and the members of the Congress of the United States.

The motion was seconded and carried.

152. Elwin Melton, Havelock, presented and moved the adoption of the following resolution originating in the Committee on Resolutions:

Whereas, the local news media have given excellent pre-convention coverage of the 146th annual convention of North Carolina; and

Whereas, the local news media have given thorough and accurate coverage of the sessions of this convention:

BE IT RESOLVED THAT, the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina meeting in annual session in Fayetteville, North Carolina November 15-17, 1976 go on record:

1. Expressing appreciation to the press, radio and television for the coverage of this convention; and

2. Encouraging the continued use of these media to share with the world what the Christian Church is doing.

The motion was seconded and carried.

153. J. Colin Harris, Wake Forest, presented and moved the adoption of the following resolution originating in the Committee on Resolutions:

Whereas, the efficiency and the quality of the annual meeting of the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina are affected by the facilities and services provided by the host city, and

Whereas, the city of Fayetteville has provided adequate and accessible meeting facilities, and

Whereas, the churches of the host associations provide essential services for the smooth operation of the Convention program, and

Whereas, the churches of the New South River, Robeson and Little River Associations, through the Local Arrangements Committee have provided valuable assistance in registration, as information sources, as ushers, in providing refreshments for program personnel, in first aid, and in other kinds of services to messengers and visitors,

BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED, that the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina, meeting in its one hundred forty-sixth annual session, express its appreciation to the city of Fayetteville, North Carolina, for its welcome, facilities, and services as host city; and to the local arrangements committee and to the churches of the New South River, Robeson and Little River Associations for their significant assistance in the many kinds of service they have provided;

Be it further resolved, that copies of this resolution be sent to the mayor and Chamber of Commerce of the City of Fayetteville, and to the moderators and the directors of missions of the New South River, Robeson and Little River Associations.

The motion was seconded and carried.

154. President Privette gave the report on the vote on the Constitutional change concerning the appointment of the Parliamentarian, to the effect that 911 voted for and 183 against and the motion is therefore declared to be passed with the necessary two-thirds majority.

155. First Vice-President Charles B. Deane, Jr., presided and recognized the newly-elected officers, along with Mrs. Privette, Mrs. Benfield, and A. Leroy Parker.

156. First Vice-President-elect Ray Benfield, Greensboro, expressed his appreciation for the trust now given to him.

157. Second Vice-President Sara Parker, Greensboro, spoke of her joy in the past year and her anticipation of next year in her place of service.

158. President Coy Privette announced that as of 11:45 a.m. there were 2,877 registered messengers and 450 visitors, for a total of 3,327 registrations.

159. The benediction for the Wednesday morning meeting and for the 1976 Annual Session was pronounced by E. Leon Smith, Goldsboro.

REPORT

to the 146th
Annual Session of the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina
Cumberland County Memorial Auditorium and Arena
Fayetteville, North Carolina
November 15-17, 1976

A Look At The Year

Our nation's bicentennial, 1976, has been a significant year for America and a very good time for Baptists. It has been a time for remembering that has helped us renew commitments to those qualities that made us a great nation. Remembering has been equally beneficial to North Carolina Baptists. We are richly blessed with a great heritage of more than 200 years. Scheduled for recognition are about 26 churches that have enjoyed a continuous existence during these 200 years. One Baptist Association - the Sandy Run - is more than 200 years old. The ministries of Baptists during these two centuries give us good memories and provides us with a great challenge for the future.

The year has special significance for me since it has been my first year in North Carolina. I am grateful for the warm welcome extended to my family and most of all for the widespread prayer support. It has been my privilege to tour the state and meet with leaders in every section in a series of Cooperative Program meetings, and again in a series of Brotherhood sponsored rallies. More than forty associations have arranged for me to meet with pastors' conferences or annual associational meetings.

A special 20th anniversary time was observed by our Church Music Department. Joe Stroud completed twenty years of service with the Convention having come to lead the music program at the time of its establishment. Two General Board staff members come to retirement this year. We are grateful for Joe Watterson and his six years as the Director of Chaplaincy Department. Nathan Brooks' retirement on December 31 marks the completion of 16 years with the Convention. He served as Training Union Director during an earlier period - 1937 through 1943, and now for the past 10 years as Director of Church Program Division. Jack Clark elected to take early retirement because of his disability resulting from a serious heart attack. He retired in September from the Church Building Department. Another staff member, Quentin Perreault, Town and Country Missions Department, will also retire early because of a health disability.

Program Budgeting was adopted as the new plan for program planning and budget allocations for the 1977 Convention year. The Convention's General Board staff, institutions, and agencies participated in this program-centered planning for 1977. The proposed budget reflects the good quality of planning done by these leaders and also indicates the priorities established. A carefully prepared budget book giving full details was mailed to each church. This material outlined the proposal for the $13,000,000 Cooperative Program budget.

Two special commissions were named and assigned the task of studying church growth and mission support and of shaping proposals for the work of the Convention for the years ahead.

The Church Growth Commission is headed by Cecil Sherman, pastor, First Church, Asheville and the Mission Support Commission is led by Al McEachern, pastor, First Church, Greensboro. Each commission has 15 members. Reports from these two commissions will be ready for the 1977 Convention when it meets in Charlotte.

The wisdom of the Convention in electing the officers for this year has been evident throughout the year. Able leadership of the Convention has been given by President Coy Privette, the two vice presidents, Sara Parker and Charles Deane. Bob Shepherd, pastor, First Church, Sanford has effectively guided the General Board and the Executive Committee through a year of many important decisions for the Convention.

The Caraway Conference Center is nearing completion with a dedication program scheduled during the January 1977 meeting of the General Board. The center, costing a little over one million dollars, will provide ideal facilities for church, association, and convention leadership meetings. The Convention is indebted to Fred Graham of Asheboro for his work as chairman of the center building committee. He and camp manager, Bill Jackson, are due the credit for keeping the per-foot cost of the construction well below the amount currently being paid for most similar construction.

The year 1976 has been a good year in Cooperative Program growth. It now appears that increases in Cooperative Program in 1976 over 1975 will exceed $1,000,000. The improved economy and the excellent response of church leaders had made this record growth possible.

The good growth experiences of 1976 seem to be preparing the way for our churches, association, and convention leaders to move with strength into the Bold Mission emphasis of 1977-79.

Cecil A. Ray
General Secretary-Treasurer
Baptist State Convention

Report And Recommendations Of The General Board

The General Board of the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina administers the work of the Convention between annual sessions and directs the promotion of the state missions program. The Board is composed of at least one person from each district association; with associations of more than 20,000 church members having two members, and those with more than 40,000 having three members. In addition, there is one member from each of the ten regions in the state.

Every member of the General Board is assigned to one of the eight committees of the Board. These committees meet and elect their chairmen who become members of the General Board Executive Committee for the year. Five additional members are elected to the Executive Committee from the General Board membership. The Executive Committee meets each month, with the full General Board meeting three times per year (January, July and October).

The following persons have served on the Executive Committee this year: Jerreal Buchanan, Durham; Frank Campbell, Statesville; Henry Crouch, Charlotte; Charles Deane, Jr., Rockingham; Charles Dorman, Fuquay Varina; Richard Eskew, Yadkinville; M.E. Gibson, Wilmington; Joe Hester, Thomasville; Burke Holland, Winston-Salem; Charles Midkiff, Valdese; Jack Noffsinger, Winston-Salem; Mrs. A.L. Parker, Greensboro; Coy Privette, Kannapolis; Bob D. Shepherd, Sanford; Henry Stokes, Buies Creek; and Ed Worley, Whiteville.

During the year several committees have been appointed to work under the supervision of the Executive Committee and General Board. Two of these committees will report during this Convention: The Committee of Nine (to study the trustees from each local church), and the Committee of Fifteen (to study the Reynolds Contract). Other committees appointed were: Committee to study the Staff Retirement Matter of General Board Staff, Budget Committee, Reserve Fund Committee, Re-organization of Program Structure Committee, Communication Center Committee, and Study Committee Concerning Help for Retarded Persons.

This has been an important year for General Board employees marked by the retirement of four field staff persons vacancies.

Vacancies filled during the year include William Byrd and Janice Haywood, associates in the Sunday School Department, as well as several office secretaries.

Two commissions, appointed in March, have been at work during the year and will report on the progress of their assignments during the Convention in Fayetteville. The commissions are working in cooperation with the Convention theme of Bold Mission, and will present a major and complete report to the 1977 Convention.

Wingate College is progressing toward senior college status in accord with action taken by the General Board in the July meeting.

Special Mission Ministries	$ 10,000.00
Basic General Board Programs	175,000.00

4. Wake Forest University Request to Borrow $4,250,000

The General Board recommends that the Convention authorize Wake Forest University to borrow $4,250,000 for the purpose of expansion and renovation of the Medical Center facilities.

5. Car Fleet Plan

The General Board recommends that the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina provide a fleet of cars for use by the Convention staff according to the following guidelines:

- a. That a car be provided for one half of the staff that has travel assignments on January 1, 1977 (about 25 cars) and allow the other staff to continue on the present plan.

- b. On January 1, 1978 that cars be provided for the remaining staff with travel assignments.
- c. That the fleet plan involve:
 - (1) The Convention purchasing the cars, providing upkeep, operation, insurance, and the trading of the cars.
 - (2) The trading of cars each two years. In cases where a staff person travels a fairly low mileage, the plan may need to be adjusted to a three-year trade plan.
 - (3) That each department and/or division continue to budget for travel with $120 per month transferred to the car purchase fund. Upkeep, gas, oil, and insurance costs will be charged to each department.
 - (4) That the fleet plan and the guidelines be reviewed annually by the Executive Committee and that all purchase-trade contracts be approved by the Executive Committee.
- d. That staff be allowed to use the car assigned as personal property with the following provisions:
 - (1) When used for a personal trip, the family will pay for the gas.
 - (2) That extra insurance cost incurred because of teenage drivers be paid by the staff.
 - (3) That use of the car for personal trips to store, church, and office be included in the plan.
 - (4) That repair service check-up with service centers be maintained as arranged by the Convention.
- e. That financial arrangements for the purchasing of the cars be assigned to the Executive Committee.

6. Annuity Board Recommendation

The General Board recommends that the Convention approve the amendment to the agreement between the Annuity Board and the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina, as stated:

Recognizing that the welfare of our people who serve our Lord in the ministry and other denominational work is a joint responsibility of the church, the State Convention and the Southern Baptist Convention; and further recognizing that the continued increase in the cost of living has created a pressing need for broader benefits at retirement, and more flexible survivor and disability benefits, we join with other state conventions and associations in accepting the program suggested by the Annuity of the Southern Baptist Convention.

Therefore, upon the recommendation of the Annuity Board, we accept the following recommendations:

- I. That we close the present Southern Baptist Protection Plan (Plan A) to new members as of January 1, 1978.
- II. That the present members of the Southern Baptist Protection Program and the Southern Baptist Benefit Program (these are A Plans) may remain in their present plan or elect to transfer to the new Southern Baptist Retirement Program for Career Ministerial personnel or the Southern Baptist Retirement Plan for non-ministerial personnel.
- III. That the Southern Baptist Retirement Program be promoted through the individual churches encouraging them to contribute an amount equal to 10% of the Career Ministerial Personnel's compensation for retirement purposes. The church may contribute more or less than the 10%, but the amount should never be less than $400 per year. The State Convention's contribution to this program ($200 annually per member if the church's contribution is at least $400; if not, then 50% of the church's contribution) will provide the survivor and disability benefits. (This is already the approved procedure for the retirement program.)
- IV. That this Convention pledge to promote actively this program, and that it seek to maintain and improve as a minimum its present percentage of participation and its present level of average age (not lower than the Southern Baptist Convention level) and that, in the event it fails to do so, this Convention recognize and absorb any actuarial liability caused by such failure to do so. (The Convention already has this obligation.)
- V. That the Southern Baptist Retirement Plan be promoted through the individual churches encouraging them to contribute an amount equal to 10% of the non-ministerial personnel's compensation for retirement purposes. The church may contribute more or less than 10%. (This is already the approved procedure for the retirement plan.)

K. This agreement shall be a Texas Contract and shall be interpreted under the laws of the State of Texas.

7. Staff Retirement Policy

The General Board recommends the following guidelines for General Board employees concerning retirement:

1. The General Board recommends the following amendment to the booklet entitled Personnel Policies (1975 edition) for employees of the General Board of the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina (item 56, page 24):
 - a. Retirement age for personnel will be 65.

- b. Early retirement will be permissible beginning at age 60 as provided for by the Southern Baptist Convention Retirement Program.
- 2. The General Board recommends the following general policies to the General Secretary for further consideration of retired personnel:
 - a. Ninety days prior to the retirement date of certain positions, such as Department Directors and Managers, replacement personnel should be secured for transitional purposes.
 - b. Ninety days maximum following the retirement date may be used at the discretion of the General Secretary for transitional purposes if a replacement has not been secured.
 - c. Nothing in this policy should be construed to inhibit the use of retired employees for special advisory capacities as requested by the General Secretary.
 - d. The Insurance Annuity Director should, at the General Secretary's direction, be assigned the task of confidentially examining and reporting to the Executive Committee any extreme hardship cases of retired employees. That the Insurance Annuity Director, or a member of his staff, should be knowledgeable in all social services resources available to retired personnel. Prior to establishing a hardship case for convention relief, it should be his duty to guide the family in available resources and then to inform the General Secretary of relief needs. That the Executive Committee shall continue to have the responsibility of providing appropriate help to hardship cases as funds allow.
- 3. The General Board recommends that the above policies become effective as of January 1, 1978.

8. Reserve Fund Recommendation

In recognition of the need for reserves to meet emergencies or decreased income, the General Board recommends that a Reserve Fund be established as early as feasible from sources listed below and others as conditions change and circumstances permit:

Sources of Income:

- 1. Program Reserves for Christian Education and Christian Social Services.
- 2. Approximately $150,000 of the income received in excess of expenditures referred to above which will create a total of $200,000.
- 3. Non-budgeted funds which have no relationship to State Missions programs.
- 4. Savings in insurance premiums resulting from an increased deductible covering property and casualty losses, reference to which is made below.

5. One-fourth of one percent of the Cooperative Program budget annually to the Reserve Fund until the debt of approximately $1,500,000 is paid or substantially reduced, one-half of one percent of the Cooperative Program budget thereafter.
6. The Business Administration Committee, following the audit each year, shall recommend the transfer of not less than 10% and not more than 75% of the income received in excess of expenditures during the previous year.
7. Appropriations continue until the fund reaches 10% of the Cooperative Program budget.

We recommend guidelines for use of the funds as follows:

1. Assist any agency or institution where a real emergency exists. (An emergency exists which threatens the continuation or will seriously hamper the work of the agency or institution; funds are not available from any source either internal or external; the need is long range.)
2. Cover any unfunded programs due to short fall in Cooperative Program funds where the need is urgent and cannot be met within other budget adjustments.
3. Fund any new programs that are deemed to be of primary importance by the Executive Committee, the General Board, and the General Secretary.
4. Finance the purchase of a fleet of cars for eligible staff members with the provision that a plan be established whereby the Reserve Fund will be reimbursed on a regular basis, following approval of the Executive Committee, the General Board, and the General Secretary.
5. Interest on advances or loans should not be required in every instance, but may be charged on the type of loan involved.

We recommend further that insurance consultants and/or brokers now serving the Convention be requested to submit a proposal which provides for the Convention to assume liability on the first $25,000 of any property or casualty loss incurred, and that the Reserve Fund be pledged for this purpose. (Increased deductibles may be recommended later when the reserves are larger.)

We recommend further that a Business Administration Committee of nine (not necessarily members of the General Board) be elected to serve on a rotating basis. This committee should include, without regard for sex, people with expertise in law, accounting, finance, insurance, management, and the ministry.

We recommend further that The North Carolina Baptist Foundation, Inc. be requested to administer this fund and that investments be made so that funds can be made available for emergencies within 120 days.

Bob Shepherd, president
General Board

Church Programs

This is the eleventh and final report made to the Convention by the Director. (The Division Director will retire December 31, 1976, after a total of 16 years and eight months of service in two capacities. For six years and five months, the Director led the Training Union program in the State (1937-1943) and for ten years and three months (1966-1976) served in the present capacity.)

The duties and responsibilities of the Director are outlined in the Bylaws of the Convention (1975 Annual, p. 48).

Details of the programs during 1976 are found in the reports to follow. The Division Director provides supervision, leading staff meetings, budget preparation and review within the Division, and many field engagements (pulpit supply, revivals, Bible conferences, associational meetings, deacons' conferences, etc.). In addition, the Director taught a course in Church Administration at Southeastern Seminary during the 1976 spring semester.

The new Caraway Conference Center should be in operation by January, 1977. This promises much for the future.

Two new church group apartments were completed at North Carolina Baptist Assembly in 1976. Another apartment will be ready for 1977.

Nathan C. Brooks, Jr., director

Sunday School

The Sunday School Department continues to progress as the staff strives to meet the needs of the local church through the associations. The personnel of the Sunday School Department works closely with the associations to formulate programs to meet the needs of their churches. The Department met with approximately 25,000 Sunday School leaders in training conferences within the year - or one out of every four Sunday School leader in the state.

Two new consultants have filled the vacancies that occurred in the staff this year. Janice Haywood is the consultant in children's leadership and Vacation Bible School coordination. William A. Byrd is consultant in youth leadership and associate in associational promotion. These two join the staff of Hilda Mayo (preschool, media center/library and kindergarten and day care consultant), W. Harry Clarke (adult and training schools consultant), Burrell Lucas, director, and a host of special workers to give full support to the needs of Sunday School work for North Carolina.

The Department leadership sought to provide guidance in the new "working" series of leadership books from the Baptist Sunday School Board. The special workshops and schools that were held were open to regional Sunday School workers in adjoining associations.

Bible study was promoted through six channels of the local church: (1) Sunday School; (2) Bible Study Fellowships; (3) Vacation Bible Schools; (4) Mission Vacation Bible Schools; (5) Weekday Bible Study; and (6) Bible Conferences.

Special Sunday School emphasis for 1975-76 included Read the Bible Through; Church Planning and Preparing; Reach Out '75; Reach Out to Young Families; Young Adult Advance; and Church Improving Bible Study.

The age group receiving special recognition and resource assistance for 1976-77 will be the youth. The Youth Sunday School Emphasis for 1976-77 will include 13 projects to enlist, enroll, and support Youth Bible Study through the coming year.

The ACTION Program is both a concept and a plan. The concept is to enroll people for Bible Study anytime and any place provided they agree to be enrolled. The plan includes preparation, enrollment and follow-up. ACTION encourages outreach and preparation for Bible Study. Information available through the State Sunday School Department.

Office secretaries for the Sunday School Department are Barbara Chason and Irene Joyner.

The Sunday School Department has conducted a variety of projects to achieve its responsibilities to the churches of North Carolina:

- Director-led Enlargement Campaign
- Associational Central Training Schools
- Associational Update Schools
- Associational Bible Teaching Clinics
- One-day Group Clinics
- Teaching Improvement Projects in Local Churches

Burrel Lucas, director

Church Ministries and Training

Activities during 1976 included many specific projects related to the department's assignment to assist churches in Church Administration, Family Ministry, Church Training, and other special areas. Following is a resume of these activities.

Associational Training

Church Training workshops were held in eight associations and several local churches during the year. The staff and special consultants provided training experiences in the use of latest methods and curriculum to age-group workers and others.

A special feature in associational work has been conferences for pastors, introducing them to the ABC's of Church Administration. These conferences are designed to provide practical training in the basic areas of administration for a pastor who is his church's only full-time minister. Two special conferences in the ABC's of Church Administration were conducted in different areas of the state.

Area Wide Church Training and Church Administration Leadership Conferences

The Department sponsored an area wide Church Training-Church Administration Conference for leaders in Church Training and special conferences in Church Administration and other ministries. This conference was held at the West Asheville Church in Buncombe Association.

Philip B. Harris was keynote speaker. Out of state conference leaders were from the Baptist Sunday School Board and the Virginia Baptist General Association.

Special Consultants' Workshop

In April, 30 persons were trained to assist the Department in special leadership training assignments. In 1976 consultants were trained for assistance in associational Church Training work, deacon training, and family ministries. It would be impossible for the department staff to meet all the requests from the field without the help of these able consultants.

Pastoral Leadership Seminars and Workshops

The Department of Church Ministries and Training assists in pastoral leadership seminars and workshops by enlisting associations to schedule one of these conferences and by promoting these meetings through direct mailings and promotion in the Church Leader.

Church Staff Relations Seminar

The Bordeaux Motor Inn, Fayetteville, was the setting of the first Church Staff Relations Seminar for North Carolina Baptists, February 16-18, 1976.

Conferees to the seminar participated by special invitation. Thirty-five people attended the conference.

Deacon Training

The annual Chairmen of Deacons/Pastors Conference was held at First Church, Hickory, November 5-6. This conference was co-sponsored with the Church Administration Department, Baptist Sunday School Board. There were six leadership conferences and a conference for the wives of deacons and pastors. Principal speaker was Fred Roach, layman, Dallas, Texas.

A Statewide Deacon Retreat was held October 8-10, Camp Caraway, for deacons and their wives.

Representatives from the Department have assisted in numerous associational and local Schools for Deacons.

Senior Adult Work

The fourth Senior Adult Conference was held at the North Carolina Baptist Assembly, May 17-20. Approximately 170 senior adults and leaders were in attendance.

October 18-20, the fall Senior Adult Retreat was held at Camp Caraway. Bible study leader and pastor was George Williamson, Hudson.

September 22 - October 6, a Senior Adult Tour was scheduled to attend the Chautauqua at Glorieta Conference Center. Fifty-nine persons from Wilmington to Asheville joined the two bus tour. Bus Captains for the group were Mrs. Nathan Brooks, Mrs. Christine Corpening, and Mr. Dwaine Coley.

The Department continues to undergird the work in local churches through clubs for senior adults. A booklet has been compiled by the department leaders that provides program suggestions for each month of the year as well as a list of suggested crafts and activities for ministry with this age group. This booklet is provided to club leaders upon request from the Church Ministries and Training Department.

Multi-Vention

An innovation in leadership training, the Multi-Vention, held September 13-15, featured five seminars designed to assist church leaders in the following areas of leadership enrichment and training: Religious Nurture for the Mentally Retarded; Church Long-Range Planning; Church Secretaries Advanced Workshop; The Christian Worker Confronts the World of the Occult; and Church Leader Communication workshop. Tom Corts, president, Wingate College, brought motivational messages at each session.

Assembly Week at N.C. Baptist Assembly, June 21-26

The Church Ministries and Training Week at the N.C. Baptist Assembly emphasized leadership training by age-group sections, a special workshop for pastors and educational directors, and a family enrichment seminar. Attendance was 605, and participation by adult leadership was up from the past several years. Various staff members were involved to some degree in faculty enlistment and/or programs for the several youth conferences held at the Assembly during the summer.

Children's Bible Drill

The drill is a Bible verse memorization challenge for boys and girls in the 4th to 6th grades. Three state drills were held this year. One each at Fruitland Baptist Conference Center, First Church, Asheboro, and during the assembly week at the N.C. Baptist Assembly in June. One hundred eighty-five children participated in the state tournaments with 27 from nineteen associations.

Work with Exceptional Persons

The Department assisted several churches to begin work with retarded persons during the year. At the present time, there are 65 known ministries in N.C. Baptist churches.

Activities during the year included: (1) Happiness Retreat for Exceptional Persons, N.C. Baptist Assembly, August 12-14. Ages of the fifty-two participants ranged from nine to fifty-five. A well-rounded program of religious instruction, music, recreation, crafts, and fun time was provided by a capable and dedicated faculty. (2) Workshops for workers and parents of retarded persons were held the week of February 9-12, at Winter Park Church, Wilmington; First Baptist, Ashoskie; and Knollwood Church, Winston-Salem. Doris Monroe, consultant, Work with Exceptional Persons, Baptist Sunday School Board, was workshop leader. (3) Conference for workers with retarded in VBS was a part of the State VBS Clinic at Wingate College in March. (4) Conferences were held in the Buncombe Association and in a number of churches according to their specific requests and need. (5) In cooperation with other church and denominational groups, Mental Retardation Sabbath/Sunday was promoted during the first weekend in November.

This area of ministry will be strongly emphasized in the coming year as assistance is given in the establishment of new work, teacher training, and in general awareness of the great need to minister to the retarded person and his family in every Baptist church and community.

Family Ministries

Conferences on Family Ministries for associations and churches were conducted by the Department of Church Ministries and Training.

A statewide Family Life Conference was held in May at the Friendly Avenue Church, Greensboro. This event focused on developing parenting skills for adults, and providing insights for the developmental needs of children and youth.

The Department sponsored a marriage enrichment retreat for ministers and wives in February. Retreats such as this focus on strengthening marriage relationships by renewing and enriching the love husbands and wives have for each other.

Together with the Christian Life Council and the Sunday School Department, the Department co-sponsored the State-wide Single Adult Christian Conference in Charlotte in October.

Baptist Youth Corps

During the summer of 1976 there were eighty students from seven Baptist colleges serving churches and associations across North Carolina. The purpose of this ten-week summer program is: the development of young people for a church related vocation or lay leadership role in our churches, the assisting of the local church in strengthening its ministries, and the promotion of our seven Baptist colleges. The summer activities were climaxed when several hundred young people from the participating churches attended one of two youth conferences at the North Carolina Baptist Assembly.

Maurice Cooper, director

Church Music

The year 1976 marked the twentieth anniversary of the Church Music Department. During the year many exciting things occurred and some growth was experienced. At this time statistical reports are not complete, but in every age group the churches are reporting some numerical gains.

The highlight of the year was PRAISING '76 held in Owen's Auditorium, Charlotte with 3,000 persons in attendance. Because of the lack of seating the Department was not able to honor all the requests for tickets. The North Carolina Symphony under the direction of John Gosling; Hale and Wilder, internationally known duo; William J. Reynolds, Baptist Sunday School Board; and the combined choirs of the seven North Carolina Baptist Colleges appeared on the program.

During the year numerous training schools were conducted to assist the churches in the training of choir members, age-group leaders, organists, pianists as well as classes in hymnology and worship. Assistance was given by many ministers of music throughout the state and the ten Regional Music Directors appointed by the Department. Participation in choir and handbell festivals increased in 1976. Two State Handbell Festivals are planned in 1977. The Regional Children's Choir Festival and the State Youth Festival will be conducted again in 1977 and two Adult Choral Festival-Workshops have been added. Jane Marshall of Dallas, Texas, outstanding composer, arranger, organist, and choral director, and Paul Peterson, another outstanding choral director and church musician from Winston-Salem, North Carolina will direct these workshops. The summer worker program was well received with thirteen churches participating. Attendance at the two Children's Choir Camps was encouraging as was the attendance at the Youth-Adult Music Conference at the Assembly at Southport. The Volunteer Music Directors' Retreat at Camp Caraway was a great success with 130 in attendance. A new employee, Candy Lane became office secretary in December, 1975.

It was a good year and the Department is grateful for the opportunity of assisting the churches in having a better church music program. The main emphasis of the Department during 1977 will be the small church with part-time or volunteer music leadership. Three programs are new ones: the Pastor-Music Director Workshops planned for January, the Preschool-Children Workshops planned for September, and 77 in '77.

One of the major projects for the Church Music Department for 1977 is to sponsor music schools in 77 North Carolina Baptist Churches.

These schools are designed for churches with volunteer or part-time music leadership and will be devoted to training sessions for the church choir only.

Each school will begin Sunday night with a service of congregational hymn singing followed by a workshop for the choir and will continue with workshops on Monday and Tuesday nights. The worker for each school will be enlisted by the Church Music Department. The only expense for the church is $25 to be applied toward the expenses and honorarium of the worker.

Joseph Stroud, director

Woman's Missionary Union

Woman's Missionary Union of North Carolin is the largest state WMU organization in the Southern Baptist Convention. There are 141,857 members of the age-level organizations and WMU officers enrolled as follows:

	Organizations	Members
Missions	193	----
WMU Officers	----	10,462
Baptist Women	2,966	60,564
Baptist Young Women	770	9,725
Acteens	1,994	19,162
Girls in Action	2,574	25,875
Mission Friends	1,831	16,069

This is an increase in enrollment of 2.45 percent or 3,423 people over 1974. In spite of the large number enrolled in the organizations there are an estimated 360,000 women, young women, girls and preschool boys and girls in the churches who are not enrolled. This vast prospect list challenges WMU leadership to do a better job of enlistment.

Finances

Woman's Missionary Union disburses approximately $386,917 annually. Of this amount $150,150 is received from Cooperative Program gifts and is known as the Operating Budget; $95,627 is received through the Heck-Jones Memorial Offering and is known as the Promotional Budget; and $141,140 is received from fees for camps, conferences and retreats at Camp Mundo Vista. The Operating Budget is used for salaries, travel, and Annual Session, leader training projects, approved workers, office supplies, and building operations. The Promotional Budget is used to finance all state promoted WMU meetings, debt retirement on Camp Mundo Vista, maintenance and capital improvements at the camp and for other designated special mission projects as approved by the state WMU Executive Board. Fees collected for activities at Camp Mundo Vista are disbursed for operating expenses at the camp. During 1975-76 the camp has been self-supporting.

Although Woman's Missionary Union carries the major promotion role in the Lottie Moon Christmas Offering for Foreign Missions and the Annie Armstrong Easter Offering for Home Missions monies for these two offerings are handled by the convention business office. WMU assists in the promotion of the State Missions Offering and has total promotion of the Heck-Jones Offering. Two of the offerings showed significant increases and two showed losses in 1975-76 as shown in the chart:

	1975 Goal	Amount Received	Increase/Decrease from Previous Year
LMCO	$2,500,000.00	$2,645,292.84	$235,639.06 (9.7%)
AAEO	$ 850,000.00	$ 798,040.79	-$ 7,519.12 (-9.3%)
State Missions	$ 400,000.00	$ 318,047.93	-$ 17,214.71 (5.1%)
Heck-Jones	$ 85,000.00	$ 95,626.50	$ 13,633.20 (16.6%)

The most satisfying financial accomplishment of 1976 was the debt retirement on Camp Mundo Vista. The remaining payment of $44,000 was made and advances from the Baptist State Convention repaid.

Prison Ministry

An exciting new ministry opened up to WMU members. The North Carolina Correctional Center for Women in Raleigh asked WMU to provide Christmas gift items for the 460 inmates. (Associational WMU directors were asked to coordinate this in their respective associations.) Church WMU members either collected the gift items or gave money for the association to purchase them. When all was collected a gift box containing hair brush, comb, emery boards, rain bonnets, hose, toothpaste, toothbrush, soap, bath powder, fruit, candy and home-made cookies was prepared for each inmate.

The Christmas packages opened the way for continuing ministry. In January the Executive Board voted to buy tape recorders and players (8), one for each of the seven dormitories and one for the chaplain to use. Inmates are allowed to listen to them in the couple of hours free time after dinner each evening. Gifts of money from church and associational WMU members were used to purchase tapes of religious music, discussion of moral issues and Bible studies to accompany the players, and a coffee urn.

At least 50 boxes of good used clothing have been collected for the clothing closet at the Center. These clothes are given to inmates leaving the prison for work release, honor grade programs and completion of sentence.

Woman's Missionary Union is initiating a program for post-release sponsorship of inmates in the major cities and counties to which the largest number return upon release. In this program sponsoring individuals or groups will assist the inmate in readjusting to society by helping her find a job and housing and by giving her emotional support during her first days after release or parole.

The highlight of the year in prison ministry came when the Center accepted the invitation of WMU to use the facilities of Camp Mundo Vista for a retreat for some of the inmates. Thirteen girls from the "committed youthful offender" group (girls under 21) were selected by the prison officials to participate. They arrived at Mundo Vista on Friday and left on Sunday afternoon. The summer camp staff planned the program which included worship, Bible study, vesper services, recreation, special activities and free time. It was life-changing for both staffer and inmate. It is anticipated that at a later time adult inmates serving longer terms will have this kind of experience.

Plans are already underway to repeat the Christmas gift boxes.

Personnel

Suthell Walker, native of Spindale, who was serving as a Christian Social Ministries worker with the Home Mission Board at the Baptist Center in Lexington, Kentucky, was employed as Baptist Women director to replace Kathryn Bullard.

Thomas E. Bridges, associate pastor, First Church, Laurinburg, was employed as resident manager of Camp Mundo Vista.

Carolyn Hopkins, native of Albuquerque, New Mexico, was elected Acteens director to replace Jolene Ivey.

Bicentennial Mission Tour To Glorieta

One hundred eight (108) women and 6 staff and WMU officers traveled by chartered buses to the WMU conference at Glorieta Conference Center. The 16-day tour included sight-seeing at historical sites and mission points in nine locations.

Acteens Mission Project In New Orleans

Twelve Acteens from the Randolph Association went to New Orleans to participate in a pilot mission action project at Baptist Friendship House, a Home Mission Board mission center. This project was planned and coordinated by Jolene Ivey, state Acteens director, and Mrs. Tony Vuncannon, Randolph Association Acteens director. Finances for the trip were paid for by churches in the Randolph Association which sponsored the project.

Various activities were planned by the group through which they witnessed to the children. These included a 30-minute puppet show each day of Bible stories, personal visitation, afternoon group activities, and a special visit to the zoo one afternoon. The children at the center were of a variety of nationalities and cultures.

Directions For The Future

The state WMU president, executive secretary and age-level directors met at Camp Mundo Vista in May to evaluate the present program of WMU and to determine directions in which the staff should move in providing the most help to church and associational WMU. The following priorities were established as planning guides for the future:

1. Leader Development

In this emphasis staff time and energy will be geared toward intensive training for associational WMU leaders and biennial leadership training conferences for church WMU leaders. Associations will be encouraged to provide and train officers to lead retreats, conduct training programs and other meetings which can no longer be provided in the state because of the large membership.

2. Work in Associations

WMU field staff will each be assigned an association in which to work intensively for at least a year. She will attend all meetings in the association, spend at least two weeks a year in the association consulting with pastors and church WMU leaders, helping organize new work and strengthening the associational program. When the association is strong enough she will move on to another association.

3. Enlistment

The emphasis group will be women in the 25-50 age bracket.

4. Spiritual Growth

The goal will be to help a woman or young person to grow in their commitment to Christ to such an extent that the experience will evoke a personal response to mission involvement. Special attention will be given to the many mission options open to persons to work in North Carolina, the United States or in foreign countries.

Brotherhood

In keeping with the bicentennial spirit, the 1976 year could be labeled as "the action year" for North Carolina Brotherhood. The news of an increased enrollment of almost eight percent within the men and boys' missions units in the churches proved to be a source of encouragement. The enlarged organization of Baptist Men that had been formalized in 1975 began to perform under the aggressive leadership of state president, Joe Lennon, and the selected missions action coordinators. Lay people from North Carolina have become increasingly interested in and involved in missions service in their own communities, state, nation, and around the world. New frontiers suggest that some of those emphases normally dealt with through the state Brotherhood program have been dropped. Perhaps some should have been, but that is not the case. The normal thrust of promoting new and stronger church Royal Ambassador and Baptist Men's units has been carried on with even greater intensity. Two or three emphases dropped in 1975 due to insufficient finances were conducted again in 1976. A major goal for Brotherhood is involving men and boys in missions. As for this goal, we can know that 1976 was a very successful year.

Basic Approaches

Training programs: (1) training 70 approved workers who specialize in various phases of Baptist Men and Royal Ambassador age level work; and in so doing, train the people in the churches to perform those duties; (2) a state conference for church Brotherhood directors, Baptist Men's officers, and Royal Ambassador counselors; (3) ten spring training sessions for associational Brotherhood leadership and a fall state conference for associational leadership; (4) a spring training conference for adult home mission study teachers and a similar fall training session for adult foreign missions study teachers; (5) a fall training session for coordinators and team members of lay witness revivals; (6) spring and fall training sessions for coordinators and team members of Lay Renewal Weekends; (7) a late spring training session for people involved in correctional ministries; (8) eight regional training sessions for persons who conduct church and associational day camps; (9) three training sessions for campers on mission; (10) a state training session for camp counselors; (11) the training of regional leaders and state officers; (12) the conducting of thirty associational Brotherhood workshops and Royal Ambassador leadership courses; and (13) a state training conference for officers of older Royal Ambassador chapters.

Missions inspirational programs: (1) the N.C. Baptist Men's Convention held at Eutaw Heights Church, Fayetteville, November 14-15; (2) the Pioneer Royal Ambassador Congress held at Campbell College, Buies Creek, March 19-21; (3) the Crusader

Royal Ambassador Congress held at First Church, Hickory, November 19-20; (4) thirteen weeks of Royal Ambassador camping at Camp CaRAway, Truett Camp, and N.C. Baptist Assembly; (5) three Royal Ambassador Weekend Camps at CaRAway; (6) two Family Camping weekends; (7) World Missions Week at N.C. Baptist Assembly; (8) six Royal Ambassador "See College Days"; (9) the State Royal Ambassador Track Meet; and (10) the Lay Witness Institute held in January at Gardner-Webb College.

Missions service programs: A tremendous surge in activity took place in 1976 as North Carolina laymen got involved in missions service. Leadership from several well identified areas of missions service singled out in the 1975 N.C. Baptist Men's Convention seemed to generate this new commitment to missions service. Areas identified, along with the selected coordinator as well as some of the accomplishments, are as follows:

Missions Study. Bill Mitchiner of Oxford is the coordinator. Bill has begun to encourage church and associational Brotherhood support for world missions conferences. Unified church mission studies as well as improved missionary education for men and boys on a weekday basis is being encouraged in the churches across the state.

Baptist Men's Corps. Sanford Smith of Greensboro is the coordinator. Sanford is seeking to help N.C. laymen to be prepared for services anywhere in the USA. Sanford led a crew to do construction work on a boys' camp in Indiana during the summer.

Disaster Relief. LeRoy Yates of Rockingham is the coordinator. A pilot project is being developed in Region 1 and 2. Resources and manpower are being developed to minister in a time of severe crisis. Three other area units are projected after being determined just what can be accomplished through the pilot project.

Resort and Recreational Area Ministries. W.H. Ledbetter of Fayetteville is the coordinator. Mr. Ledbetter has developed a base unit from which to work. He visits resort and recreational areas to determine needs. After needs are determined, he shares his findings with associational leadership and, if necessary, offers his services in developing lay teams to provide a ministering witness. The campers on mission concept is being used to organize manpower for this type service. Special recreational areas such as race tracks, parks, state fairs, etc. are being studied as potential focal points for missions service.

Correctional Missions Ministries. W.G. Hutchison of Asheville is the coordinator. Mr. Hutchison is working with a twelve-man committee to discover the best ways for ministering to people whose lives are impaired by crime, either directly or indirectly. The committee is also seeking ways of getting Baptist lay people directly involved in that missions task as well as coordinating the many ministries.

Overseas Missions Projects. James Marchman of Forest City is the coordinator. The SBC Foreign Mission Board is requesting N.C. laymen to go and serve as short-term missionaries, doing construction, health care, etc. Teams went this year to Ecuador, Honduras, Guadeloupe, and Antigua. Men go for two week periods at their own expense.

Lay Renewal Missions. Wayne Honeycutt of High Point is the coordinator. A dozen team coordinators are conducting around 40 church lay renewal weekends annually. This ministry is less than two years old and growing.

Lay Witness Missions. Stan Haywood of Asheboro is the coordinator. This is a witness that has been going on in N.C. for twenty years. Fifteen team coordinators are conducting more than 100 lay-led revivals annually. Approximately five-percent of these are in other states and nations. Forty laymen conducted lay-led revivals in several churches in Australia during October of this year.

Enlarged State Organization

North Carolina Baptist Men reached out again in 1976 to enlarge its base organization and to embrace lay involvement in missions emphases. A new constitution and by-laws was adopted which identified NCBM as a state organization. N.C. Baptist laymen are committed to the task of working with the Baptist State Convention of N.C. in its objective of educating men and boys to the missions enterprise and involving men and boys in missions. The new organization calls for a Board consisting of 130 Baptist laymen from N.C. Baptist churches. It is believed that this enlarged base will stimulate new interest and greater support for lay involvement in missions. This organization will be supportive to the Convention and the Brotherhood Department.

Record Camping Year

Camp CaRAway had capacity attendance of 1,760 campers. Two additional cabins had been added; and even though capacity had been achieved in 1975. Words are not adequate to express gratitude to the good job done by the camp director and the fine college-age staff. Three excellent RA weeks were also provided at Camp Truett. (Truett can only house 60 boys per week.) The camp is strategically located for Region 10 (the further part of the state to the west.) An excellent program was provided, and at both camps, several hundred young boys made initial decisions to receive Christ as well as commitments for missions service.

New Events

Regional Baptist Men's Rallies were held again in 1976. Lay missions was promoted, and the men had a chance to hear Dr. Cecil Ray, the new General Secretary for N.C. Baptists. The Brotherhood Department organized and promoted the Orvil Reid Run during 1976. Reid, a retiring SBC foreign missionary, ran through the state, 20 miles per day, September 15-30, speaking and sharing his witness at rallies during certain parts of each day. The first state Lay Renewal Conference was conducted at Wingate College in July. There was an effort to acquaint people with the lay renewal concept and to involve new people in renewal as an area of missions service. In September, Department staff members held eight associational dialogue sessions with pastors. This was a refresher for pastors in missions lay involvement and an effort to learn from the pastors as to their concerns and views.

Next year, the Department plans to make a special effort to involve more Baptist Young Men (ages 19-29) and more Senior Men (ages 59 and up) in the lay missionary endeavor. A new approach will also be taken in behalf of leadership training by providing regional training conferences in the fall. Associational leaders will be trained for the task of discovering missions needs and conducting associational missions action workshops.

Royal Ambassador Growth

A statewide Royal Ambassador Committee was selected to be a part of North Carolina Baptist Men. The state coordinator (committee chairman) is Grady Griffin of Rocky Mount. Mr. Griffin and the committee has done a superb job of supporting the Brotherhood Department in its promotion of Royal Ambassadors during the year. The good work of the committee was a factor in the capacity of the boys' camp attendance as well as the bulging attendance at all other Royal Ambassador events. The chairman as well as the committee also took a strong stand on the issue as to whether a Southern Baptist church should endorse Boy Scouts as complimentary to Royal Ambassadors. (It was agreed that the movement instigated by a support group for scouting and an out-of-state organization should be discouraged.) The concensus was that this could best be done by pointing N.C. Baptist churches to the values of Royal Ambassadors as their best weekday organization for boys. The committee stressed the need for more boys' leadership in the state. Associations have been encouraged to provide part time financial support for Royal Ambassador promoters.

BSU provided assistance for the first associational summer worker. Randy Severs worked during the '76 summer for Robeson Baptist Association. It is hoped that other such workers can be added next summer.

Campus Ministry

Ministry On Campus

Revival of BSU in smaller schools such as Lenoir Rhyne and Pfeiffer is an important part of 1976. For the first time the Convention is seeking to project a specific campus ministry at Pembroke. During these months, too, regular programs of witness, worship, study and fellowship have been carried on in established work from Cullowhee to Murfreesboro.

A special word of commendation goes to committed and self-giving lay advisers who share regularly with groups of students in schools across the state and to scores of local church leaders who pray for and listen to and share with young adults whose lives are being molded in college.

Ministry On A State Level

Chaplains' Seminar: The Chaplains' Seminar featured worship, planning, and study of the needs and trends in college, led by Richard Hoffman of Mars Hill and J.O. Cansler of UNC-Chapel Hill. About 24 ministers participated in this January event.

High School Seniors' Retreat: Sixty high school seniors were at Camp Caraway during the weekend of January 23-24-25, 1976, for the High School Seniors' Retreat sponsored jointly by the Departments of Campus Ministry and Youth Ministry.

BSU Basketball Tournament: Teams representing 13 different BSUs participated in the State BSU Basketball Tournament. On March 19-20, 1976, teams competed in regional tournaments at Wake Forest University and Gardner-Webb College. The finals were held at Ridgecrest as a part of the Spring Conference. Both the boys and girls teams from Campbell won the championship trophies.

Spring Conference: Spring Conference, at Ridgecrest in April, provided these options for the 450 participants. A "track" for graduating seniors focused on continuing churchmanship, the search for community and other discussions of "re-entry" into the post college world. A leadership track led by SBC trained personnel, was geared to help local BSU officers prepare for their jobs. Julian Cave, pastor of St. John's Church, Charlotte, led the third track which emphasized the theme "I Am, You Are, He Is."

Roberta Farr of A&T was selected as President; Laura Cordle of UNC-Greensboro will serve as Special Projects Vice-President and a new emphasis on regional programs will be led by Becky Angell of ASU, Pat Hilliard of UNC-Chapel Hill and Grover Blackburn of Campbell.

Summer Service Programs, supported in part through student-raised funds, included the following:

Apostoloi: a four member youth ministry team, served in the Fayetteville area under the supervision of Ron Pinkerton of the New South River staff. Rhymes with Reasons spent ten weeks using drama, music, and puppetry for witness in the Greensboro and Sylva areas and at N.C. Baptist Assembly.

Interns: Student interns worked under associational supervision, with Royal Ambassadors in Lumberton, juvenile delinquents in Statesville, and migrants in Elizabeth City.

In cooperation with other departments, BSUers served in social ministries, resort areas, local churches and associational positions in the state, across the country through the Home Mission Board, and in Germany.

State Officers' Workshop: Labor Day weekend was the occasion and Caraway the place of the State Officers' Workshop where 60 student leaders met with staff to plan the year's program and prepare for the school year 1976-77.

Fall Convention: Fall Convention at Ridgecrest, October 1-3, drew 650 students representing BSUs and local churches. Ed Seabough of the Home Mission Board and Grady Nutt, Christian minister-humorist led in the sessions. A student representative to the Christian Life Commission was elected and a summer missions budget was approved in the BSU business meeting.

Stearns and Company: A musical drama of North Carolina Baptist history, was produced by ASU students under the leadership of Hank Greer and sponsored by the Department in Siler City, Ridgecrest, Charlotte, and Greensboro.

A new emphasis on 1976 was upon interracial dialogue under the joint sponsorship of the Department of Cooperative Ministries and Campus Ministry. J.O. Shurling, pastor and professor, and Howard Lee, former mayor of Chapel Hill were among the leaders of the October weekend, where selected black and white Christian students talked with others about concerns and dreams.

In response to expressed student interest, a one-day Youth and Children's Ministry Workshop was set up in October using the facilities of First Church, Greensboro, and involving Convention and local church personnel.

William Eastman of UNC-Chapel Hill coordinated a training event for selected adult couples in college communities on ministering with student couples through local churches.

On a number of campuses in North Carolina, volunteer directors are responsible for the BSU program. These persons are dedicated faculty members, interested lay-folk or church staff members who have a concern for students. Without the consistent help of such volunteers there would be no Baptist campus ministry on some of these campuses. During 1976 these persons served in a volunteer capacity: Gail Anderson and Jo Ann Bryson at Brevard; Virginai Bates at Central Piedmont; Marsha Fanning at Lenoir-Rhyne; Bill Edwards at Atlantic Christian; and Lorelle Martin at Mt. Olive.

James Y. Greene, director

Youth Ministry

The Youth Ministry Service is designed to assist churches in organizing, planning, and promoting youth activities. It strives to help churches coordinate youth involvement and to guide youth and youth leadership into a better understanding of Christian relationships and responsibilities.

It is hoped that the Baptist churches will realize the need to coordinate the youth organizations and youth involvement in their overall programs. This means that each organization can supplement and add to the programs of the other organizations. Workers in Sunday School, Church Ministries and Training programs, Acteens, Pioneers, and youth choirs need to work together in order to meet the needs of youth. The Youth Advisory Committee, composed of persons responsible for the youth division in each department, works to plan, coordinate, and sponsor various youth activities.

The Youth Ministry Service is available to provide assistance and help in developing a ministry with youth. At the request of churches, Convention workers are available to help in the planning and the execution of youth programs and activities. It is suggested that a representative group of youth in the church be chosen to plan, correlate, promote, and evaluate the activities of the members of this age group. Involving youth is the best way to: (1) become aware of their needs and interests; (2) train them to be leaders; and, (3) lead them to accept responsibility.

Conferences and programs planned by the Youth Ministry Service in 1976 include:

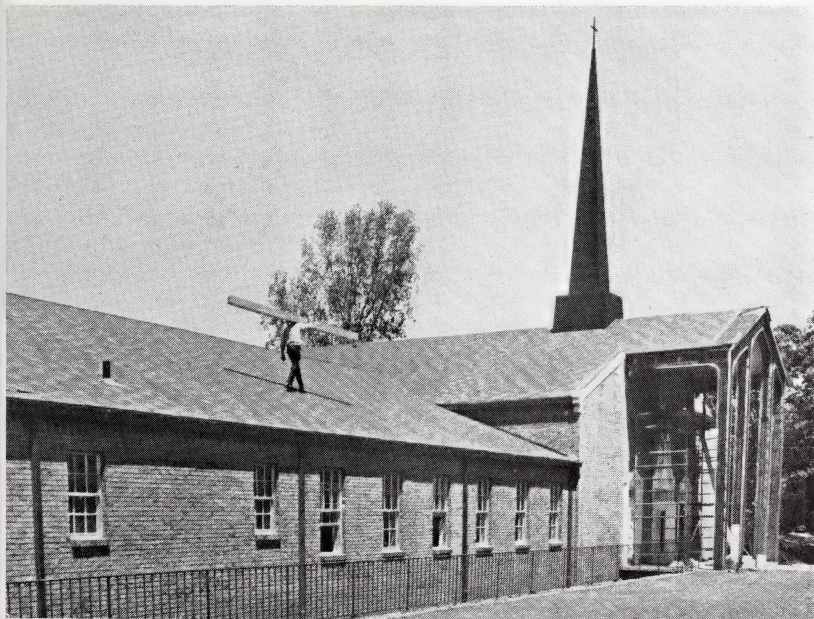

- High School Seniors' Retreat, Camp Caraway, January 27-29.
- Baptist Youth Convention, Dorton Arena, Raleigh, April 23-24, (Baptist Youth in grades 7-12).
- Youth Ministry Workshop, Camp Caraway, May 6-8, (meeting for adults who work with youth).
- Orientation Week, June 1-8, Gardner-Webb College, Boiling Springs, (Conference for all student summer missionaries).
- Local Church Ministry Program, (Students from Non-Baptist Colleges).
- Youth Ministry Week, June 14-18, N.C. Baptist Assembly.
- three Youth Conferences, July 12-16, July 26-30, August 2-6.
- Youth Evangelism Night, August 13, Greensboro Coliseum, (co-sponsored with the Division of Evangelism).
- Discovery Weekend, October 29-30, Wake Forest University, Winston-Salem, (weekend is designed to involve high school students who are considering a call into some area of ministry).
- Youth Council Retreat, November 12-13, Camp Caraway, (retreat is for youth councils and adult sponsors).

Church Building Planning

Churches throughout the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina have been experiencing "growing pains", but they are meeting the challenge by remodeling, renovating, or erecting new buildings. The outreach to people for Christ has become more important than ever, and Christians are giving of themselves that others might have the opportunity to study, to worship, and to enjoy fellowship among "a body of believers".

In God's house, as is true in any business, guidance is needed in the planning of a building program. The Department seeks to serve the churches from the time of recognizing their need for space up to and including the Dedication Services for the improved or added facilities.

An on-site visit is a prerequisite in rendering valuable assistance where there are complex situations, such as limited property for expansion; structural deficiencies in existing buildings; lack of vision on the part of some members; financial or other problems. In the capacity of liaison, the Department directs the churches in the gathering of necessary information and documents, and presents their needs to the Church Architecture Department in Nashville, Tennessee; revisions are requested, if the original preliminary drawings do not reflect the total desires of the respective churches. Although the Department does not recommend any one architect as opposed to another, it does maintain and distribute a current list of architects throughout the State, all of whom have served one or more of our churches. Updated files on Church Product Supplies are available - from indoor carpeting to outdoor steeples.

The Department keeps abreast of the current financial trends, through direct contact with officials of financing institutions and various Bond Program representatives, sharing findings with churches. The "Together We Build" approach to financing church building programs seems to be the general preference. (Unfortunately, only one of the area Consultants is trained to lead a church in this type program. It is impossible for the Department Director to assume this responsibility beyond presenting the pros and cons to a congregation.)

Valuable knowledge and experience was gained by the Department Director, through attendance and participation in the Regional Conference of The Guild for Religious Architecture, and membership will assure continued help. An all-day session on "Overcoming Architectural Barriers in Churches and Synagogue" provided inspiring suggestions for future church building programs. The Director and Area Consultants are constantly increasing their abilities, through seminars and other training programs.

At total of 323 churches, in 68 North Carolina Baptist Associations, were rendered direct assistance by the Department during the Calendar Year of 1975, through 311 telephone conversations, 1468 written communications, 45 office visits, 133 on-site church visits, eight Conference Consultations and 25 contacts at the Annual Meeting of the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina. This does not include the churches visited by Nashville Consultants. Also served by the director were thirty churches of the General Baptist State Convention. There is a need for a black representative to be trained to serve as an Area Consultant; however, there are no funds for this purpose, now. Because of the new ACTION program of the Sunday School Department, requests for building program assistance have doubled.

In keeping with the usual policy, the Department held Spring and Fall Church Building Conference in 1976.

Jack Clark, director

North Carolina Baptist Assembly

The Assembly served approximately 17,100 people during 1976. There were 2,508 pre-season guests, 6,682 summer conference guests, and 5,600 one day participants.

This drop of several hundred in attendance is explained partially by Baptist involvement and participation in various Bicentennial events. Late school closing, the Southern Baptist Convention (June), various choir and mission trips by local church groups, and local Vacation Bible Schools and Day Camps, all contributed to the smaller attendance at the Assembly during the early part of the summer. After July 4th, the crowds at the Assembly were near capacity until Vacation Week in mid-August.

Two new Church Group Apartments were finished in 1976.

The increase from 13 to 15 of these made it possible for more church groups to take part. Another one is currently being constructed and will be ready for the 1977 regular summer season.

The schedule for the 1977 summer program is:

June 13-18	Youth Ministry Week
June 20-25	Church Ministries and Training Week
June 27 - July 2	Children's Choir Camp
July 4-9	Sunday School Bible Conference
July 11-16	World Missions Week
July 18-23	Youth Conference I
July 25-30	Youth-Adult Music Week
August 1-6	Youth Conference II
August 8-13	Youth Conference III

Fred J. Smith, director

Camps And Retreats (Caraway)

The purposes of the Department are: (1) to provide facilities at Camp Caraway for both state planned meetings, including Royal Ambassador camps, and church retreats; and (2) to render consultant and site planning services to any church or association requesting such services.

The facilities have been used to near capacity during the summer and weekends. The Royal Ambassador camps had a record attendance of over 1760 campers. Off-season requests for facilities are far greater than the camp can provide for. The opening of the Conference Center building for adult groups should enable the camp to serve more youth groups. Two new cabins were constructed during the year.

Conference Center

A great amount of time during the year has gone into the general supervision of the construction of the Conference Center. This very fine building, consisting of fifty one bedrooms and baths, dining room, conference rooms, and lounges is scheduled for use by the first of 1977. This building is to be an adult facility and will meet a very pressing need for adequate adult accommodations. This building is an addition to Camp Caraway facilities, and in no way replaces or minimizes the use of the present camp facilities. It is expected that our greatest volume use will be the present camp facilities, as these facilities provide for group use.

Bill Jackson, director

Mission Ministries

The main work of the Division will be given in the eight department reports to follow. Some additional services are provided in a special ministry that is not the specific responsibility of any one department.

A close working relationship is cultivated and maintained with associational leadership. Supplements to the budgets of 57 associations is provided.

A small revolving loan fund is now provided for small mission type churches that would have difficulty securing a commercial loan. At present the maximum amount that can be loaned to a mission church is $10,000. These loans can be made for a maximum of ten years, or less, at the rate of six percent interest.

The division joins associations and a church within the association in supporting Language Ministries. At present there are two Spanish ministries in the Mecklenburg Association. The New South River Association has a Korean, Japanese, and a Vietnamese ministry. The New River Association and the Atlantic Association have a Japanese ministry that has been effective for several years. The Convention also gives support to Indian work in both the Cherokee and Burnt Swamp Associations.

In 1976 we worked in a coordinated plan with the Brotherhood and Woman's Missionary Union in a very successful World Missions Week at the North Carolina Baptist Assembly.

The Division has assisted eleven associations in planning World Missions Conferences during 1976. In 1975, 330 churches participated in the eleven conferences with an attendance of 143,870. There were 51 professions of faith and 1,052 rededications. There were 116 foreign missionaries, 92 home missionaries and 72 state missionaries participating in eleven World Missions Conferences. Thirteen Conferences are already planned for 1977.

Howard Ford, director

Chaplaincy Ministries

Within the Division of Mission Ministries, the Department works cooperatively with departments and divisions throughout the Convention. With the exception of the institutional chaplaincy, the Home Mission Board supplies 33 percent of departmental costs.

The reporting year, October 1, 1975 to September 30, 1976, has been most rewarding. Appreciation on the part of chaplains to the Convention for providing the office itself plus its various services seems out of proportion to the relatively minimal cost of the department, as evidenced by notes with chaplains reports and countless verbal expressions. Chaplains, on the cutting edge of outreach, are grateful for our varied support.

Until retirement on June 30, 1976 the Director chaired the General Board's Committee on Counseling Resources, whose second folder appeared within the year under the title "Special Help For Special Needs." The folder features separate listings of individuals and organizations capable of in-depth counseling and those who could lead counselees progressively to point of referral to in-depth counselors. The committee now has no chairman.

The Director still chairs the State Department of Corrections' Advisory Committee for Religious Services, where plans continue for seeking a full, state paid chaplaincy in the State prison system. The institutional chaplaincy has been a major interest and emphasis of the Department for approximately three years. Prospects seem excellent for legislative commitment in 1977.

The industrial chaplaincy shows promise since the recession subsided, and holds a major interest for years immediately ahead. The hospital chaplaincy has grown encouragingly, especially the well-planned, carefully guided volunteer chaplaincy.

Following is a statistical review of the work of our six part-time institutional chaplains, as always typical of the larger volume of similar work by full-time Baptist chaplains not paid by the Convention. Hopefully, the next calendar year will see one full-time chaplain working with Samarcand and Morrison Schools in Youth Services in lieu of four or five of the current eight part-time spaces.

City and Metropolitan Missions

The City and Metropolitan Missions Department continues to work with associations, churches, special committees and/or agencies in studying mission opportunities, analyzing trends, developing growth studies, discovering new cooperative adventures and coordinating urban mission interest in these areas.

During the year of 1976 several major achievements have been made in three areas of work.

Associational And Urban Church Missions

The Area Metropolitan Missions Conferences were held in Lexington, Reidsville, and Burlington. Concerns for Ministry was the main emphasis, with George J. Sheridan, Home Mission Board, and other outstanding men and women appearing on the program. People from urban areas throughout the state were present for the event.

The Urban Seminar's overall goal is to seek to prepare persons for Christian mission and ministry in an urbanizing society, including North Carolina. Twenty-eight theological students and pastors attended the seminar held July 5 through July 30 in cooperation with Southeastern Seminary and the Home Mission Board. Thomas A. Bland, professor, directed the cooperative event. Each student prepared a written paper on the urban work in the Research Triangle area. This was an outstanding ministry in research and field ministry.

The Shopping Center ministry continues to grow in the North Hills and Crabtree Valley Malls (Raleigh) in ministering to shoppers and employees. New achievements have been made in stabilizing this vital ministry.

Pastoral Aid assisted 39 churches with pastoral assistance in the approximate amount of $43,419. The following statistics reveal some accomplishments of the work: sermons preached, 3,342; other addresses, 1,137; visits, 8,161; baptisms, 279; additions by letter, 402; conversions, 228; restorations, 21; church membership, 3,854.

Lot Aid assisted 15 churches with lot aid assistance amounting to $29,000.

Christian Social Ministries

Associational Christian Social Ministries--There are ten full-time associational Christian Social Ministries programs. They are cooperatively approved by the Home Mission Board and the following associations: Central, Dan Valley, New River, New South River, Gaston, Mecklenburg, Raleigh, Pilot Mountain and Wilmington. In addition to the ten full-time there are six part-time Youth and Family Services ministers. These directors promote work in the following areas:

(1) Church Community Weekday Ministries--This ministry involves the preschooler and continues through the aged.

(2) The Baptist Center program--Centers and modified centers can adopt this program to meet the needs of contemporary life.

(3) Youth and Family Services--This program is designed to assist troubled youth and their families. This ministry majors on the youth in conflict and their families. Often many of these families are troubled with addiction, alcoholics or ex-prisoners.

(4) Literacy--The literacy work is designed to reach the non-reader and the functional nonreader in our State. (According to the 1970 census report, there are approximately 280,000 such adults (25 and up) in the State.) Coupled with this literacy approach is a helping ministry for the youth underachiever in school with a tutoring ministry.

A summer reaching enrichment program was held in the South Yadkin Association this year with approximately 200 youth enrolled for six weeks.

(5) Migrant--The migrant travels primarily in the agricultural areas of our state harvesting crops and moving on to new areas of work. Approximately 12-to 15,000 pass through North Carolina annually.

(6) Disaster Relief--This phase of Christian Social Ministry is designed to assist in emergency needs in the time of disaster.

The General Board has appointed a staff committee to assist in the time of disaster. It is composed of Ernest C. Upchurch, chairman; Edwin Bullock, Brotherhood Department; and Roy Smith, Town and Country Department.

Baptist Centers--The Baptist Center programs in Eden and Raleigh have had wonderful ministries this year. Camping programs at the Dan Valley Baptist Center are the highlights of the year. Forty-four were enrolled in the overnight camp (from Wednesday through Sunday) closing with 106 attending the Sunday worship service. The parents and community were invited for the worship service.

The young people are manifesting a greater desire for Bible study and spiritual emphasis.

The Raleigh Baptist Center revised its program during the year. Mrs. Nancy Gray, Director, resigned in mid-year.

Youth And Family Service--The following associations have part-time Youth and Family Service directors: Catawba River, Joe Church; Central, vacant; Kings Mountain, Dean Coffey; Mt. Zion, vacant; South Yadkin, R.C. Johnson; Flat River, Earl Howard. These work as church-related liaison men with the district courts to counsel and assist youth in trouble.

Interfaith Witness

The Intefaitth Witness is a cooperative ministry with the Home Mission Board and with churches and associations. It is designed as a Christian ministry of dialogue with other faiths and internationals in our State.

One outstanding event this year was the Baptist-Jewish Weekend Conference held at Wild Acres Retreat at Little Switzerland. Approximately forty couples, Baptist and Jewish, shared their faith in dialogue, prayer and worship during the weekend retreat.

A training session for Interfaith associates was held at Caraway in the spring. In August a meaningful conference was held at First Church, Waynesville in cooperation with the Haywood Association and the Home Mission board. Over 100 people studied the faith of Jehovah's Witnesses and the Latter Day Saints.

Town and Country Missions/ Seminary Extension

The Town and Country Missions/Seminary Extension Department is a mission ministry with numerous objectives and responsibilities: (1) work with associations and churches in discovering and meeting mission needs; (2) work with the 2,700 small town and rural churches; (3) promote the statewide ministries of Seminary Extension and the Week of Fellowship and Study at Mars Hill College; (4) develop a comprehensive mountain mission ministry; (5) develop and coordinate a statewide ministry of resort missions; and (6) assist churches in the associations in determining the needs and methods of church extension.

The Rural-Urban Department and the Missions Department of the Home Mission Board and the Seminary Extension Division of the Southern Baptist Convention participate in the ministry of the Department.

Seminary Extension

The Seminary Extension program continues to be an effective tool for pastoral training, lay leadership development, and continuing education for church leaders. During the past year, North Carolina lead the Southern Baptist Convention in the number of centers and the number of students enrolled. There were 1,750 students enrolled in 48 centers across the state. Financial assistance is provided by the Department in the form of teachers' honoraria and scholarship for students.

Pastoral Aid - Lot Aid

Fifty-five churches and missions in 31 associations received $46,690 in pastoral aid during 1976. Twelve of these mission pastors are students and four are serving fields of two or more churches.

Eleven churches in eight associations received $12,000 in aid on the purchase of church lots. These mission grants ranged from $750 to $1500.

In the allocation of mission funds, priority is given to churches joining together in a field of work, student-pastors, and churches with unusual missionary opportunities.

Resort Missions

Thirty-two students served as resort missionaries in North Carolina during this past summer. Baptist-sponsored ministries were conducted in 88 resorts from Cheoah Association in the mountains to Kitty Hawk on the Outer Banks. The Home Mission Board appointed ten student-missionaries who worked in North Carolina this year. In addition to these special summer missionaries, pastors and other church staff, associational directors of missions, and the lay leaders served in various capacities.

Ministries are varied and flexible, including coffee houses, folk musicals, drama, puppetry, day camping, group movies as well as the more traditional worship services.

Week Of Christian Study And Fellowship

A capacity enrollment of more than 500 people attended the annual Week of Christian Study and Fellowship at Mars Hill College, July 5-9, 1976. Worship, Bible study, fellowship and relaxation are the emphases of the week. Planned activities are provided for pastors, pastors' wives and each age group, birth through senior high.

Quentin Perreault, former campus minister at UNC-Charlotte and presently associate in the Department, will take disability retirement effective December 31, 1976. Area missionaries in the Department include Luther Osment, Sylva and Jim Lambert, Boone.

Roy Smith, director

Fruitland Baptist Bible Institute

The new full year schedule of four, 11 week quarters has proven a good move. For each of the four quarters, there has been more than 200 students enrolled. As expected, some of the faculty members will take a leave of absence for one or more quarters each year. The school is fortunate in having Dr. and Mrs. A.C. Miller as resident missionaries with ability to substitute in practically any of the courses. When Kenneth Ridings took a leave for the fourth quarter, Thad Dowdle, pastor, College Avenue Church, Lenoir agreed to teach homiletics.

Continuing education programs for faculty members have been proposed as a means of improving the quality of learning at Fruitland when funds are available. Even without the hoped for budget item, several teachers are involved in further education. C.M. King attended a summer session at Southeastern Seminary with a McClure Foundation Scholarship. Six staff members are taking Education 538 (How Adults Learn), a three semester hour course from North Carolina State University offered at UNC-Asheville by Curtis Trent.

A major change in the operation of the school has been the move from full time employees to student labor. This program helps students who need scholarship aid. It gets more work done for the same expenditures. The work is of a higher quality because the students care about the school. Since there are students skilled in many trades, fewer professional people have to be called in. Though the program is relatively new, it seems to be successful.

Mars Hill College is offering continuing education program courses on the campus which will help men with college ability earn credits toward their college degree. This is done by the college without affecting any change in the purpose and program of the Institute. The only thing Fruitland provides is space for the courses. Local citizens and alumni are encouraged to take advantage of this program. Interested people should contact Mars Hill College.

Deaf Ministries

This has been an encouraging year. We have seen spiritual growth on the part of many deaf people and the continued response of dedicated lay-workers, both hearing and deaf, continues to be heart-warming. Our Teacher and Interpreter Conference at Caraway was the best we have ever experienced. Our Youth Retreat, held at the same time as the Teacher and Interpreter Conference on the same grounds, was a spiritual victory. Sixty-six deaf youth attended with twenty-two making decisions for Christ.

We have never seen interest as high in the deaf people and their problems as it is at present. More people are interested in learning sign language than ever before. More churches are meeting the spiritual needs of the deaf than ever before. This is Deaf Awareness Year, but we believe that Baptists in North Carolina have been aware of the deaf and their needs for many years- and have prayed for them. No wonder, then, that 1976 has been such a wonderful year in the Deaf Ministries Department- and 1977 should be even better!

Jerry F. Potter, director

Cooperative Ministries with General Baptists

Members of the Baptist State Convention and the General Baptist State Convention of N.C., continue to seek ways whereby they can strengthen their Christian witness together. Racial differences are not resolved, but there are additional problems that compound the difficulties in cooperation. Organizational structures, power blocks, jealousies, pride, apathy, and certain cultural peculiarities must be overcome before North Carolina Baptists can present the gospel in a united effort.

Although more could be done, the people associated with the Department of Cooperative Ministries have attempted to add quality and quantity to their ministry during this past year. Some of the programs and ministries are listed below.

New Staff Members--A highlight for this year was the employment of Priscilla A. Brodie as Academic Church Development Specialist and Assistant Professor at Shaw Divinity School. She began her duties in May, 1976, co-sponsored by the Divinity School and the Department of Cooperative Ministries. Along with teaching responsibilities on the campus, Dr. Brodie will be teaching seminary extension courses in churches and elsewhere.

The faithful services of our office secretary, Mrs. Mary Washington, were terminated when she resigned in December. We were happy to welcome Mrs. Rebecca Scott who took her place in January. Mrs. Scott is eager to assist Baptists in North Carolina in their cooperative efforts.

The Summer Youth Program--The program reached some exciting goals this year. Thirty-two people were appointed, primarily college students, who served in 15 places throughout the state.

Student Aid Fund--During this past year scholarships were secured for 24 black Baptist students totaling $10,075. They were enrolled in the following schools: Shaw University and Divinity School, Southeastern Theological Seminary, Duke University, Virginia Union University, Campbell College, University of Denver, Hardbarger Business College, and Saint Augustine's College.

Again the Department is indebted to Southeastern Seminary for providing some much needed matching funds. The Department has arranged with Campbell College for a limited amount of matching funds for black students who choose to attend that institution. Hopefully, other Baptist schools will follow this example.

The Baptist Informer--This state newspaper continued to grow as a vital means of communication for the General Baptist State Convention. The Department was instrumental in obtaining a contract from the Baptist Sunday School Board to purchase $600 worth of advertising during the next 12 months.

Seminary Extension Centers--A total of 148 pastors and lay persons were enrolled in courses arranged by the Department in Rocky Mount, Tarboro, Winston-Salem, and Asheville. An arrangement has been made whereby credit for these courses may be transferred to a new Christian Vocations Certificate with the Shaw Divinity School. The Department is interested in establishing more centers throughout the state. The Woman's Home and Foreign Missionary Convention (General Baptists) has been instrumental in making these classes possible.

Literature And Promotion

The preparation, publication, and distribution of 2,500 copies of the General Baptist Diary - 1976, was a successful joint project with the General Baptist State Convention.

Thousands of copies of scripture and other related literature were distributed in an effort to promote Christian brotherhood, religious education, evangelism, stewardship, and Bible study.

Special Projects

The Department joined with the General Baptist State Convention and other members of an interfaith committee to sponsor a seminary student in initiating a part-time ministry for about 100 residents of Soul City, N.C.

The Department assisted with sponsoring a pastor who serves the residents at the Migrant Training Center at Rich Square, N.C.

Campus Ministry Work--Again this year, the Department continued to share in a program of campus ministry at Shaw University, Raleigh; N.C. Central University, Durham; and A&T University, Greensboro.

Conferences And Meetings

As a joint project with the General Baptist State Convention, the Department co-sponsored 62 people who attended a state-wide Vacation Bible School Clinic at Wingate College. During 1977 three regional clinics will be held at conference centers near Southport, Asheboro, and Black Mountain.

A training program was conducted in June for summer workers during Youth Orientation Week at Gardner-Webb College.

Insurance And Annuity

The retirement years can be as colorful and joyous as a parade. Unfortunately, they can also be hectic and dreaded days filled with unhappiness, fear, loneliness, and even bitterness. This is very true for Southern Baptist ministers and other church employees.

The difference depends upon how the individual and the church have planned for that person as he walks through the retirement door. One way to describe the Southern Baptist Convention's Annuity Board and the North Carolina Baptist Insurance and Annuity Department is - "Helping Hands." This is a ministry of helping prepare not only for the years of active service but for those years of retirement which should be very happy and fulfilled years.

The Board has plans for pastors and other staff members in the local churches, as well as employees of Baptist hospitals, colleges, homes for children, and homes for the aging.

Through the Board's programs Baptist State Conventions place more than $4 million in Cooperative Program funds to undergird retirement programs for ministers. The Baptist State Convention contributes a $200 maximum per year per individual participating in the Family Benefit Section of the Southern Baptist Retirement Program. Since ten percent of the first $4,000 of an individual's salary per year will provide only a base for retirement income, it is imperative that churches realize the urgency of providing ten percent participation based on the full compensation in order to make retirement income adequate. (Contributions above the $4,000 level do not include funds from State Conventions.)

Recently, the Annuity Board's "Helping Hands" have been busy fashioning a strong new church retirement program for pastors and other employees. The new program is more realistic for Southern Baptist church employees retiring into today's society. In the new program the Board recommends that the church pay ten percent of the member's annual salary plus housing and utility compensation. The new retirement program will be inaugurated January 1, 1978. During 1977 each participant in the Family Benefit Section (Plan A) will have the opportunity of staying with his present contract in Plan A or transferring to the new retirement program effective January 1, 1978. Also, during 1977, each participant in the Family Benefit Section will receive two projections on his member statement: One projection will give him his benefits if he stays in his current plan; the other projection will be his benefit if he transfers to the new retirement program.

Since the Annuity Board was organized in 1918, every innovation and change from that date to the present has been for the individual participant and thereby increased his benefits. The Annuity Board, located in Dallas, Texas, also administers life, health, and disability insurance programs for persons serving churches and agencies. The insurance program is underwritten by Aetna Life Insurance Company. There are 20,704 churches and associations with 27,974 employees currently participating in the Southern Baptist Protection Program (nationwide). In North Carolina there are 2,138 churches and associations participating with 2,654 employees participating. The following Baptist agencies in North Carolina participate in the retirement program:

- Baptist State Convention of North Carolina General Board
- Biblical Recorder
- North Carolina Baptist Foundation
- Baptist Children's Homes of North Carolina
- North Carolina Homes, (homes for the aging)
- North Carolina Baptist Hospitals
- Campbell College
- Chowan College
- Gardner-Webb College
- Meredith College
- Wake Forest University
- Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary

Sam H. O'Neal, director

Communications (A.J. Fletcher Baptist Communications Center)

The Communications Department promotes the total Baptist program through the divisions and departments of the General Board, convention institutions and agencies, and individual churches and associations.

Audio Visuals

During the past year, the Department booked 12,144 free rental films and filmstrips, and turned down 3,924 because films were already booked for desired dates. The Department encourages planning for a basic film library of audio-visuals at both associational and church levels, with supplementary titles provided by the Department library. At present, this library has over 2600 different filmstrip titles and more than 117 motion picture titles. The Department provides a complete catalogue to churches which contains all film and filmstrip titles, audio tapes and video cassettes.

Among the films produced this year are a 103 slide set with audio cassette narration on the Institutions and Agencies of the Baptist State Convention and a 159 slide set with audio cassette narration titled Mission Panorama, depicting the state mission ministries of North Carolina Baptists.

Communications and Sight and Sound Conferences

More than 35 sight and sound conferences were held this year to assist churches in improving sound systems, lighting, and in many cases, to provide special sound systems for the deaf. A number of churches and associations are entering the area of video cassette usage for teaching-training and scheduled conferences with Department personnel as well. Conferences were held in the following associations: Buncombe, Mecklenburg, Yates, New South River, Raleigh, Flat River, Mt. Zion, Tuckasegee, Haywood, Wilmington, Catawba River, Chowan, Dan Valley, North Roanoke, Gaston, South Roanoke, and Central, and at Gardner-Webb College and Fruitland Baptist Bible Institute.

As the tape ministry becomes an integral part of the local church outreach to the homebound, an increasing number of messages are reproduced by the Department. More than 4,800 messages were reproduced this year with messages from the Conference on Evangelism, WMU Annual Session, Church Music Weeks at Caswell, Baptist State Convention, and the Pastor's Conference.

Television And Radio

The Department continues to work closely with the radio and television stations in North Carolina, providing Baptist programs to approximately 100 radio stations and seven commercial television stations. The network series, "Light Unto My Path", a pioneer ministry produced in cooperation with Deaf Ministries, is designed to meet the needs of the deaf, the aging and unchurched. The statewide network of stations carrying this program includes: WRAL-TV, Raleigh; WLOS-TV, Asheville; WFMY-TV, Greensboro; WBT-TV, Charlotte; and WNCT-TV, Greenville. Also providing coverage for North Carolina are WIS-TV, Columbia, S.C. and WBTW-TV, Florence, S.C. The series is carried on 12 other stations in nine states, sponsored by a church or convention in that state.

Other productions for commercial television include "Listen America!", produced in 13 segments each year; "Bible Story Time", a weekly program for pre-schoolers; "Light For Living", a daily devotional series currently on six North Carolina stations, and "Church Of Our Fathers", a weekly program featuring choirs, church news and guest interviews.

Special productions for the year include "Alcoholism, A Search For Help", which was carried on three commercial television, two cablevision and 26 radio stations; "Songs Of the Yuletide Season", which featured six of the Baptist colleges with a total of ten television, nine cablevision and 96 radio station outlets. "I Love America" was produced in commemoration of the Bicentennial and was shown on WRAL-TV, Raleigh, cablevision, in Raleigh and is scheduled for showing on Thanksgiving Day on WCCB-TV, Charlotte.

Programs produced for cablevision and for church and associational use include "Guide For Living", weekly Bible teaching series; "International Bible Lesson"; and a continuing series of missionary interviews, resort mission team ministries, and a series of general topics produced under the generic title, "Open House". A 12 segment series on Romans was produced under the "Guide For Living" format in support of January Bible Study for 1977. A weekly program which includes the weekly Sunday School lesson and an OPEN HOUSE segment is used regularly by the Wayne Memorial Hospital, Goldsboro, in cooperation with the Chaplaincy Department. Segments on resort area ministries were produced in cooperation with the Town and Country Missions as were video cassettes made in cooperation with Campus Ministry, WMU, and Stewardship. The Department produced special programs for the Foreign Mission Board, "Total Mission Thrust, Now!", and for the Virginia General Association, "Guide For Living".

Jimmy Morriss, director

Evangelism

There was an increase in baptisms during 1975 to a total number of 30,430. During 1971-75 the Baptist State Convention had 151,366 total baptisms reported by the churches, which was the largest five year total number of baptisms for any five year period since before 1960. Also, the number of churches reporting no baptisms decreased by 112 churches this past year from 689 churches to 577. It is our prayer and concern that more persons may be reached for Christ during the coming year.

30th Statewide Evangelism Conference

"Freedom in Christ" was the theme of the 30th Statewide Evangelism Conference at the Civic Center Auditorium, Asheville, February 2-4, 1976. An overflow crowd of 2,600 pastors and lay persons attended this conference. B.E. Morris of Charlotte served as Honorary Chairman.

Some of the speakers were W.A. Criswell, pastor, First Church, Dallas; Lewis A. Drummond, professor, Billy Graham Chair of Evangelism, Southern Seminary, Louisville; Charles G. Fuller, pastor, First Church, Roanoke; John F. Havlik, director, Department of Evangelism Materials and Services, Home Mission Board, Atlanta; Stephen F. Olford, minister at large, Encounter Ministries, Inc., Holmes Beach, Florida; Frederick G. Sampson, pastor, Tabernacle Church, Detroit; Arnie Robertson, evangelist, Greensboro; and Thomas E. Corts, president, Wingate College, Wingate, North Carolina. Jo Ann Shelton was guest soloist and Loeen Bushman was guest pianist, both from Forth Worth, Texas.

Youth Ministry Week

Over 525 youth and adults were present for the Youth Ministry Week at the North Carolina Baptist Assembly during June 14-18, 1976 with the emphasis on youth evangelism, vocational guidance, and recreation. Fifty-three youth made various types of public decisions for Christ during this week.

Summer Youth Evangelism Teams

The Holy Spirit blessed the ministry of our two Summer Youth Evangelism Teams. Each team consisted of three college students. The team members were Bobby Setzer, Kathy Ray, Sharyn McCarson, and Jackie Millwood, Karen Hinton, Cathi Graham. These students led the music, preached in youth revival services, directed youth witness-training, and participated with youth in witnessing visitation in the homes in eighteen churches across the state for a one week period in each church. There was an excellent response to the work of the team members in these churches. Also, youth and adults made public decisions for Christ during the youth revival services this summer.

6th Statewide Youth Evangelism Night

Over 12,000 youth, pastors, and adult youth leaders attended the 6th Statewide Youth Evangelism Night on August 13, 1976 at the Greensboro Coliseum. Barry Wood of Lubbock, Texas was the guest preacher, and Larry McFadden of Gainesville, Florida was the guest soloist. Others on the program were Cecil A. Ray, general secretary, Baptist State Convention; and three student summer workers - Katie Hatcher, Ollis Mozon, Jr., and Bobby Setzer. Larry Keesler of Kernersville was guest pianist and Mrs. Mel Luther of Durham was guest organist. Richard W. Everett, associate, Division of Evangelism, presided during the youth night service. Four hundred and twenty-two youth made different types of public decisions for Christ during this service. Follow-up work is always assigned to pastors with regard to all youth who made decisions from communities across our state. In the past six years, during the six nights of the Statewide Youth Evangelism Night, over 82,000 youth, pastors, and adult youth leaders have attended.

Tract Ministry

Our office continues to mail out over 300,000 various free evangelistic tracts each year, upon the request of hundreds of churches across the state.

Lay Evangelism Schools

Since November 1, 1971 over 14,300 youth, adults, and pastors have shared in Lay Evangelism Schools, Monday through Thursday, from 1,152 churches in 63 associations. There were 892 professions of faith reported in the homes during the witnessing visits on the 63 Thursday evenings of these schools. Youth and adults are challenged to be involved in a continuing ministry of witnessing, with additional church members invited to participate in witnessing visitation every three months. We are grateful to directors of associational missions and chairmen of evangelism for their preparations with regard to these Lay Evangelism Schools across our state.

Growth Evangelism

The Division of Evangelism mailed all pastors the booklet: "Growth Evangelism: An Evangelism Planning Calendar for Pastors of churches - 1976-77." There are excellent suggestions for various evangelism programs for the local church, including C.A.R.E. Revivals for 1977. With these guidelines pastors and church leaders can outline a program of evangelistic thrust for their churches during the coming new year.

Renewal Evangelism

The Division of Evangelism is continuing to cooperate with the Brotherhood Department in Lay Renewal Weekends and Ministry Evangelism Weekends. The total emphasis is on "Journey Into Lifestyle Evangelism and Ministry". Pastors and directors of missions, who are serving as associate/consultants in renewal, have assisted pastors and church leaders in consultation meetings in churches that had over 25 Lay Renewal Weekends last year.

Youth Evangelism Strategy

A new area of work for local churches will be Youth Evangelism Strategy with an emphasis on four phases: Leadership Family; Touch Ministry; Discipleship Groups; and Sharing Ministry which includes Joy Explosion. W.O.W. - Win Our World - is included in this strategy and involves specific witness training for youth.

Revivals And Clinics

Excellent reports have been made during the past months with regard to Associational Evangelism Clinics, City-wide Crusades, and Church Revival meetings in cities and communities across our state.

William Lamb, director

Christian Life and Public Affairs

Salt. Light. Leaven. Words used by Jesus to describe his followers. Christians are to influence the world in which they live. Jesus prayed that his disciples would not be taken from this world (John 17:15). People of God are to live out their faith transforming their culture, and helping the Will of God be done on earth as in heaven. The Council on Christian Life and Public Affairs has attempted to influence the people of North Carolina through the following activities:

Conferences

Youth Ministers. The Council co-sponsored a conference with Youth Ministry for youth ministers. An attempt was made to sharpen the skills and insight of those who work day in and day out with teenagers.

Single adults. The Single Adult Conference in Charlotte attracted over 500 singles. An effort was made to provide Christian fellowship, and insight regarding the concerns of adults who are not married.

Research, Resource, Referral

Many resources, periodicals, journals, books and newspapers, etc. are read, clipped and filed into over 200 categories. This file information is available on specific topics upon request.

Literature

The Council prints 21 tracts pertaining to family life. Approximately 200,000 copies of these tracts were distributed in 1975. Six tracts were published on citizenship and over 100,000 copies of the materials were distributed among North Carolina Baptists. (In addition, over 8000 books and 40,000 other pieces of literature were shared with church leaders relative to applied Christianity.)

Citizenship

Efforts were made encouraging North Carolina Baptists to take their citizenship seriously. Each pastor received a citizenship resource packet designed to emphasize both America's bicentennial and Christian involvement in government. The low voter response during this year's election is a serious commentary on Christian involvement in the political process.

The 1977 General Assembly will be concerned with a number of moral issues that should interest North Carolina Baptists. For Christians to do nothing insures both a secularization and deterioration of the quality of life for North Carolinians.

Issues of Concern

Two of America's most influential institutions, the home and government, are in crisis. While the Council is assigned the entire gamut of social issues, these two primary institutions will be emphasized in this report.

Family

Last year over one million American couples divorced. There were 42.8 divorces for every 100 marriages. In North Carolina for every 100 marriages there were in 1975, there were 52.2 divorces.

This family fragmentation has resulted in 10 million children living with only one parent. (In fact, 12.5 percent of all families have a female as head of the household.) Conversely, runaway wives and mothers have become a common occurrence. American parents murder 50,000 children each year (child abuse, etc.) and between 200,000 and 300,000 children either run away from home or are "thrown away" by their parents. Unfortunately, abortion has become an accepted form of birth control. While some abortions are justified, the wholesale taking of fetal life tends to cheapen all life.

Medical service has prolonged life and inadvertently created family tension. Decisions regarding what to do regarding aged parents are complex and often painful.

"Living together" unmarried has become a way of life for both the young and old. Commitment to marriage has waned.

Pornography abounds and is probably the chief source of family and sex education in America. Pornography is usually unhealthy, negative, inaccurate, and unchristian. This misinformation must be countered with accurate, healthy, positive and Christian views of sexuality and the home.

The preceding trends have made an impact on Christian families. Ministers state that never in the history of their ministry have so many good church families been fragmented.

The Baptist State Convention is responding to these crises. One response has been the creation of the Department of Christian Family Life within the Council. (W. Douglas Cole will assume directorship of this department January 1, 1977.)

The Council urges North Carolina Baptist churches to utilize their available resources to emphasize ministries providing both family enrichment and crises help. Suggested emphases include:

Sex Education Programs. Human sexuality is one of God's good gifts to both males and females. This message needs to be told to both adults and youths. Programs should be designed to (1) help adults understand their own sexuality; (2) instruct parents on teaching their children these truths; and (3) provide instruction for teenagers who often are unable and unwilling to discuss such concerns with parents. The major thrust of Christian Sex Education should be upon relationships, responsibilities, and attitudes.

Premarital Preparation. Efforts must be made to help people know what to look for in a mate. Bad dating produces bad marriages. Thus, efforts should be made to prepare persons for marriage. Premarital preparation should include more than an hour or so with a minister. Community resources such as physicians, lawyers, counselors, happily married couples, etc. should also be utilized.

Family Enrichment Programs. Many churches are sponsoring family life workshops, conferences, revivals, and retreats. Efforts should be made to help families grow and develop strength which will enable them to withstand crises.

Single Adult Ministry. Over 30 percent of everyone over 18 years of age is unmarried. These 42 million American adults are generally overlooked by churches. Efforts must be made to include in the church family the divorced, widowed, and never married.

Practical Family Crises Ministry. Family crises are legion. The church should take seriously its responsibility to meet specific human hurts. It is immoral to say, "Let me know if there is anything I can do," when one knows what to do. Helping divorcees find jobs, child-care, places to live and worship are examples of practical ministry.

Provide a total family Emphasis. The entire spectrum of family must be considered. This spectrum would include children, teenagers, young adults, middle aged adults, senior citizens, single adults, families with exceptional children, etc. Avoid concentrating on one segment to the exclusion of others. Attempt to meet the familial needs of the entire congregation.

Utilize Existing Resources. The Council, School of Pastoral Care, (Baptist Hospital), and Baptist Sunday School Board etc. all provide excellent family life materials and programs. In addition, many associations sponsor family life emphases. Churches are encouraged to utilize and publicize responsible available resources.

There are four basic reasons why Baptists should take the political process seriously and become involved.

Matthew 10:16-20; 17; 22:21; 39.	I Timothy 2:1-2.
Luke 10:29-37; 20:25.	Titus 3:1.
John 17: 15; 19:10-11.	I Peter 2:13-17.
Acts 5:29.	Rev. 13.
Romans 13:1-7.	Psalms 72:1-2; 12-14.
I Corin. 15:24.	Proverbs 14:34; 21:1-3.
Galatians 5:1.	Daniel 2:44; 3:10-11, 16-18.
Phil. 3:20.	Michah 6:8.

If the Bible is taken seriously, then the Biblical injunctions to be involved cannot be ignored.

Second, the life of every North Carolinian will be radically affected by the decisions of the 120 representatives and 50 senators who comprise the General Assembly. Local officials will make similar decisions for communities and counties. It is illogical for one to give such power to another and never become involved with who that person is or what he does. More importantly, Jesus is Lord of all of life. If political decisions affect life, then that becomes Jesus' business and consequently that of his disciples.

Third, Christians should be involved because about the only thing which can be legislated is morality. Morality is right conduct or action. Do not most laws, if not all, deal with conduct and responsibility? Since Christians are concerned about right actions and lifestyle, they should work for laws and officials which reflect Christian values. Obviously Christians should seek to influence government, not dominate it. While safeguards must be made to avoid forcing narrow sectarian beliefs of a few upon the majority broad religious concepts such as justice are vital ingredients in the life of any citizen.

Fourth, Baptists ought to be involved in the political process because it is one, among many, ways of doing the work of God. Political decisions can reflect justice, mercy, compassion, love and concern for human dignity and life. Much to our shame of racial injustice was and is primarily a political decision rather than an ecclesiastical one.

Realizing the complexity of legislative bills and of moral issues, the Council suggests that North Carolina Baptists become involved in the following statewide issues in 1976:

Tax Reform. Loopholes which protect the rich and penalize the middle and lower classes should be eliminated. The entire tax structure of North Carolina should be reviewed and part of that revision should include repeal of one of the most regressive taxes, sales tax on food.

Penal Reform. Crowding 13,000 prisoners into accommodations for 10,000 is both dehumanizing and counterproductive. When humans are treated like animals, they become animals. Better facilities would provide more safety and privacy for the inmates and render management of inmates more feasible. Penal reform should include concern for the victims of crime. In addition, higher salaries and better training should be provided for those who work within the Department of Corrections. Reform should also include repeal of the death penalty. The Baptist State Convention has on two occasions - 1963 and 1974 - passed resolutions to this end. On one occasion when Jesus was asked his direct opinion about capital punishment (John 8:2-10), he recommended rehabilitation and mercy.

Welfare Reform. The deserving needy of this state need and deserve a helping hand. Those who abuse welfare programs are to be condemned. However, the abuse by a few should not prevent the deserving from receiving help. It is imperative that welfare programs reflect an adequate level of assistance, promote family solidarity, and be more uniform across the state.

Equal Rights Amendment. Equality under the law for both men and women is an idea whose time has come. The ERA is a tool which will help that idea become reality. Obviously, any law pushed to its extreme often becomes abusive. However, the basic concept and goals of the ERA are consistent with our concepts of justice, freedom, and responsibility.

Wages. North Carolina has next to the lowest industrial wage in the nation. Efforts should be made to encourage a person to give an honest day's work, and that that person receive an honest day's pay. Economic exploitation of North Carolina's wage earners must be exposed and eliminated. A specific concern is that churches and church related institutions give moral leadership by providing just wages for their employees.

Council Membership

Several Council members will conclude their terms of service this year. North Carolina Baptists are indebted to these who have served them well.

Stewardship and Cooperative Program Promotion

The personnel of the Department of Stewardship and Cooperative Program Promotion rejoice greatly when we see people and churches growing in the grace of giving. The cause of our rejoicing is in seeing people growing and seeing the needs of people met through the local church program, the associational program, and the Cooperative Program. The work of this department during the past twelve months may be divided as follows:

Leaflets

Ten new leaflets were developed and distributed to more than 900,000 people. Also, three different posters were printed and distributed to over 17,000, plus distributing almost 65,000 programs and program related pieces (67 different titles) concerning stewardship and the Cooperative Program. Except for a sample copy, all copies have been requested by our people.

Workshops

Eleven associational and 31 local church workshops were held dealing primarily with budget preparation (including pastors' and staff salaries); the promotion of the budget plus increased tithers and the giving of a report showing where the churches stand in their goals of Cooperative Program giving.

Mission Advance Workshops were held for the pastor and treasurer of each church in 14 associations. A speaker was secured on the Cooperative Program the following Sunday in each church requesting this service.

Workshops on individual stewardship were held in nine different churches: (1) educational materials for the formative years; (2) stewardship materials to aid the family in the busy working years; and (3) the stewardship responsibility of each person for his estate.

Church Programs and Reports

Church programs and reports to the churches were made through:

Mailing a division of the Cooperative Program dollar leaflet and poster to each church around the first of the year.

A thank-you letter from the General Secretary-Treasurer to those churches increasing Cooperative Program giving by the suggested amount in the previous year.

A program and supporting materials on the Cooperative Program for the April Cooperative Program Day.

Materials and programs, including leaflets and posters for October Cooperative Program Prayer Month.

A stewardship up-date page in the Church Leader.

Printing the leading church in each association in total dollars given through the Cooperative Program, total dollars per capita through the Cooperative Program and the leading church in percentage given through the Cooperative Program of its total budget receipts.

Letter to treasurers with carbon copy to pastors.

Personal letter to each pastor accepting a new church.

Help From The Ten Baptist Institutions

With the cooperation of the leaders of the ten Baptist institutions (six colleges, one university, Baptist Children's Homes, N.C. Baptist Homes, and Baptist Hospital) services were offered to one or more of the leaders in the churches of two associations for each institution. Each of these colleges, university, and three benevolent institutions used their talents and time to benefit the churches in twenty associations.

Regional Consultants

The ten regional Cooperative Program consultants offered services to each association in their region. They offered services to each pastor's conference and each church in the State.

Without remuneration, these ten men met for two days for a workshop on Stewardship and the Cooperative Program to prepare themselves to offer the services referred to above.

The ten regional Cooperative Program consultants for 1976 were: Bennie Pledger, Colerain; Gordon Conklin, Greenville; David T. Mashburn, Sr., Lumberton; Lewis Beal, Buies Creek; Alfred Miller, High Point; Marion Parker, Troy; Fred D. Barnes, Lenoir; William J. Furr, Newton; Hugh Borders, Spruce Pine; and Willie M. Newman, Bryson City.

Associational and Convention Officers

Cooperative Program promotion through denominational officers included:

Furnishing quarterly report of Cooperative Program gifts by churches to one of these in each association who will mail them to each church.

Furnishing printer's proofs of Stewardship/Cooperative Program art.

Furnishing stencils of Stewardship/Cooperative Program art.

Furnishing a news item on Cooperative Program ministries each month.

Furnishing a report of Cooperative Program gifts by churches for each annual associational meeting.

Send a suggested annual Stewardship/Cooperative Program report for each association prior to its annual meeting.

Mailing directly to the churches the quarterly report in those associations where one of these officers does not do so.

Materials for World Mission Conferences.

Missionary-In-Residence

Missionary-In-Residence is a foreign missionary working in Stewardship during his furlough. His primary aim is to lead churches to increase their Cooperative Program giving.

Other Areas of Work

Requests of many churches desiring special help in the areas of stewardship and missions have been answered.

A number of great advances were made during the year, including: 1,126 churches increased Cooperative Program giving by 15 percent or more in 1975 over what they had contributed the previous year. Every church in the Flat River, Neuse, Tar River, and West Chowan associations contributed through the Cooperative Program during the calendar year of 1975.

Tom Greene, director

Public Relations

The Public Relations Department is directly responsible to the office of the general secretary-treasurer with specific responsibilities for the over-all promotion and publicity of General Board programs. The department also cooperates with the public relations offices of the convention's several institutions and agencies.

Public Relations includes the general editorial, design, and production of all printed materials related to General Board programs. The Department produces Church Leader (bimonthly newsletter), Baptist Diary (calendar and directory), and the Convention Annual. The Department also produces all materials related to the annual session (Book of Reports, messengers packets, etc.).

Public Relations prepares and distributes all General Board news releases for the Biblical Recorder and secular media. The Department's director, along with the editor of the Recorder, manage the convention news room during the annual session.

On June 1 of this year, the Department employed its first full-time photographer in a cooperative arrangement with the Biblical Recorder (one-half of salary paid by the Department and by the Recorder). Jimmy Allen, a 1976 graduate of Campbell College, serves in this newly created capacity.

William Boatwright, director

Pastor/Church Relations

The Pastor/Church Relations Department serves all churches and pastors desiring informational services. Pastor Selection Committees in greater numbers and from all size churches are requesting assistance. We are happily serving third and fourth generation Pastor Selection Committees in the same churches, thus indicating acceptance and utilization of these services at a crucial and strategic time in the life of any church. Pastors desiring the services of our office are assured of strict, confidential handling of all information.

In this election year, there has been a noticeable intensification of activity and movement among our churches and pastors. We are experiencing short-term pastorates and an unusually large amount of exchange.

Fourteen of the Southern Baptist State Conventions now provide an office of Pastor/Church Relations. North Carolina has pioneered in this venture since 1964.

The New Testament presents the "called" man of God, being called to the pastorate, to serve as the undershepherd, ministering to the needs and in the growth pilgrimage of all in a distinct relationship. Fewer situations hold the employee/employer concept. The pastor (shepherd) relationship is desired by most Pastor Selection Committees.

Robert Bruhn, director

Business Management

Nineteen hundred and seventy-six has been a busy year in the business office. A new staff member, J. Monroe Vaughn, began work on December 1, 1975 as associate to the business manager. His steadfast work has greatly aided the team that handles the financial matters for the Convention. During the year, the payroll account has been updated on the computer. The computer is proving to be a valuable addition in preparation of reports, checks, labels, etc. Plans are being completed to add the mailing list for the Biblical Recorder in the near future.

Factory Insurance Consultants of Wadesboro, North Carolina were hired to make the study of insurance needs of the Convention. They have given much needed advice, and savings in insurance programs have already been realized.

Recommendation Concerning Proposed Cooperative Program Budget For 1977

The General Board recommends a Cooperative Program Budget of $13,000,000 for 1977 and that allocations be made as follows: 33.66 percent to the Southern Baptist Convention; 25.30 percent to Christian Higher Education; 9.97 percent to Christian Social Services (Children's Homes, Homes for Aging, and Pastoral Care Department at the Baptist Hospital); and 31.07 percent to State Missions (Convention-wide) (includes supplement to Biblical Recorder and Foundation.)

Council Membership

North Carolina Baptists formed the Council on Christian Higher Education in 1944 in an effort to give guidance, emphasis, and support to the Baptist program of higher education. In 1945, the Convention amended its description of the Council's responsibilities by inserting the following sentence: "The Council shall have charge and control of the entire program of education in the colleges and schools of the Convention." The strength of the Council lies in a voluntary concept of cooperation among the schools, and between the colleges and the Convention.

The Council membership is made up of the following: presidents, academic deans, chairmen of boards of trustees of the colleges; and the General Board's Committee on Christian Higher Education. Ex-officio members of the Council are Cecil A. Ray, general secretary-treasurer, Baptist State Convention; Coy E. Privette, president, Baptist State Convention; Bob D. Shepherd, president, General Board, Baptist State Convention; and Mrs. J. Frank Gilreath, president, North Carolina Baptist Woman's Missionary Union.

The following new members from the General Board were elected last year to Council membership: Dwayne Campbell, Frank Campbell, Mrs. Yates Craig, W.A. Hough, E.E. Hunsinger, James O. Mattox, and Mrs. A.L. Parker.

Enduring Values Reaffirmed

Occasioned by the celebration of the bicentennial of our nation, North Carolina Baptist colleges joined similarly related colleges throughout the Southern Baptist Convention in the National Colloquium on Christian Education at Williamsburg, Virginia, June 9-14, 1976. These 53 colleges and universities, in concert with seminaries, Bible schools and academies, sounded anew the call to individuals and institutions for confession, repentance, rededication and the setting of new goals in Christian education.

Growing out of the meeting in Williamsburg, sponsored by the Southern Baptist Education Commission, were ten reaffirmations designed to guide the task of Baptist colleges. Two of the reaffirmations are included in the body of this report, as follows:

(1) OUR COVENANT RELATIONSHIP

As we look to the third century with confidence, we reaffirm our allegiance to the covenant relationship between our churches and our schools, a covenant which finds its unity in the purpose of God, the mind of Christ, the work of the Spirit, and the authority of the Scriptures, and which causes the churches and schools to work together in freedom and faithfulness.

We further reaffirm that providing Christian education is, for Baptists, not optional, because it is our response to the mandate of our Lord to know and to teach the truth, and to the clear intent of the Scriptures that God shall not be left without a witness to the minds of His children.

(2) CHRISTIAN ABSOLUTES

We reaffirm our belief that there are Christian absolutes which history does not change nor time erode.

We reaffirm that in obedience to the clear teachings of Jesus Christ, we have a responsibility for helping to guide the student in the development of Christian character.

We reaffirm our belief that a central duty of Christian higher education is to transmit Christian ethical and moral values both by precept and example.

We reaffirm our commitment to the Bible as the all-sufficient guide of faith and practice.

We reaffirm our belief that the Ten Commandments are not man made but God given, and that they cannot be modified or amended. We reaffirm our belief that when we view the Ten Commandments through the mind of Christ, they are not burdensome legal obligations but become guidelines for a joyous and fruitful way of life that has eternal significance.

Highlights of the Past Year

On February 27, 1976, E. Eugene Poston resigned as president of Gardner-Webb College, completing 15 years of significant leadership in that position. Dr. Poston led Gardner-Webb through its development from a junior college to a strong, fully accredited senior institution. The Council and Gardner-Webb College are indebted to Dr. Poston for his years of service to Christian higher education and to the Baptist State Convention.

On May 25, 1976, Wingate College received the unanimous approval of the Council to proceed with plans to offer baccalaureate degree work beginning in the fall of 1977. The General Board concurred with the Council's recommendation on July 14, 1976, in its meeting on the campus of Cambell College.

Craven Edward Williams became president of Gardner-Webb College on July 30, 1976. Dr. Williams, an ordained Baptist minister, came to the position from the vice presidency of Davidson College.

On August 5, 1976, the many friends of Budd E. Smith were saddened to learn of his death. Dr. Smith retired in June, 1974, after serving for 21 years as president of Wingate College, where he had been named President Emeritus. Dr. Smith was a friend of Baptist causes and a loyal supporter of Baptist colleges.

The 1976 fall semester marked the opening of the Campbell College Law School. Ninety-seven students comprised the beginning class. Leary Davis is dean of the Law School.

Baptist College Day

On Father's Day each year, the churches are requested to give emphasis to Baptist colleges and to receive an offering for student aid. Many churches invite college faculty and students to participate in worship services on or near Father's Day. The colleges are eager to furnish this kind of assistance to the churches at any time during the year. Pastors are encouraged to contact the individual schools or the Council office to arrange for college participation in the churches.

Interdepartmental Faculty Meetings

There are ten organizations for Baptist college faculty which meet once every two years. Jointly sponsored by the Council and the colleges, the meetings offer opportunities for growth and personal sharing among the professors teaching in related academic areas. There are 15 disciplines currently involved: business education; education; psychology; English; foreign languages; mathematics and natural science; music, art and dramatics; physical education and health; religion, philosophy and college chaplains; and social science.

The Importance of Baptist Students

The colleges make a special effort to recruit North Carolina Baptist students. In recent years, Baptist pastors have been especially helpful in furnishing the names and addresses of students for contact by the colleges. Churches can help their students and their colleges by encouraging interested young people to apply for enrollment in one of the seven North Carolina Baptist colleges.

The Cooperative Program

Baptist colleges are the grateful partners of North Carolina Baptists in Christian missions. As recipients of Cooperative Program support, the colleges express gratitude for financial generosity, and pledge anew a continuing commitment to those Christian values which we hold in common as servants of God.

Campbell College

On this Bicentennial Year, Campbell College is especially grateful for its mission in Christian education, and for its partnership with North Carolina Baptists. The college was pleased to end the year, 1975-76, in the black with a balanced budget, no small accomplishment when the economy was something less than robust. It could not have happened except for the sacrificial giving of Baptists through the Cooperative Program, and the splendid giving of other friends.

Upon entering the first year of the nation's third century, it seems appropriate to mention some of the many blessings of recent years. The college had an average gain in net worth of more than $1,000,000 for each of the past nine years. During this period the endowment increased from $790,000 to $5,100,000. The large amount of short-term, open note indebtedness incurred as the college moved to senior college status has been almost eliminated. In addition, the amount the student pays toward the cost of his education has been reduced to approximately 57 per cent, in contrast to the more than 70 per cent required only a few years ago.

During the summer, Campbell College welcomed more than 5,000 visitors to the campus. On July 13-14, the college was host to the meeting of the General Board of the Baptist State Convention. Many groups use the campus facilities each summer, providing opportunities for service to the larger community.

The year 1975-76 was a year of innovation for the college. This was especially true in two areas: the opening of the Law School in August, 1976, and the preparation for graduate programs in education and business. The graduate programs are scheduled for the fall of 1977. Response to the new programs has been gratifying. Feasibility studies confirm the need for the programs, and funding seems now to be assured.

One could not evaluate the past year without giving thanks for outstanding leadership in the campus religious programs. Each Sunday students leave the campus for places of service in the counties surrounding the college. Approximately 20 outreach teams, involving more than 100 students, served churches in North Carolina and the surrounding states. One of the choral groups appeared weekly on television. The choir and other performing groups were in constant demand. The Convention's Baptist Youth Corps program continues to attract many young people to serve in churches during the summer. The Baptist Student Union, directed by the Reverend and Mrs. Boyce Brooks, sponsored many activities. Among these were the Al Long Crusade, various fund raising drives for charities, and a series of weekly programs. The Baptist Student Union was a strong force on the campus and in the area.

Campbell regretted the loss of the services of John T. Bunn, Tyner Professor of Religion and chairman of the Department of Religion. Dr. Bunn returned to the pastorate, the First Church of Sylva, after serving the college for 14 years. The administration was fortunate in securing Jerry Wallace, pastor of the Elizabethtown Church, to head this department. Previously, Dr. Wallace served as a part-time member of the faculty. He has launched a number of new programs during his brief time as chairman and Tyner Professor of Religion. It seems likely that there will be a significant increase in the number of pre-ministerial students in the new year.

One of the highlights of the year was the publication of the history of Campbell College entitled Big Miracle of Little Buies Creek (1887-1974), by J. Winston Pearce. The history was presented to the public on Sunday, May 9, during the baccalaureate service. Dr. Pearce states, "I will be satisfied if this book communicates my sense of appreciation for those who have led the college and for those who were associated with them. The history reveals that the college still majors upon Campbell's historic emphases: great teachers, care for the individual, and Christian conviction."

The enrollment of qualified students is emphasized through an expanded admissions office operation. The report for the fall of 1976 represents a net increase of 86 full-time students, plus 97 attending the first year of the Law School. In its three graduations, Campbell awarded degrees to 397 persons during the past year.

Recent governmental studies indicate that the total replacement value of Campbell College now exceeds $40,000,000. The following statement of indebtedness is submitted by the business office:

Campbell College reaffirms its appreciation to the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina for generous financial support that comes through the Cooperative Program and the Baptist Scholarship Offering. Gratitude is expressed, also, for outstanding Baptist young people who attend the college. Campbell will strive to be worthy of the confidence reflected by North Carolina Baptists in their gifts and their youth.

Chowan College

The 129th year of Chowan College's service to North Carolina Baptists holds the promise of being one of the best in the history of the institution. Faculty-staff members began their preparation for the arrival of students with the annual Faculty Workshop, August 19-21. Major addresses were presented by Cecil A. Ray, general secretary-treasurer, Baptist State Convention of North Carolina; and Ben C. Fisher, executive secretary-treasurer, Education Commission of the Southern Baptist Convention. With the completion of fall registration, Chowan's enrollment for the fall semester was 1,060, an increase of 34 over the comparable figure for 1975.

The academic year 1975-76 was concluded with commencement exercises on Sunday, May 16, culminating in the awarding of degrees and diplomas to 207 candidates for graduation. The baccalaureate sermon was delivered by Frank R. Campbell, pastor, First Church, Statesville; graduation speaker was Charles B. Wade, senior vice-president, Reynolds Industries, Winston-Salem.

In addition to the regular programs throughout the academic year, the college community initiated its second ten-year self-study since attaining accreditation by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools in 1956. The self-study process involves a thorough analysis and evaluation of the educational program as encompassed by the purpose of Chowan as an institution of Christian higher education. It is anticipated that the self-study will be completed and Chowan's accreditation reaffirmed by the Southern Association in the winter of 1978.

Significant achievements have been made in the fiscal operation/management of Chowan during the past academic year. Of particular note is the fact that the institution operated in the black for the 18th consecutive year--on an operating budget in excess of $2,690,000. Apart from student revenues, two other sources of income deserve special mention and recognition in this regard: (1) Cooperative Program support received through Baptist churches co-operating with the Baptist State Convention; and (2) the Annual Giving Fund, deriving revenues in excess of $67,500--the goal set for the fiscal year. For the long-range future of the institution, it is especially gratifying to note that General Endowment Funds and assets serving as endowment passed the $1,000,000 mark during the fiscal year 1975-76. The comparable figure in 1957--at the beginning of the current administration--was less than $7,000.

1.	12/1/62	$ 550,000	3-1/2%	West Hall, Men's Dorm-216 beds	$ 424,000
2.	12/1/63	760,000	3-5/8%	Belk Hall, Women's Dorm-212 beds
				Thomas Cafeteria	635,000

3.	4/18/66	600,000	3%	Whitaker Library/Daniel Hall for Fine Arts	517,000
4.	1/3/69	175,000	6%	Land Acquisition	98,000
5.	5/28/69	975,000	3%	Parker Hall, Men's Dorm- 280 beds	925,000
6.	11/6/63	$1,105,000	3%	Camp Hall, Science Bldg.	737,800
				Total Indebtedness	$3,336,800
				Less Sinking Fund Reserves	1,221,433
				Net Indebtedness	$2,115,367

In the first two instances above, loans were made from the Department of Housing and Urban development, covering a 40-year period and carrying interest charges as indicated; each is self-liquidating. In the third instance, the loan was from the U.S. Office of Education. In the fifth instance, the loan was from the Department of Housing and Urban Development for purposes of constructing a new 280-bed dormitory for men. The loan for additional land is by arrangement with the original owner who, for tax purposes, would not agree to be paid other than over a period of 12 years; approximately 115 acres immediately adjacent to the campus is involved. In the sixth instance, Chowan was granted permission by the Convention to borrow $1,105,000 for purposes of constructing a new science-engineering facility which cost $1,300,000 equipped and including landscaping. The loan is from the Planters National Bank and Trust Company of Ahoskie, N.C.

The Board of Trustees has initiated plans for a campaign to provide funds for a gymnasium-physical education facility, critically needed to complete the basic plan of Chowan College.

We pause in this report on a note of sadness, mingled with gratitude, for the life and service of two trustees who have died since the report to the Convention in 1975:

W.A. ("Mr. Will") Thomas died on October 18, 1975, at the advanced age of 95. Mr. Thomas served as a member of the Board of Trustees: 1955-1958 and 1961-1964. He also served for six years as treasurer of the Board.

Donald Gilliam Matthews, Jr., whose untimely and tragic death on March 26, 1976 was especially difficult for his friends and loved ones. He served on the Board of Trustees: (1959-1962; 1964-1967; 1970-1973; and 1975-1976. He was a member of the Board's Executive Committee during each of his years as a trustee, save one. Mr. Matthews also served as general chairman for the successful Mission Possible Development Campaign--the largest capital gifts campaign throughout the history of the college.

Chowan College continues to be grateful for her long and honorable relationship to North Carolina Baptists. She desires to see that the full Baptist constituency is aware of her gratitude for what Baptists do for Chwan, and of the opportunities for Christian higher education which Baptists have in Chowan. The "Chowan Story", both of gratitude and opportunity, is related through joint endeavors in Cooperative Program/Stewardship promotion, through the availability of campus facilities for scheduling by church groups and agencies, and through a concerned effort to attract Baptist youth for her educational programs. Churches are invited to call upon the college for such services as might be available. Several members of the faculty-staff engage in pastoral supply work among the churches. Student groups are available for youth-to-youth emphases among the churches by contacting the chaplain of the college.

Gardner-Webb College

Founded in 1905 as an institution "where the young could have the best possible educational advantage under distinctive Christian influence," Gardner-Webb College continues to answer the growing education demands of today's young people. The school operated as a Baptist high school until 1928, when it became a junior college. The college continued to expand her role as an independent, Christian institution; and in 1971, was accredited as a senior college by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools.

Gardner-Webb has steadily built upon a solid foundation in the liberal arts, but with varied opportunities for pre-professional, career development. A highly qualified faculty and staff of 140 people exhibit sensitive concern for the individual, work closely with each student in providing personal guidance and counseling.

The college family faithfully adheres to the stated purpose: "To develop quality Christian students who will think for themselves and who will dedicate themselves to the Christian way of life in the vocation of their own choice."

A new president, Craven Edward Williams, began his first year of leadership as Gardner-Webb opened for the 1976-77 session. Dr. Williams was named the ninth president of the college on July 30, 1976, by the Board of Trustees. He replaced E. Eugene Poston, who resigned February 27, 1976, after serving as president for 15 years.

The enrollment of 1,361 for the 1976 fall semester reflects an increase of about 50 freshmen and transfer students over the previous year. Applications for admission to Gardner-Webb College also increased by the same number. Approximately 65 per cent of the student body is from North Carolina. More than 20 states and 13 foreign countries are represented among the student enrollment. In the area of student aid, 60.9 per cent of the students receive some type of financial assistance. It has long been the policy of the college to assist young people who desire the kind of Christian education Gardner-Webb provides.

In addition to the offerings in the arts and sciences, the college has developed strong four-year programs in business and teacher education. The college is pleased to report that it ranked sixth in the state among all colleges and universities in the percentage of graduates passing the State CPA examination, May, 1976. Gardner-Webb is particularly proud of its program in religious education. At present, 314 students are studying for church-related service. Of those, 159 have expressed a desire to enter the pastoral ministry. During the past summer, 153 students worked in 11 states in church-related vocational service.

The college also offers two-year programs in nursing, data processing and secretarial science, and has a four-year joint program in medical technology with the Bowman Gray School of Medicine and Charlotte Memorial Hospital.

Gardner-Webb College has consistently operated within its annual income. The present indebtedness on the physical plant is $1,196,041. This is being amortized monthly. The current budget is $4,410,631. In order to cope with rapidly accelerating expenses, the college operates under strict budget controls, and exercises other economy measures. Gardner-Webb enjoys a stable, financial position, due in part to the generous support of the Cooperative Program.

During the year, the college family was saddened by the deaths of two of her most esteemed faculty members: J. Thurman Lewis and Hubert C. Dixon. Dr. Lewis had served as academic dean three years and was professor of Biblical Languages and Religion at the time of his death. Mr. Dixon, a faculty member for 41 years, was professor of mathematics and chairman of the Department of Mathematics and Physics. During his career, Mr. Dixon held positions as dean, registrar and vice president of the college. The J. Thurman Lewis Chair of Biblical Studies and Semitic Languages, and the Hubert C. Dixon Mathematics Loan Fund, have been established in their memory.

Gardner-Webb College is proud to be one of the seven Baptist institutions of Christian Higher Education in the state and benefits greatly from its kinship with the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina.

Mars Hill College

A quotation in a publication by Mars Hill College best sums up our year 1975-76: "It's a bright, bold new day because we are reaffirming Mars Hill's long standing commitment to North Carolina Baptists. The college has made a significant contribution to Baptist life during the last century and a quarter, and the present faculty and staff are proud to be a part of the great Southern Baptist world missions outreach."

Two of the most innovative ideas implemented at the college during this year are the establishment of a Christian Education Ministries Center and a Missionary-in-Residence facility. As to the Center for Christian Education Ministries, Mars Hill College is offering to local churches direct assistance in Christian education. Located on the ground floor of the college cafeteria, the Center offers three types of service:

(1) Resources: Books and other materials are available for pastors, church leaders, and laymen in all phases of church life such as Sunday School, church training, missions, stewardship, leadership training, Bible study, worship, youth, family life, and Bible School. Baptist publications at all levels and varieties may be found in the Center for study and use. College students also have access to these materials, and find them useful resources for working with local churches.

(2) Teaching: Through the Center, short-term studies and workshops are planned by the director of the Center for the benefit of pastors, church leaders, and laymen.

(3) Leadership: Reaching out from the campus into surrounding areas, the director of the Center visits local churches when called upon to assist in various phases of Christian education. Partly sponsored by the Home Mission board and the Mission Ministries Division of the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina, the Center for Christian Education Ministries at Mars Hill College has at the heart of its mission the local church and its congregation.

The purpose of the Missionary-in-Residence Program at Mars Hill College is to give the students and the churches in the area exposure to worldwide missions. Ideally, a different country will be represented each year. This would give students maximum contact with mission emphases, different cultures, and those persons who are the leaders in the Southern Baptist missionary enterprise.

The missionary will have an office on campus and housing will be furnished. He will have the freedom and encouragement to participate in the academic program by attending faculty meetings and discussion groups. The missionary will work closely with the Department of Religion, perhaps leading a seminar in missions; he will work with the chaplain and the director of the Center for Christian Education Ministries. Since the missionary will be living on the campus, he will be available for conferences with students concerning career opportunities

Through the regular academic programs in both the fall and spring semesters, Mars Hill College enrolled 1,881 students. These students represented 26 states and two foreign countries. Within the student body, approximately sixty-five per cent of the young people expressed the Baptist denomination as their preference.

Through its outreach program, Mars Hill College established five rural education centers for adults who, otherwise, would not have an opportunity for a college education. Within this region, the college enrolled over 250 adult students in a variety of courses. It is anticipated that this program will continue to grow as presently enrolled adults demonstrate the viability of the program.

Mars Hill College was fortunate in receiving a bequest from the Fannie Dry Palmer Foundation in the amount of $525,000 which primarily went toward the construction of the Dickson-Palmer Apartments. These two-bedroom apartment units accommodate eighty students, and allowed the college to raze several old cottages that had served the college for many years. In addition to this bequest, Mars Hill College made giant strides toward its development emphasis for the Blackwell Administration Building. It is hoped and anticipated that this structure, honoring Hoyt Blackwell, will become a reality during the next academic year.

The total replacement value of the campus now exceeds $20,000,000, with an outstanding indebtedness of $1,409,000. The indebtedness is well below the national norms established for capital indebtedness, and Mars Hill College is indeed grateful to the many benefactors who have been so generous.

The college was privileged to host approximately 4,000 visitors during the summer of 1976. Most of these visitors were involved in conferences: the Week of Christian Study and Fellowship, the Public School Superintendents of Maintenance, the North Carolina Association of Student Councils, the Air Force Chaplains, and similar groups. It is felt by the administration of Mars Hill College that this broad range of exposure enhances public goodwill and opens doors of opportunity for more effectively serving the larger community.

The year-end audit again demonstrated that Mars Hill College operated with a slight excess of income over expenditures. This excess was due in large part to the continuing commitment of Baptists of North Carolina to the Cooperative Program giving. It is our sincere hope that Mars Hill College may continue to be a viable institution within the Baptist family.

Meredith College

The purpose of Meredith College is to develop in its students the Christian attitude toward the whole of life, and to prepare them for intelligent citizenship, homemaking, graduate study, and service. The ideals of academic integrity and religious influence have always been cherished at Meredith.

The Christian college is an extended arm of the church's ministry, dedicated to the ministry of education. The college seeks to educate, train, and develop the mind and the spirit. Meredith College is dedicated to providing superior Christian education for women. To do this requires qualified faculty, outstanding students, a Christian atmosphere, a progressive attitude, an up-to-date library, modern physical facilities, and a sound financial foundation.

On May 16, 1976, two hundred and seventy-seven women received degrees in the Meredith graduation ceremonies. During the three sessions of summer school in 1976, 495 students were enrolled for academic credit. Among these were 61 students who participated in the Meredith Study Abroad program in London, England, an increase of approximately 100 per cent over the preceding year. The program of overseas study continues to grow in numbers and interest.

The Meredith campus served as host during the summer to a variety of programs. These include the Foreign Mission Board Journeymen orientation program, swimming, equitation, tennis, cheerleading and majorette camps, sports camps, music workshops, and a leadership conference of the Boy Scouts of America. During the past year, approximately 25,000 persons, in addition to students, were involved in activities on the Meredith campus.

In the fall semester of 1976, Meredith enrolled the largest number in the college's history, a total of 2,040 students. The residence halls were filled to capacity, with 1,143 resident students. Of the total 2,040 students, 1,542 were enrolled in degree credit courses, consisting of 1,289 full-time and 253 part-time, for a full-time equated enrollment of 1,364. In addition, 225 participated in pre-college music and equitation programs, and 273 students were enrolled in enrichment courses through the Continuing Education program, begun three years ago. Eighty-three per cent of the students are from North Carolina. Approximately 50 per cent of the student body are members of Baptist churches.

During the preceding three-year period, the continuing education division has grown dramatically. Many students who began their work in continuing education have transferred into a regular degree program. In 1975-76, each academic department offered evening courses, providing a more flexible schedule for non-traditional students seeking a degree. Many of the evening courses proved to be popular with the resident students, as well. The enrollment of 703 students during the 1975-76 year in non-credit enrichment courses indicates an increase in interest on all levels for mature students returning to school. Meredith continues to receive very positive reactions from the community for the work being done in continuing education.

"Career guidance" and "career focus" are terms now often heard on the Meredith campus. During recent years Meredith students have indicated a much greater interest in careers than in previous times, a trend reflected in colleges across our nation. The integration of the college's traditional emphasis on the liberal arts and sciences with the growing career awareness is being achieved in a variety of ways. Meredith has traditionally prepared more than 50 percent of its graduates for teaching. Additional career options are provided by the five Bachelor of Science degrees currently offered, and the social welfare sequence. The cooperative education program, now in its third year, introduces a growing number of students to practical work experience in management.

Meredith College continues to operate with a balanced budget. Financial resources for enlarging both the endowment and educational reserves have increased in the past four years by approximately two million dollars. The total college assets are $19,161,041, with an indebtedness of $1,788,000. During 1975-76, total gifts and grants amounted to $1,568,088. Meredith is very appreciative of the significant contributions of the Baptist State Convention through the Cooperative Program, which totalled $383,860 in 1975-76. This generous support represents an increase of eleven percent over 1974-75. The financial support provided by the Baptists of North Carolina is largely responsible for Meredith's ability to keep tuition at reasonable levels. Scholarship funds are available to meet the needs of every qualified student admitted to Meredith College.

A new music and fine arts facility, begun in September, 1975, is expected to be ready for occupancy during the fall of 1976. After completion of the new construction, which will house the music department, Jones Hall will be renovated for use by the fine arts and drama department, at a cost of one and one-half million dollars.

Meredith lost one of her most beloved friends and benefactors with the passing of Kemp S. Cate on July 23, 1976. The Cate Center for student activities is named in his honor. Mr. Cate's love for Meredith and for Christian higher education was evidenced by his commitment to improving the quality of the Meredith experience.

Wake Forest University

Wake Forest University received high marks for the quality of its instruction, the soundness of its finances, the variety of its student life, and the attainability of its goals from a visiting committee which recommended renewal of accreditation by the Southern Association of Schools and Colleges.

The committee's visit was the final phase in a major self-study conducted by the university in which a 639-page report was submitted to the Association. The Association requires a self-study of its members every 10 years.

Additional studies also provided highlights of the 1975-76 year. Wake Forest's affirmative action plan was the first in the state to be approved by the Office of Civil Rights. The role of the liberal arts college in formulating moral values was examined at the James Montgomery Hester Seminar and at a meeting of the College Board of Visitors.

The new Fine Arts Center, which provides handsome and spacious facilities for art and theatre, was ready for occupancy by the beginning of the 1976-77 school year and was dedicated in October.

The $6 million building was financed by the One-Fifty Fund, which was completed with a final total of $10.6 million. The fund, the University's first comprehensive capital campaign since the move to Winston-Salem in 1956, also provided new endowment for the College, School of Law and Babcock Graduate School of Management, and funds to pay for needed renovations of the Z. Smith Reynolds Library and Wingate Hall. Ninety percent of the Wake Forest faculty and staff contributed to the One-Fifty Fund and during the four-year period of the campaign alumni support increased to nearly 40 percent. The One-Fifty Fund was so named because the University will celebrate its 150th birthday in 1984.

Wake Forest is proud to reaffirm its ties with the Baptist State Convention and is grateful for the generous support of North Carolina Baptists, who contributed $672,453 through the Co-operative Program.

Wake Forest again had a balanced budget during 1975-76 and the University received several foundation grants for academic development. Building projects included construction of a new residence facility to house 34 students, and construction of central lodges for Davis and Taylor residence halls. The college scholarship committee made 1,368 awards to undergraduates for a total of $1,136,315. Through the financial aid office, many other students received financial assistance from outside agencies.

At the Medical Center, 85 new and continuing projects were undertaken through research grants and contracts amounting to more than $5 million. The Bowman Gray School of Medicine has become a major research center in the fields of cancer, stroke and cardiovascular disease. The medical school has its largest entering class of 108, with 60 percent from North Carolina, and the residency training program has grown to 281 from 162 residents three years ago.

The University enrollment for the 1976-77 fall semester was 4,347. This included 2,976 undergraduates, 289 in the Graduate School, a record 475 in the School of Law, 200 in the Babcock Graduate School of Management, 389 in the School of Medicine, and 15 in physician assistant and medical technology programs.

Three former trustees and four faculty members died during the year. The trustees were D. Russell Perry, Sr., of Durham; William L. Wyatt, Sr. of Raleigh; and Emory McCall of Lenoir. The professors were Henry Broadus Jones, professor emeritus of English; Jerry A. Hall, associate professor of education and director of undergraduate teacher education; Ivy May Hixson, associate in administration; and Norman Sulkin, who was William Neal Reynolds Professor of Anatomy at the School of Medicine.

Following is an analysis of the University's outstanding loans as of June 30, 1976:

Date	Original Amount	Interest Payable	Purpose	Dates of Maturity	Security Pledged	Principal Balance
10-1-58	400,000	4½%	Apartments	3-1-78	Stud. Apts.	$ 40,000

Wingate College

The Bicentennial Year, 1976, coincides with the 80th anniversary of the founding of Wingate School which, in 1923, became Wingate Junior College and subsequently Wingate College. Conscious of the great heritage we have in our national life and among the fellowship of alumni, friends and interested Baptists, Wingate College seeks to meet the challenge of our time.

With the opening of the fall semester, 1976, the college admitted 1,346 students, an increase of approximately 120 over the fall semester, 1975. Wingate students continue to be drawn primarily from the local region: 87 percent from north Carolina, seven percent from South Carolina, and the remainder from 11 states and nine foreign countries. More than 50 percent of the students require some form of financial assistance. Total assistance available to students from all sources is $869,704. In order that Wingate may continue to serve the youth of our region, the Board of Trustees has worked diligently to maintain modest charges. Wingate's room, board, and tuition costs are still among the lowest of all private colleges in the country.

A full-time campus minister, The Reverend David B. Smith, was added with the beginning of the 1975 academic year. Wingate students, faculty, and administration have appeared in some 20 annual associational meetings and in numerous associational and church emphases. In the summer of 1976, eight Wingate College students were on mission for Christ through our churches in the program of Baptist Youth Corps. This outstanding program afforded the opportunity for maturity and service under the guidance of local ministers and churches, many of which would not have programs of youth ministry during the summer. In addition, students have faithfully maintained their witness to residents of nearby rest homes, and through youth revival teams.

1975-76 was also a significant year in that the college received the approval of the Baptist State Convention to pursue the granting of baccalaureate degrees. While Wingate expects to continue its ministry as an associate degree-granting institution, it hopes to extend its service to students by offering the possibility of remaining at Wingate for the baccalaureate degree in three fields: music, business, and human services. Approval of the baccalaureate program was granted by the General Board of the Baptist State Convention on July 14, 1976. It is planned that the junior year will be added in 1977-78 and the senior year in 1978-79. The first baccalaureate class will be graduated in the spring of 1979.

Though 1975-76 was a year of uncertainty, Wingate was able to operate on a balanced budget. This achievement could not have occurred without the generous support of the Baptist State Convention, and of many citizens who strongly believe in Christian higher education. The college received word in the course of the year that it will benefit significantly from the estate of Mr. and Mrs. Homer V. Lang of Charlotte, long-time members of the Myers Park Baptist Church. Also, the college learned that it would receive the major share of the estate of Mr. and Mrs. B.K. Laney, of Atlanta. Mrs. Laney, a native of Union County, earlier gave a unique collection of porcelain figurines to Wingate College.

During the year, construction began on a new 30,000 square foot student activities facility, to be called the Dickson-Palmer Center. Almost all of the $1.3 million required for the structure has been given or pledged. The main stimulus to the project was a gift from the Fannie Dry Palmer Foundation in the amount of $553,000. The name of the building honors the late Mrs. Fannie Dry Palmer of Albemarle, and C.C. Dickson, Sr., of Charlotte, both outstanding Baptists. The structure will house a small chapel; recreation space, including six bowling lanes; and offices for those administrative officers who work most directly with students. The structure will occupy a prime corner in the heart of the campus. Anticipated completion date is May 1, 1977.

It was with genuine sadness that the college community received the news of the death of Budd E. Smith, tenth president and president emeritus of Wingate College. Dr. Smith, president of the college from 1953 until 1974, was responsible for remarkable growth in enrollment, physical plant, and in financial stability. The college community, at a special memorial service, expressed appreciation for Dr. Smith's Christian commitment to young people and to higher education.

Wingate continues to enjoy a position almost unique among the nation's private colleges in that it has no indebtedness. The future promises new avenues of service to our Lord through the educational ministry of North Carolina Baptists at Wingate College.

Baptist Children's Homes Of North Carolina

As the nation has observed its bicentennial and now enters its third century, we are reminded that its future is in its children. We have no greater national need than strength of character and wholeness of persons in our citizens. Many of our children, through family tragedy, breakdown or weakness are deprived of the wholesome, growing experiences so essential to life.

The purpose of the Baptist Children's Homes of North Carolina is to make up this loss through a Christian ministry of quality child care. Through a variety of services its focus is on the whole family and is motivated by Christian love. To accomplish this the variety of services provided by the homes has been increased in recent years.

The Maternity Home in Asheville, opened in 1970, became the first agency-owned group facility in Western North Carolina. This has proved to be a much-needed and well-received service. Girls have been served from throughout North Carolina and beyond. It is recognized for its quality of care and Christian concern.

After several years of careful planning, generous giving, and hard work, Broyhill Home became a reality in 1971. People in the western part of the state rose to the challenge and provided funds to purchase land and develop a campus with buildings and facilities for sixty children. A fifth cottage was completed and dedicated September 9, 1976. This is one of the most modern, up-to-date facilities of its kind in the nation.

The Frontiersmen program at Kennedy Home for boys and girls to participate in Wilderness Group Therapy is meeting with significant success. The Duke Endowment has recognized the value of this special child care ministry to the extent of giving us a $75,000 grant over a period of three years to insure adequate support for this innovative effort. Other child caring agencies across the nation are studying this program.

Odum Home at Pembroke has been a vital part to the total ministry for many years. Groundbreaking ceremonies for the first phase of expansion were observed there on September 30, 1976 for the construction of a cottage for children, a recreation building and a residence for the director. Two additional cottages are to be added later. We are deeply indebted to a fine host of friends throughout Southeastern North Carolina who have responded to the initial challenge by Mr. and Mrs. John Newton and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Deal, of Hickory.

Due to the fine spirit of cooperation on the part of the First Church, Henderson and member churches in the Cullom Association, an emergency shelter was opened in Henderson last October. This facility, in addition to ones at Burlington, Charlotte and Forest City, will provide emergency care for children while plans are being made for longer term placement or their referral to other helping agencies.

The department of Child Development and Family Education is available to assist pastors and churches in planning and presenting wider services to strengthen, enrich and support Christian family life. Members of the staff are available upon call to provide assistance in planning for day care, family education and related interests.

We are deeply grateful at the Homes for every expression of interest and means of support provided by our people. Special gifts, income through the Cooperative Program and the Thanksgiving Offering are vital to our existence.

North Carolina Baptist Homes (for the aging)

The past year has been of special excitement and enthusiasm as we entered into the fund-raising effort to raise $1,000,000 for the construction of the Western North Carolina Baptist Home in Asheville. In September, 1975, Ralph Cannon, beloved pastor, and trustee of the Homes, was called by the trustees to serve as director of development and denominational relations and has been leading the fund raising program for the Western North Carolina Baptist Home in a remarkable way. He reports that the response from our Baptist pastors and people in Western North Carolina has been most encouraging, and that there is every indication that we will reach the goal. We are grateful not only to those in Western North Carolina, but throughout the State, for the happy and successful response that we have experienced thus far as we move toward making this additional Home available for our older people in one of the most beautiful spots in the world.

When completed, the Western North Carolina Home, in Asheville, will accommodate 50 people, and will bring the total capacity of our Baptist Homes and the Nursing Care Unit to 280. We now operate five other Homes, and a Nursing Care Unit--Resthaven, the Hayes Home, the Nursing Care Unit, in Winston-Salem; the Albemarle Home, in Albemarle; the Hamilton Home, in Hamilton, the Yanceyville Home, in Yanceyville.

In these Homes the best of care is given, the compassion and love of Christ shared and underscored. The love gifts of North Carolina Baptist make this Christian care and concern possible through two very vital sources--the Cooperative Program, and the special offering for the Homes, received on the third Sunday of February each year. Through these sources more than 35 percent of the Homes' total income is provided, and the majority of the residents who cannot pay the full cost of care are supplemented. We are grateful for these life-sustaining gifts and thank every North Carolina Baptist who makes them possible! Gifts this year, through these sources, are greater than ever before, and if we are to meet the overwhelming needs of older people in our midst, we must double and triple our efforts, both in numbers ministered to, and in support of them.

Close at hand is another venture in the development of the Homes which we're excited--the building of apartments on the site of the Hayes Home property in Winston-Salem. The first of these units is to be completed by the fall of 1977.

North Carolina Baptist Hospital

"Christian stewardship" is a phrase frequently heard in staff meetings at Baptist Hospital. The hospital's leadership holds to a philosophy of administration based on stewardship and tries to pass this on to all employees. A continuing effort is made to help each employee, whatever his particular job, to realize he is part of a team involved in a Christian ministry of healing.

This sense of stewardship demands a continual updating and upgrading of medical procedures to assure patients the highest quality care. One of the most significant recent developments is the creation of a department of Family Medicine. This department provides primary health care for a limited number of families, that is, the kind of all-round, ongoing health care normally provided by a family physician. At the same time the department offers training in family medicine for physicians who will enter this field of practice.

Many of the physicians training in family medicine are receiving part of their clinical experience in small towns and rural communities under the auspices of the Area Health Education Centers (AHEC), created by the State legislature. It is believed and hoped that some of them will choose to remain in these areas for their permanent practice.

Improvement of physical facilities is another expression of the hospital's sense of stewardship. In recent months renovation of the west and south wings of the hospital has been completed; construction has been completed on an addition to the water-chilling facilities; construction has begun on a four-level parking deck in front of Reynolds Tower which will provide approximately 800 parking spaces for visitors; and construction has begun on a new building to house the new department of Family Medicine. Future construction plans include a six-story focus building to replace the original hospital building which opened in 1923.

The Pastoral Care Department continues to make its contributions toward the fulfillment of our stewardship. A chaplain is assigned to each area of the hospital and is responsible for providing a pastoral ministry to patients, staff and visitors in that area. There are capacity enrollments in all phases of the Clinical Pastoral Education programs. A third satellite has opened in Morganton during the past year. Andrew Lester, director, Department of Pastoral Care since 1971, has resigned to accept a position as associate professor of psychology of religion at the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary.

Mothers' Day gifts for the fiscal year ending June 30 were $405,946.52, compared to a total of $390,000 for the preceding fiscal year.

Biblical Recorder

The directors of the Biblical Recorder, Inc., are pleased to present the following report to the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina for the year ended September 30, 1976:

Highlights Of The Year

The Recorder continues to gain circulation in a healthy manner. The past year was typical when 4,118 subscribers were added to the circulation rolls, bringing the count at the end of the fiscal year, Sept. 30, to 116,613.

Even though this figure is encouraging, circulation should be 125,000 or even 150,000. We are reminded of the challenge ahead when statistics show that 1,638 churches do not have a Recorder club of any type. Many of these churches should at least have a good-sized Recorder club or better still, send it to every resident family under the Church Budget Plan.

It has been a struggle in the past year to maintain the Church Budget Plan rate of only $2.75 a year, plus state sales tax. This low cost was made possible by the continued assistance of the Baptist State Convention which provided $100,000 a year for the paper. The Recorder operates with a minimum staff which further reduces subscription cost.

In the past year, the Recorder welcomed Charles R. Richardson as assistant editor, succeeding Toby Druin who resigned November, 1973, but whose job had not been filled because of budget squeezes. Richardson came to the Recorder June 15 from the Baptist Standard in Texas where he was an associate on the staff. In addition to his day-by-day duties in the office, he will be writing feature stories and taking pictures all over the state.

Despite continuing increases in the cost of paper, printing and postage, the Recorder was able to stay in the black again last year. This was made possible by cutting corners in every place possible, primarily by maintaining a 16 page printing schedule each week rather than 24 pages which was the pattern in past years.

Once again, we urge churches to put the Recorder in the budget along with other Christian literature. This is the simplest and most economical way of keeping church members well informed. And it can be done for only 5½ cents per week per family, an unbelievably low price in these inflationary times.

North Carolina Baptist Foundation

During the 1975-1976 fiscal year, the North Carolina Baptist Foundation has continued to be used as a channel for Baptists of our state to provide a tangible support for missions in a perpetual way for the years to come. Through a will of a person who had received financial assistance years ago from our Baptist Hospital, a $29,950 trust was established with the Baptist Foundation to provide income for the hospital's needy patients. The income of the investment for one year will repay what the hospital provided in financial assistance to this person.

The children of one family, upon the settlement of the estate of their father, placed all the residence of the estate with the Foundation to establish a trust in memory of their parents for foreign mission support. Their mother and dad had long been interested in this area of our Christian ministry.

A widow tithed the estate of her recently deceased husband to provide an educational scholarship for a student in Christian education in one of our Baptist colleges. Another husband and wife began a trust "To the Glory of God and in Honor of our Pastor." This was but the beginning of a Book of Honor for North Carolina Pastors and Missionaries with income to go toward all mission efforts of our denomination through the Co-operative Program. The value of the principal has increased sixty times already since the first gift and several pastors and missionaries have been remembered in this expression of love.

A widow has established a living trust turning over all of her property and financial assets for the remainder of her life, reserving the right to income, and upon her death it will then be divided among several institutions and mission causes, one of which will be mission ministries in the local association.

New additions during the 1975-1976 year to the North Carolina Baptist Foundation assets held for our institutions and missions totaled $210,147.17. This amount combined with the market value of real estate (including the Yanceyville unit of the N.C. Baptist Homes, Inc.), annuity trusts, and the Foundation Common Trust Fund brings the total market value of assets, as of June 30, 1976 to $2,946,044.49.

The income from Foundation trust funds paid to beneficiaries during 1975-1976 was $157,069.28. In previous years the Foundation had paid to beneficiaries $1,018,414.76. The total paid through June 30, 1976 now has reached $1,175,484.04.

Wills still account for a major portion of the assets of the Foundation, but presently the annuity trust accounts comprise $480,270.73 of the total value of the Foundation assets.

Executive Committee of the General
Board of the Baptist State
Convention of North Carolina
Raleigh, North Carolina

We have examined the balance sheet of the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina as of December 31, 1976 and the related statements of income and expenses and distributions and changes in fund balances and other supportive statements for the year then ended. Our examination was made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, and accordingly included such tests of the accounting records and such other auditing procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances.

The funds shown as sent direct on the statement of income and its distribution to funds were taken from reports received by the Convention and were not otherwise verified by us. The scope of our examination as detailed by Note 3 was, in some instances, limited. Additions to fixed assets are recorded at cost. Dispositions of fixed assets (Notes 1 and 2) are deleted from fixed asset accounts to the extent known. No provision has been made for depreciation (Note 2).

In our opinion, subject to the effects of the matters referred to in the preceding paragraph, the accompanying balance sheet and statements of income and expenses and distributions and changes in fund balances and other supportive statements present fairly the financial position of the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina at December 31, 1976, and the results of its operations and the changes in fund balances for the year then ended, in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles applicable to such organizations applied on a basis consistent with that of the preceding year.

1. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES:

The accounting policies of the Convention conform to generally accepted accounting principles applicable to related nonprofit organizations. The Convention records its receipts and disbursements on the cash basis and adheres to fund accounting. Other policies are described below:

ACCOUNTS, NOTES AND OTHER RECEIVABLES—As the Convention is on the cash basis, no income is accrued. However, receivables not involving income accruals are recorded.

PREPAID ITEMS AND INVENTORIES—Inventories and prepaid expenses are recorded at cost and are charged to the following accounting period. Amounts in this category are normally small and are usually recorded to conform to budget procedures.

FIXED ASSETS—Purchases of fixed assets and improvements are charged to operating expense as they are paid for. The assets are also recorded at cost in the fixed asset accounts of the general fund and credited to the fund balance. No consideration is given to depreciation. Leasehold costs are amortized over the life of the leaseholds or extension thereof. Real estate disposed of is deleted from the fixed asset accounts at the time of disposition. Personal property is also deleted from the fixed asset accounts when disposed of, if complete information is available. Information on all disposals is not always known. Detailed subsidiary ledgers are not maintained.

DEBT AND LIABILITIES—As the Convention is on the cash basis, current unpaid expenses are not accrued and do not involve an accounts payable account. As a practical matter, at the end of the year, most all creditors are paid right up-to-date. Long-term notes and other liabilities not previously referred to in this paragraph are recorded on the Convention books and appear on the balance sheet.

RETIREMENT PLANS—The Convention contributes to retirement plans for its own employees and shares in the cost of the plans of employees of participating Baptist churches in North Carolina. All such costs are charged to operations in the year paid.

RESTRICTED RESERVE FUNDS—The Convention routinely receives contributions designated for specific uses. From time to time, the Convention or General Board designates certain funds for special purposes. All designations are recorded in restricted fund accounts so that charges to the accounts are be restricted to the designated purposes.

INCOME TAXES—The Convention is a tax-exempt organization and does not, therefore, have to account for income taxes.

2. DEPRECIATION:

Fixed assets are valued at accumulated costs for prior years, plus costs of additions for the current year, reduced by dispositions when ascertainable, and with no consideration given to depreciation. As a result, the values do not reflect depreciated costs or net costs where complete information on dispositions has not been known.

3. FUNDS SENT DIRECT AND OTHER SCOPE LIMITATIONS:

The funds shown as sent direct on the statement of income and its distribution to funds were taken from reports received by the Convention and were not otherwise verified by us. As a routine procedure, funds are received by the Convention business office from various departments within the Convention covering registration fees, miscellaneous sales, expense reimbursements and other such items. The scope of our examination of these items was limited to receipts as recorded in the business office receipt books. The scope of our examination of receipts for the North Carolina Baptist Assembly, the Fruitland Baptist Bible Institute and Camp CaRAway was limited to amounts recorded in pre-numbered receipt books and did not include reconciliations to separate records of registrations, enrollments and attendance.

In the course of the examination, the existence of three previously unreported bank accounts approximating $2,800.00 at the Baptist Assembly came to our attention. The accounts and the related activity are not included in this report as the underlying records were not available to us for an examination prior to the report date.

4. RESERVE FOR INSURANCE DEDUCTIBLES AND PROVISION FOR PROMOTION OF 1977 STATE MISSION OFFERING:

A $10,000.00 reserve for insurance deductibles was authorized in 1976. In addition, up to $30,000.00 of the State Mission Offering for 1976 was approved for promotion of the State Mission Offering goal for 1977. Provisions for setting aside these amounts had not been made at year end as Executive Committee review is being requested because of events subsequent to the approval of the two amounts.

In the event that the $10,000.00 reserve for insurance deductibles is set up, it would come from the operating reserve of $282,445.94.

If the $30,000.00 (or a portion thereof) is set aside for the promotion of the State Mission goal for 1977, it would come from the Reserve for Assembly Improvement Fund of $160,706.21 as that fund received the excess of $300,000.00 of the 1976 State Mission Offering.
